Dear AMOD Team

We refer to the above matter in which we act for a number of clients in respect of the Journalists Published Media Award 2010.

We note the directions for filing submissions on further technical and drafting matters, and any substantive matters, by 4pm today. We understand that some parties have been granted an extension of one week to file their material.

We are writing to request a similar extension of one week to file any material our clients may wish to file – ie, to 4pm on 26 April 2018.

We thank the Fair Work Commission for its consideration of this request, which will afford our clients a short amount of additional time to consider the exposure draft and outstanding substantive matters.

A representative from the Media Entertainment and Arts Alliance (MEAA) is copied into this email. MEAA is aware of our intention to make this request and are not opposed to it.

Yours faithfully

Steve
