Dear Vice President Asbury,

Re: AM2024/6 - Variation of modern awards to include a delegates' rights term

SUBMISSION OF THE AUSTRALIAN SERVICES UNION DELEGATE'S RIGHTS TERM

The Australian Services Union (ASU) represents the interests of approximately 135,000 members across the country in a diversity of industries including local government, energy, water, public transport, airlines, shipping, travel, ports, social and community services, information technology and the private sector clerical and administrative area.

Union delegates are ASU members empowered to represent their colleagues in the workplace and they play an important role in Australia's industrial relations system by ensuring the rights of workers are upheld.

The ASU therefore supports the submission made by the Australian Council of Trade of Unions in relation to the model delegate's rights term.

Yours sincerely

Robert Potter
