About the F68 application form

Application for consent to the alteration of eligibility rules of an organisation

Who can use this form

Use this form if you want to obtain the consent of the Commission to change the eligibility rules of an organisation under s.158 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (RO Act).

About applications for rule changes

If an application is lodged with the Commission, the General Manager of the Commission will publish a notice in the government Gazette to inform interested parties of the application in accordance with reg. 122 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations 2009 (RO Regulations). It will be possible for any interested organisation, association or person to lodge an objection to the application within 35 days of the publication of that notice (see RO Regulations, reg. 124).

In dealing with an application to alter the eligibility rules of an organisation, the Commission will not (RO Regulations, reg. 125(1)):

- refuse to grant the application without giving the applicant an opportunity to be heard; or
- grant the application without giving any objector to the application (provided that the requirements for lodging an objection have been complied with) an opportunity to be heard.

If the Commission consents to the alteration to the organisation’s eligibility rules, the alteration will take effect on the date specified in the consent or in other cases on the day of the consent (RO Act, s.158(9)). For more information, please see the Commission’s fact sheet on altering the rules of registered organisations.

A change to the eligibility rules of an organisation under s.158 of the RO Act will not take effect unless the Fair Work Commission (Commission) consents to the alteration.

Legal or other representation

Representation is where another person (such as a family member or friend, lawyer or paid agent, or an employee of a union or employer organisation) speaks or acts on a person’s behalf, or assists a person in certain other ways in relation to a matter before the Commission. There is no requirement to be represented at the Commission.

There are some restrictions on representation by a lawyer or paid agent.

Generally, a person must give notice to the Commission (by lodging a Form F53A – Notice that a person will seek permission for lawyer or paid agent to participate in a conference or hearing) and seek permission from the Commission Member dealing with the matter if they wish to have a lawyer or paid agent represent them by participating in a conference or a hearing.

Apart from participating in a conference or hearing, a person’s lawyer or paid agent can represent them without permission, unless the Commission decides otherwise. For example, the lawyer or paid agent can prepare and lodge written applications, responses and submissions with the Commission, and communicate in writing with the Commission and other parties to the matter on the person’s behalf.

The requirement to give notice and seek permission for a lawyer or paid agent to participate in a conference or hearing, does not apply if the lawyer or paid agent is:

- an employee or officer of the person or
- a bargaining representative that is representing the person or
- an employee or officer of an employee or employer organisation, or an association of employers or a peak council, that is representing the person.

Rule 12(2) of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2013 sets out further exceptions to the requirement to give notice and seek permission.

For more information about representation by lawyers and paid agents, see section 596 of the Fair Work Act 2009, rules 11, 12 and 12A of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2013 and the Commission’s practice note on representation by lawyers and paid agents.
