JUSTICE HATCHER, PRESIDENT
VICE PRESIDENT CATANZARITI
COMMISSIONER SPENCER

SYDNEY, 10 MARCH 2023

Family and domestic violence leave review 2021 – paid family and domestic violence leave – Hospitality Industry (General) Award 2020.

A. Further to the Full Bench decision issued by the Fair Work Commission on 10 March 2023 [[2023] FWCFB 39], the above award is varied as follows:

1. By deleting the words “personal/carer’s leave and compassionate leave and unpaid family and domestic violence leave” appearing in paragraph (e) of the extract of s.61 of the Fair Work Act 2009 in clause 2 under the definition of “National Employment Standards” and inserting “personal/carer’s leave, compassionate leave and paid family and domestic violence leave”.

2. By deleting clause 34—Unpaid family and domestic violence leave and inserting the following:

34. Family and domestic violence leave

Family and domestic violence leave is provided for in the NES.

NOTE 1: Information provided to employers concerning an employee’s experience of family and domestic violence is sensitive and if mishandled can have adverse consequences for the employee. Employers are subject to confidentiality requirements regarding the handling of this information under section 106C of the Act and requirements as to what can be reported on payslips pursuant to regulations 3.47 and 3.48 of the Fair Work Regulations.

NOTE 2: Depending upon the circumstances, evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of the employee’s need to take family and domestic violence leave may include a document issued by the police service, a court or family violence support service, or a statutory declaration.

3. By updating the table of contents and cross-references accordingly.

B. This determination comes into operation on 15 March 2023. In accordance with s.165(3) of the Fair Work Act 2009 this determination does not take effect in relation to a particular employee until the start of the employee's first full pay period that starts on or after 15 March 2023.
