Dear Associate

ABI, NSWBC and ACA were of the same understanding as UWU and had not anticipated filing submissions on all matters arising from the Decision of 10 June until 30 June 2020.

Our client's also respectfully request that the extension be applied to the filing of submissions on all matters arising from the Decision of 10 June and apologise for any misunderstanding that has caused delay on our part.

Kind regards

Sophie

Subject: AM2018/18 and AM2018/20: Request for clarification on extension

Dear Associate,

We refer to the Statement dated 15 June 2020 [FWCFB 3118], which dealt with one of the provisional views expressed in the decision of 10 June 2020 (the June decision), on the award coverage of teachers in early childhood education and care (ECEC). The Statement amended the directions set out in the Decision, with submissions now to be filed by 4pm Tuesday, 30 June 2020.

We are unsure if the extension applies to submissions on all matters arising from the Decision of 10 June, or just in relation to submissions on the award coverage of teachers in ECEC.

If the extension was only in respect of the award coverage of teachers in ECEC, the UWU respectfully requests that the extension also be applied to submissions on the other provisional views expressed in the decision. This will provide the UWU will time to consult internally on our response.

In addition, my colleague Ms Laura Stevens (Laura.Stevens@unitedworkers.org.au) will now be taking carriage of this matter, so we request that she is included in future communications on this matter.

Thank you,
