Good morning Ms Bhatt,

An extension of time has been granted to Monday 13 August 2018. Accordingly, the filing date of item 2 set out in the email correspondence dated 27 July 2018 is varied as follows:

2. United Voice and Ai Group are to have further discussions about Item 35 (paragraph 25.3(c)) and provide a joint report on the outcome of those discussions by 4pm, Monday 13 August 2018. Any submissions in reply are to be filed by 4pm, Friday 24 August 2018.

5. On 30 August 2018 the Commission will publish an updated PLED and a list of outstanding issues including the parties' respective positions in respect of clause 9—Full-time employment (item 3).

Kind regards,

Casey Sutton

Dear Associate,

I refer to the above matter.

On 26 July 2018, the Australian Industry Group (Ai Group) and United Voice were directed to jointly report back to the Fair Work Commission (Commission) today regarding the outcome of our discussions concerning item 35 (clause 25.3(c)) of the Exposure Draft – Cleaning Services Award 2018.

Ai Group and United Voice have had productive discussions to date. The discussions have highlighted the complexity of the matter and have raised various issues requiring further consideration by both parties.

Accordingly, Ai Group requests an extension of time to continue our discussions with United Voice and to report back on their progress by close of business on 17 August 2018. We understand that United Voice does not oppose this course of action.

We thank the Commission for its consideration of our request.

Kind regards,
Ruchi.
