Subject: RE: AM2016/30: Alpine Resorts Award

Dear Mr Nowland,

Re: AM2016/30: Alpine Resorts Award

I refer to your email below.

In answer to your question, the Full Bench would like to be picked up from Cooma on the morning of the Wednesday 23 August 2017 as they will be driving to Cooma.

If you could inform me as soon as practicable where the determined location is in Cooma, I can inform the Full Bench. It would be preferable for the location to have available parking for the day.

Kind regards,

Helen Hamberger

Subject: AM2016/30: Alpine Resorts Award

Dear Ms Hamberger,

AM2016/30: Alpine Resorts Award

We refer to our telephone discussion yesterday in which you requested the names of the attendees taking part in the site-inspections on 23 August 2017. We can now confirm the attendees are as follows:

- Michael Harmer and Christopher Nowland from Harmers Workplace Lawyers;
- Luis Izzo and Kyle Scott from Australian Business Lawyers & Associates;
- Matt Galbraith from the SDA; and
- Andrew Crabb and Garth Toner from the AWU.

We also confirm that a bus has been booked to transport the parties between locations during the site inspections. Can you please confirm where the Full Bench would like to be picked up from on the morning of 23 August 2017? Currently the plan is for the Harmers and SDA representatives to get on the bus in Cooma (at a yet to be determined location), and then pick up the ABL representatives in Jindabyne on our way through to Perisher. We are still awaiting confirmation on the pickup location of the AWU representatives.

Yours faithfully,

Christopher Nowland
