

Submission of video material to the Fair Work Commission for the SES Award Review - AM2014/286.

In 2017 National Disability Services, as part of its BuyAbility Campaign collected stories from supported employees across Australia.

Over 70 supported employees submitted stories that featured the training, social and wellbeing benefits they obtain through their work in a Disability Enterprise.

Five of those stories were filmed and are provided to the Fair Work Commission for consideration in the Review of the SES Award, matter AM2014/286.

National Disability Services is the peak industry body for non-government disability services. Its purpose is to promote and advance services for people with disability. Its Australia-wide membership includes 1100 non-government organisations, which support people with all forms of disability. Its members collectively provide the full range of disability services - from accommodation support, respite and therapy to community access and employment. NDS provides information and networking opportunities to its members and policy advice to State, Territory and Federal governments.
