Subject: Request for extension for reply - AM2015/1 - Four yearly review of modern awards - Family and domestic violence clause

Dear Associate,

Despite our best efforts the ACTU will not be in a position to file reply submissions today. This is in part due to the public holiday in Melbourne on Friday last week, which reduced the number of business days available to us to finalise our material.

We expect to be in a position to file submissions by close of business tomorrow and we respectfully seek an extension until that time. My counterparts at AiG and ACCI indicated in discussions today that they would not object to a short extension for filing our reply.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Sophie
