Dear Sir/Madam

We write in relation to Clubs Australia Industrial's witness Mr Alan Robinson. Regrettably, Mr Robinson has informed us that he is not available for cross-examination due to the ill health of his wife. He has provided us with the attached statutory declaration to this effect.

Kind regards

Helen Carayannis

Statutory Declaration

I, Alan Raymond Robinson.....of [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Postcode... [REDACTED]in the State of New South Wales Retired..(Occupation) do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am unable to attend the Commission in Sydney to be cross examined regarding my statement due to the fact my wife is very ill and I am her carer. I cannot leave her unattended for any period of time. She is unable to carry out most of the domestic duties in our home. My wife condition means that she cannot hold anything without dropping it without warning. The medication she is on causes her to have insomnia. She needs to sleep for short periods at odd hours of the day. I need to monitor her at these times.

And I make this solemn declaration consciously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the provisions of the Oaths Act 1900.

Signature of Declarant
