3. The National Employment Standards and this award

3.1 The National Employment Standards (NES) and this award contain the minimum conditions of employment for employees covered by this award.

3.2 Where this award refers to a condition of employment provided for in the NES, the NES definition applies.

3.3 The employer must ensure that copies of the award and the NES are available to all employees to whom they apply, either on a notice board which is conveniently located at or near the workplace or through accessible electronic means.

4. Coverage

4.1 This industry award covers employers throughout Australia in the industry of silviculture and afforestation and their employees in the classifications listed in clause 12—Classifications to the exclusion of any other modern award.

4.2 For the purpose of clause 4, silviculture and afforestation means planting, pruning, fertilising and any other activity in or in connection with the establishment or cultivation of trees in forests.

4.3 This award covers any employer which supplies labour on an on-hire basis in the silviculture and afforestation industry in respect of on-hire employees in classifications covered by this award, and those on-hire employees, while engaged in the performance of work for a business in that industry. Clause 4.3 operates subject to the exclusions from coverage in this award.

4.4 This award covers employers which provide group training services for trainees engaged in the silviculture and afforestation industry and/or parts of industry and those trainees engaged by a group training service hosted by a company to perform work at a location where the activities described herein are being performed. Clause 4.4 operates subject to the exclusions from coverage in this award.

4.5 This award does not cover:

(a) employees excluded from award coverage by the Act

(b) employees who are covered by a modern enterprise award or an enterprise instrument (within the meaning of the Fair Work (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Act 2009 (Cth)), or employers in relation to those employees; or

4.6 Where an employer is covered by more than one award, an employee of that employer is covered by the award classification which is most appropriate to the work performed by the employee and to the environment in which the employee normally performs the work.
NOTE: Where there is no classification for a particular employee in this award it is possible that the employer and that employee are covered by an award with occupational coverage.

5. Individual flexibility arrangements

5.1 Despite anything else in this award, an employer and an individual employee may agree to vary the application of the terms of this award relating to any of the following in order to meet the genuine needs of both the employee and the employer:

(a) arrangements for when work is performed; or
(b) overtime rates; or
(c) penalty rates; or
(d) allowances; or
(e) annual leave loading.

5.2 An agreement must be one that is genuinely made by the employer and the individual employee without coercion or duress.

5.3 An agreement may only be made after the individual employee has commenced employment with the employer.

5.4 An employer who wishes to initiate the making of an agreement must:

(a) give the employee a written proposal; and
(b) if the employer is aware that the employee has, or reasonably should be aware that the employee may have, limited understanding of written English, take reasonable steps (including providing a translation in an appropriate language) to ensure that the employee understands the proposal.

5.5 An agreement must result in the employee being better off overall at the time the agreement is made than if the agreement had not been made.

5.6 An agreement must do all of the following:

(a) state the names of the employer and the employee; and
(b) identify the award term, or award terms, the application of which is to be varied; and
(c) set out how the application of the award term, or each award term, is varied; and
(d) set out how the agreement results in the employee being better off overall at the time the agreement is made than if the agreement had not been made; and
(e) state the date the agreement is to start.

5.7 An agreement must be:

(a) in writing; and
(b) signed by the employer and the employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, by the employee’s parent or guardian.

5.8 Except as provided in clause 5.7(b), an agreement must not require the approval or consent of a person other than the employer and the employee.

5.9 The employer must keep the agreement as a time and wages record and give a copy to the employee.

5.10 The employer and the employee must genuinely agree, without duress or coercion to any variation of an award provided for by an agreement.

5.11 An agreement may be terminated:

(a) at any time, by written agreement between the employer and the employee; or

(b) by the employer or employee giving 13 weeks’ written notice to the other party (reduced to 4 weeks if the agreement was entered into before the first full pay period starting on or after 4 December 2013).

NOTE: If an employer and employee agree to an arrangement that purports to be an individual flexibility arrangement under this award term and the arrangement does not meet a requirement set out in section 144 then the employee or the employer may terminate the arrangement by giving written notice of not more than 28 days (see section 145 of the Act).

5.12 An agreement terminated as mentioned in clause 5.11(b) ceases to have effect at the end of the period of notice required under that clause.

5.13 The right to make an agreement under clause 5 is additional to, and does not affect, any other term of this award that provides for an agreement between an employer and an individual employee.

6. Requests for flexible working arrangements

6.1 Employee may request change in working arrangements

Clause 6 applies where an employee has made a request for a change in working arrangements under section 65 of the Act.

NOTE 1: Section 65 of the Act provides for certain employees to request a change in their working arrangements because of their circumstances, as set out in section 65(1A). Clause 6 supplements or deals with matters incidental to the NES provisions.

NOTE 2: An employer may only refuse a section 65 request for a change in working arrangements on ‘reasonable business grounds’ (see section 65(5) and (5A)).

NOTE 3: Clause 6 is an addition to section 65.

6.2 Responding to the request

Before responding to a request made under section 65, the employer must discuss the request with the employee and genuinely try to reach agreement on a change in working arrangements that will reasonably accommodate the employee’s circumstances having regard to:

(a) the needs of the employee arising from their circumstances;

(b) the consequences for the employee if changes in working arrangements are not made; and

(c) any reasonable business grounds for refusing the request.

NOTE 1: The employer must give the employee a written response to an employee’s section 65 request within 21 days, stating whether the employer grants or refuses the request (section 65(4)).

NOTE 2: If the employer refuses the request, then the written response must include details of the reasons for the refusal (section 65(6)).

6.3 What the written response must include if the employer refuses the request

(a) Clause 6.3 applies if the employer refuses the request and has not reached an agreement with the employee under clause 6.2.

(b) The written response under section 65(4) must include details of the reasons for the refusal, including the business ground or grounds for the refusal and how the ground or grounds apply.

(c) If the employer and employee could not agree on a change in working arrangements under clause 6.2, then the written response under section 65(4) must:

(i) state whether or not there are any changes in working arrangements that the employer can offer the employee so as to better accommodate the employee’s circumstances; and

(ii) if the employer can offer the employee such changes in working arrangements, set out those changes in working arrangements.

6.4 What the written response must include if a different change in working arrangements is agreed

If the employer and the employee reached an agreement under clause 6.2 on a change in working arrangements that differs from that initially requested by the employee, then the employer must provide the employee with a written response to their request setting out the agreed change(s) in working arrangements.

6.5 Dispute resolution

Disputes about whether the employer has discussed the request with the employee and responded to the request in the way required by clause 6, can be dealt with under clause 30—Dispute resolution.
7. Facilitative provisions

7.1 A facilitative provision provides that the standard approach in an award provision may be departed from by agreement between an employer and an individual employee, or an employer and the majority of employees in the enterprise or part of the enterprise concerned.

Part 2—Types of Employment and Classifications

8. Types of employment

8.1 Employees under this award will be employed in one of the following categories:

(a) full-time;

(b) part-time; or

(c) casual.

8.2 At the time of engagement an employer will inform each employee in writing of the terms of their engagement and in particular whether they are to be full-time, part-time or casual.

9. Full-time employees

A full-time employee is an employee engaged as such who works an average of 38 hours per week.

10. Part-time employees

10.1 A part-time employee:

(a) is engaged to work less than 38 hours per week;
(b) has predictable hours of work; and
(c) receives, on a pro rata basis, equivalent pay and conditions to those of full-time employees who do the same kind of work.

10.2 At the time of engagement the employer and the part-time employee will agree in writing on a regular pattern of work including the hours to be worked and the starting and finishing times on each day.

10.3 Any agreed variation to the regular pattern of work will be recorded in writing.

10.4 An employer is required to roster a part-time employee for a minimum of 3 consecutive hours on any shift.

10.5 All time worked in excess of the hours mutually arranged will be overtime and paid for at the appropriate overtime rate.

11. Casual employees

11.1 A casual employee is an employee who is engaged and paid as a casual employee.

11.2 Casual loading

For each hour worked, a casual employee must be paid at least:

(a) the ordinary hourly rate; and
(b) a loading of 25% of the ordinary hourly rate, for the classification in which they are employed.

11.3 A casual employee must be engaged and paid for at least 2 consecutive hours of work on each occasion they are required to attend work.

11.4 Right to request casual conversion

(a) A person engaged by a particular employer as a regular casual employee may request that their employment be converted to full-time or part-time employment.

(b) A regular casual employee is a casual employee who has in the preceding period of 12 months worked a pattern of hours on an ongoing basis which, without significant adjustment, the employee could continue to perform as a full-time employee or part-time employee under the provisions of this award.

(c) A regular casual employee who has worked equivalent full-time hours over the preceding period of 12 months’ casual employment may request to have their employment converted to full-time employment.

(d) A regular casual employee who has worked less than equivalent full-time hours over the preceding period of 12 months’ casual employment may request to have their employment converted to part-time employment consistent with the pattern of hours previously worked.

(e) Any request under clause 11.4 must be in writing and provided to the employer.
Where a regular casual employee seeks to convert to full-time or part-time employment, the employer may agree to or refuse the request, but the request may only be refused on reasonable grounds and after there has been consultation with the employee.

Reasonable grounds for refusal include that:

(i) it would require a significant adjustment to the casual employee’s hours of work in order for the employee to be engaged as a full-time or part-time employee in accordance with the provisions of this award – that is, the casual employee is not truly a regular casual employee as defined in clause 11.4(b);

(ii) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that the regular casual employee’s position will cease to exist within the next 12 months;

(iii) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that the hours of work which the regular casual employee is required to perform will be significantly reduced in the next 12 months; or

(iv) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that there will be a significant change in the days and/or times at which the employee’s hours of work are required to be performed in the next 12 months which cannot be accommodated within the days and/or hours during which the employee is available to work.

For any ground of refusal to be reasonable, it must be based on facts which are known or reasonably foreseeable.

Where the employer refuses a regular casual employee’s request to convert, the employer must provide the casual employee with the employer’s reasons for refusal in writing within 21 days of the request being made.

If the employee does not accept the employer’s refusal, this will constitute a dispute that will be dealt with under the dispute resolution procedure in clause 30—Dispute resolution. Under that procedure, the employee or the employer may refer the matter to the Fair Work Commission if the dispute cannot be resolved at the workplace level.

Where it is agreed that a casual employee will have their employment converted to full-time or part-time employment as provided for in clause 11.4, the employer and employee must discuss and record in writing:

(i) the form of employment to which the employee will convert – that is, full-time or part-time employment; and

(ii) if it is agreed that the employee will become a part-time employee, the matters referred to in clause 10.2.

The conversion will take effect from the start of the next pay cycle following such agreement being reached unless otherwise agreed.
(m) Once a casual employee has converted to full-time or part-time employment, the employee may only revert to casual employment with the written agreement of the employer.

(n) A casual employee must not be engaged and re-engaged (which includes a refusal to re-engage), or have their hours reduced or varied, in order to avoid any right or obligation under clause 11.4.

(o) Nothing in clause 11.4 obliges a regular casual employee to convert to full-time or part-time employment, nor permits an employer to require a regular casual employee to so convert.

(p) Nothing in clause 11.4 requires an employer to increase the hours of a regular casual employee seeking conversion to full-time or part-time employment.

(q) An employer must provide a casual employee, whether a regular casual employee or not, with a copy of the provisions of clause 11.4 within the first 12 months of the employee’s first engagement to perform work. In respect of casual employees already employed as at 1 October 2018, an employer must provide such employees with a copy of the provisions of clause 11.4 by 1 January 2019.

(r) A casual employee’s right to request to convert is not affected if the employer fails to comply with the notice requirements in clause 11.4(q).

12. Classifications

For the definition of classifications in this award reference will be made to the following:

13.5 Employees may be required to work up to 10 ordinary hours per day.

13.6 Different methods of implementing the 38 hour week may be applied to various groups, individuals or sections of employees in the plant or establishment concerned.

13.7 Where the method of implementation adopted is in accordance with clauses 13.3(c), 13.3(d) or 13.3(e) the wages paid each week for ordinary hours will be paid so that in each week when 40 hours (or more) are worked, the time in excess of 38 hours will be kept in hand and paid to the employee in the pay week(s) that the rostered day(s) off occur(s); to enable an averaging of payments for ordinary time to occur over the particular work cycle.

(b) In the event that a public holiday is prescribed after notice is given to an employee of the taking of the RDO and the public holiday falls on the day the employee is to take off, the employer must allow the employee to take the day off on any alternative day where the employee is normally rostered to work ordinary hours.

(c) Where an employee is sick or injured on the day rostered off in accordance with clause 13.8, the employee will not be entitled to personal leave nor will the employee’s personal leave entitlement be reduced as a result of such sickness or injury that day.

14.4 Paid rest breaks

(a) Two 2 paid rest breaks of 7.5 minutes duration each must be allowed to employees on each day or shift.

NOTE: See Schedule A—Summary of Hourly Rates of Pay for a summary of hourly rates of pay including overtime and penalty rates.

15.2 Pieceworker rates

(a) Employees may agree in writing to work on piecework rates. The piecework agreement must specify the applicable piecework rate which will be paid for all work performed under the piecework agreement. Provided that where an employee works on piecework rates, that employee must be paid at least the amount the employee would have received for time worked at the ordinary hourly rate for the relevant classification.

(b) An employee working under a piecework rate agreement:

(i) must not be disadvantaged in relation to their terms and conditions of employment;

(ii) has the option to unilaterally terminate a piecework agreement:

* if the amount payable under the piecework agreement falls below the amount that they would otherwise have been entitled to using the wages and allowances provisions prescribed by this award; and
• if this amount has not been reached for 3 consecutive shifts.

(c) The employee must put their intention to terminate their piecework agreement in writing. The termination of the piecework agreement will then take effect 48 hours after the employer has been served with the written notice.

(d) For the purpose of the NES, the base rate of pay for a pieceworker is the base rate of pay as defined in the NES.

(e) For the purpose of the NES, the full rate of pay for a pieceworker is the full rate of pay as defined in the NES.

15.3 Higher duties

(a) An employee engaged for a total of more than 4 hours on any day or shift on duties carrying a higher rate than their usual classification must be paid the higher rate for the entire day or shift.

(b) An employee engaged for 4 hours or less on any day or shift on duties carrying a higher rate than their ordinary classification must be paid the higher rate for the time worked at the higher classification.

15.4 Supported wage system

For employees who because of the effects of a disability are eligible for a supported wage, see Schedule C—Supported Wage System.

15.5 National training wage

(a) Schedule E to the Miscellaneous Award 2010 sets out minimum wage rates and conditions for employees undertaking traineeships.

(b) This award incorporates the terms of Schedule E to the Miscellaneous Award 2010 as at 1 July 2019. Provided that any reference to “this award” in Schedule E to the Miscellaneous Award 2010 is to be read as referring to the Silviculture Award 2020 and not the Miscellaneous Award 2010.

16. Payment of wages

NOTE: Regulations 3.33(3) and 3.46(1)(g) of Fair Work Regulations 2009 set out the requirements for pay records and the content of payslips including the requirement to separately identify any allowance paid.

16.1 Method of payment

Employees must be paid their wages in cash, cheque or electronic funds transfer.

16.2 Time of payment

(a) Employees must be paid their wages during ordinary hours of work on Thursday of each week or fortnight.

(b) In any week in which a holiday falls on a Thursday or Friday employees must be paid on the preceding Wednesday.
(c) Nothing will prevent any alternative mutual arrangement between an employer and an employee.

(d) The employer must not keep more than 2 days’ wages in hand.

16.3 Payment on termination of employment

(a) The employer must pay an employee no later than 7 days after the day on which the employee’s employment terminates:

(i) the employee’s wages under this award for any complete or incomplete pay period up to the end of the day of termination; and

(ii) all other amounts that are due to the employee under this award and the NES.

(b) The requirement to pay wages and other amounts under clause 16.3(a) is subject to further order of the Commission and the employer making deductions authorised by this award or the Act.

NOTE 1: Section 117(2) of the Act provides that an employer must not terminate an employee’s employment unless the employer has given the employee the required minimum period of notice or “has paid” to the employee payment instead of giving notice.

NOTE 2: Clause 16.3(b) allows the Commission to make an order delaying the requirement to make a payment under clause 16.3. For example, the Commission could make an order delaying the requirement to pay redundancy pay if an employer makes an application under section 120 of the Act for the Commission to reduce the amount of redundancy pay an employee is entitled to under the NES.

NOTE 3: State and Territory long service leave laws or long service leave entitlements under section 113 of the Act, may require an employer to pay an employee for accrued long service leave on the day on which the employee’s employment terminates or shortly after.

17. Allowances

NOTE: Regulations 3.33(3) and 3.46(1)(g) of Fair Work Regulations 2009 set out the requirements for pay records and the content of payslips including the requirement to separately identify any allowance paid.

17.1 Employers must pay to an employee the allowances the employee is entitled to under clause 17.

17.2 All-purpose allowances

Allowances paid for all purposes are included in the rate of pay of an employee who is entitled to the allowance, when calculating any penalties or loading or payment while they are on annual leave. The following allowances are paid for all purposes under this award:

(a) special allowance (clause 17.3);

(c) Country radial areas

(i) An employee who is engaged on work for a business, branch or section established in any place which is not covered by clauses 17.5(a) and
17.5(b) for the purpose of engaging in silviculture and afforestation work will be paid $11.94 per day when employed on work located within 30 km of the post office nearest the employer’s establishment.

(ii) Where the employer has an establishment in more than one such place, the establishment nearest the employee’s usual place of residence will be the establishment taken into account, and the employee will be entitled to the provisions of clause 17.5(d) when travelling to a job outside the radial area of the establishment nearest their residence.

(d) Travelling outside radial areas

Where an employee travels daily from inside any radial area mentioned in clauses 17.5(a) to 17.5(c), to a job outside that radial area, they must be paid the relevant allowance prescribed by clauses 17.5(a) to 17.5(c) and, in respect of the travel to and from the designated radius and the job:

(i) the time outside ordinary working hours reasonably spent in such travel, calculated at the ordinary hourly rate to the next quarter of an hour with a minimum payment of one half an hour per day for each return journey; and

(i) Subject to clause 17.5(d), the allowances prescribed in clause 17.5, (except the additional payment prescribed in clauses 17.5(d) and 17.5(e)) will not be payable on any day on which the employer provides or offers to provide transport free of charge from the employee’s home (or, in the case of clause 17.5(b), the employee’s place of accommodation) to the place or work and back.

(ii) Any transport supplied must be equipped with suitable seating and be covered when necessary so as to be weatherproof.

(iii) The relevant fares allowance prescribed in clause 17.5 will be payable in respect of any day on which the employer provides a vehicle free of charge to the employee and pursuant to the contract of employment, the employee is required by the employer to drive such vehicle from the employee’s home to the place of work and return.

(iv) Time spent by an employee travelling from the employee’s home (or, in the case of clause 17.5(b), the employee’s place of accommodation) to the place of work and return outside ordinary hours will not be regarded as time worked for any purpose of this award and no travelling time payment will be made except to the extent provided in clauses 19.6 and 17.7(e) of this award.
(v) Clauses 17.5(f)(iii) and 17.5(f)(iv) will have no application in the case of an employee directed by the employer to pick up and/or return other employees to their homes.

(h) Transfer during ordinary working hours

(i) An employee transferred from one site to another during working hours will be paid for the time occupied in travelling and, unless transported by the employer, will be paid reasonable cost of fares for the most convenient public transport between such sites.

(ii) Where an employer requests an employee to use their own car for the transfer and the employee agrees to do so the employee must be paid an allowance of $0.78 per kilometre instead of the reasonable cost of fares referred to in clause 17.5(h)(i).

(i) Work in preparation

When an employee is required to perform preparation work in an off-site yard and is then required to erect or fix on-site, the provisions of clause 17.5 will apply.

(j) Daily entitlement

The travelling allowances prescribed in clause 17.5 will not be taken into account in calculating overtime, penalty rates, annual leave or personal leave, but must be payable for any day on which the employee, in accordance with the employer’s requirements, works or reports for work or allocation of work and for the paid day or shift off as prescribed in clause 13—Ordinary hours of work and rostering and clause 19.6 of this award.

(k) Employees required to drive plant off-site

Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in clause 17.5, time occupied by an employee at the direction of the employer in driving plant between any point and a camp, centre or job will be regarded and paid for as working time.

(l) Transport from employer’s location

(i) An employee who, by mutual agreement with an employer, reports for work at a permanent location established by the employer and is transported from the location to the place of work and back will not be paid the daily fares allowances prescribed by clauses 17.5(a) to 17.5(e).

(ii) All time over 30 minutes spent by the employee travelling to and from the place of work in such transportation must be counted as time worked.
(iii) Transport provided by the employer pursuant to clause 17.5(l) must be free of charge, equipped with suitable seating accommodation and be covered when necessary so as to be weatherproof.

17.6 Expense-related allowances—meal allowance

An employee who is required to work more than one and a half hours’ overtime after working ordinary hours must be paid a meal allowance of $13.76 or will, at the option of the employer, be provided with a suitable meal.

17.7 Expense-related allowances—living away from home allowances

(a) Eligibility for payment

(i) An employee will be entitled to the provisions of clause 17.7 when employed on a job such a distance from their usual place of residence that they cannot reasonably return to that place each night, provided that:

- the employee is maintaining a separate place of residence to which it is not reasonable to expect them to return each night; and
- on being requested by the employer, the employee informs the employer at the time of engagement that they maintain a separate place of residence from the address recorded on the job application.

(ii) Subject to clause 17.7(b), an employee will be regarded as bound by the statement of their address and no entitlement will exist if they wilfully and without duress make a false statement in relation to their place of residence.

(b) Employee’s address

(i) At the time of engagement, the employee will provide the employer with a written statement of their usual place of residence, and no subsequent change of address will entitle the employee to the provisions of clause 17.7(b) unless the employer agrees.

(ii) Documentary proof of address (such as a long service leave registration card or driver’s licence) may be accepted by the employer instead of the written statement required by clause 17.7(b)(i).

(iii) The employee will inform their employer in writing of any subsequent change in their usual place of residence.

(iv) The employee’s usual place of residence, and not the place of engagement, will determine the application of clause 17.7(b).

(c) Board and lodging

(i) Reasonable board and lodging means lodging in a well kept establishment with 3 adequate meals each day, adequate furnishings, good bedding, good floor coverings, good lighting and heating and with hot and cold running water, in a single room.
(ii) Where an employee satisfies the requirements of clause 17.7(a) the employer will either provide the worker with reasonable board and lodging or pay the employee an allowance of $366.05 per week.

(iii) In the case of broken parts of the week occurring at the beginning or the ending of the employment on a distant job the allowance will be $52.31 per day.

(iv) The board and lodging allowance will be increased if the employee satisfies the employer that they reasonably incurred expenses greater than the allowance prescribed.

(d) Camping out

(i) Camp accommodation

Camp accommodation will be constructed and maintained where it is necessary to house an employee in a camp because:

- the employee is engaged on projects which are located in areas where reasonable board and lodging as defined in clause 17.7(c) is not available; or

- the size of the workforce is in excess of the available accommodation; or

- the project or the working of shifts necessitate camp accommodation.

(ii) Camping allowance

An employee living in a camp where free messing is not provided must receive a camping allowance of:

- $196.25 for every complete week the employee is available for work; and

- $28.00 per day if required to be in a camp for less than a complete week (including any Saturday or Sunday if they are in camp and available for work on the working days immediately preceding and succeeding each Saturday and Sunday).

(iii) If an employee is absent without the employer’s approval on any day, the allowance will not be payable for that day and if the unauthorised absence occurs on the working day immediately before or after a Saturday or Sunday, the allowance will not be payable for the Saturday and Sunday.

(iv) Camp meal charges

Where a fee is charged for meals in a camp, such the fee will be fixed by agreement.

(e) Travelling expenses

An employee who is sent by their employer or selected or engaged by an employer or agent to go to a job which qualifies them to the provision of clause 17.7(e) will not be entitled to any of the allowances prescribed by clause 17.5 for the period occupied in travelling from their usual place of residence to the distant job, but instead must be paid the allowances in clause 17.7(e).

(i) Forward journey

For the forward journey, the employee is to be paid:

- the ordinary hourly rate for the time spent travelling (to a maximum of 8 hours); and
- the amount of a fare on the most common method of public transport to the job and any excess payment due to transporting the employee’s gear.

(ii) The employer may deduct the cost of the forward journey fare from an employee who terminates or discontinues their employment within 2 weeks of commencing the job and who does not immediately return to their place of engagement.

(iii) The employee will be entitled to the meal allowance specified in clause 17.6 for all meals incurred while travelling. The meal allowance will be increased if the employee satisfies the employer that they reasonably incurred expenditure greater than the rate prescribed by clause 17.6.

(iv) Return journey

An employee will, for the return journey, receive the same time, fares and meal payments as provided in clause 17.7(e)(i), unless the employee:

- terminates or discontinues their employment within 2 months of commencing on the job (or prior to the job completion if the work is for less than 2 months); or
- is dismissed for incompetence within one working week of commencing on the job; or
- is dismissed for misconduct.

(v) Departure point

For the purposes of clause 17.7(e), travelling time will be calculated as the time taken for the journey from the central or regional bus or air terminal nearest the employee’s usual place of residence to the locality of the work.

(f) Daily fares allowance

An employee engaged on a job which qualifies them to the travelling allowance under clause 17.7 and who is required to reside elsewhere than on the site (or adjacent to the site and supplied with transport) must be paid the allowance prescribed by clause 17.5.

(g) Weekend return home

(i) An employee will be entitled to an allowance of $25.46 per occasion where the employee:
• works as required during the ordinary hours of work on the working day before and the working day after a weekend; and

• returns to their usual place of residence for the weekend; and

• notifies the employer or their representative, no later than Tuesday of each week, of their intention to return to their usual place of residence at the weekend.

(ii) Clause 17.7(g)(i) will not apply to an employee who is receiving:

• the payment prescribed in clause 17.7(c) instead of board and lodging being provided by the employer; or

• a camping allowance as prescribed in clause 17.7(d)(ii).

(iii) When employees return to their usual place of residence for a weekend or part of a weekend and do not absent themselves from the job for any of the ordinary working hours, no reduction of the allowance prescribed in clause 17.7(g)(i) will be made.

(h) Rest and recreation

(i) An employee who proceeds to a job which qualifies them an allowance under clause 17.7, may, after 2 months’ continuous service and then after each 3 months of continuous service, return to their usual place of residence at the weekend.

(ii) If they do so, they will be paid the amount of a bus or air fare to the bus station or airport nearest their usual place of residence on the payday which immediately follows the date on which they return to the job; provided no delay not agreed to by the employer takes place in connection with the employee’s commencement of work on the morning of the working day following the weekend.

(iii) If the work upon which the employee is engaged will terminate in the ordinary course within a further 28 days after the expiration of any such period of 2 or 3 months as mentioned, then the provisions of clause 17.7(h) will not be applicable.

(iv) Service requirements

For the purpose of clause 17.7 service will be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding an employee’s absence from work as prescribed in section 22 of the Act.

(v) Variable return home

In special circumstances, and by agreement with the employer, the return to the usual place of residence entitlements may be granted earlier or taken later than the prescribed date of accrual without alteration to the employee’s accrual entitlements.
(vi) Non-payment instead

Payment of fares and leave with pay as provided for in clause 17.7(h) will not be made unless the rest and recreation leave is taken by the employee.

(i) Alternative paid day off procedure

If the employer and the employee agree in writing, the paid rostered day off as prescribed in clause 13—Overtime and Penalty Rates, and clause 20.14 of this award may be taken, and paid for, in conjunction with the additional rest and recreation leave as prescribed in clause 17.7(h), or at the end of the project, or on termination whichever comes first.

(j) Termination

An employee will be entitled to notice of termination in sufficient time to arrange suitable transport at termination or must be paid as if employed up to the end of the ordinary working day before transport is available.

NOTE: See Schedule B—Summary of Monetary Allowances for a summary of monetary allowances and method of adjustment.

18. Superannuation

18.1 Superannuation legislation

(a) Superannuation legislation, including the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cth) and the Superannuation (Resolution of Complaints) Act 1993 (Cth), deals with the superannuation rights and obligations of employers and employees. Under superannuation legislation individual employees generally have the opportunity to choose their own superannuation fund. If an employee does not choose a superannuation fund, any superannuation fund nominated in the award covering the employee applies.

(b) The rights and obligations in these clauses supplement those in superannuation legislation.

18.2 Employer contributions

An employer must make such superannuation contributions to a superannuation fund for the benefit of an employee as will avoid the employer being required to pay the superannuation guarantee charge under superannuation legislation with respect to that employee.

18.3 Voluntary employee contributions

(a) Subject to the governing rules of the relevant superannuation fund, an employee may, in writing, authorise their employer to pay on behalf of the employee a specified amount from the post-taxation wages of the employee into the same superannuation fund as the employer makes the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 18.2.
An employee may adjust the amount the employee has authorised their employer to pay from the wages of the employee from the first of the month following the giving of three months’ written notice to their employer.

The employer must pay the amount authorised under clauses 18.3(a) or 18.3(b) no later than 28 days after the end of the month in which the deduction authorised under clauses 18.3(a) or 18.3(b) was made.

18.4 Superannuation fund

Unless, to comply with superannuation legislation, the employer is required to make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 18.2 to another superannuation fund that is chosen by the employee, the employer must make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 18.2 and pay the amount authorised under clauses 18.3(a) or 18.3(b) to one of the following superannuation funds or its successor:

(a) AustralianSuper;
(b) AustSafe Super
(c) LUCRF Super;
(d) Tasplan;
(e) Sunsuper;
(f) any superannuation fund to which the employer was making superannuation contributions for the benefit of its employees before 12 September 2008, provided the superannuation fund is an eligible choice fund and is a fund that offers a MySuper product or is an exempt public sector superannuation scheme; or
(g) a superannuation fund or scheme which the employee is a defined benefit member of.

Part 5—Overtime and Penalty Rates

19. Overtime and Penalty Rates

Except as otherwise provided in clause 19, all time worked by an employee in excess of, or outside the ordinary hours of work, (inclusive of time worked for accrual purposes) must be paid at a rate of:

(a) 150% of the ordinary hourly rate for the first 2 hours; and
(b) 200% of the ordinary hourly rate after 2 hours.

19.2 Calculation of overtime

For the purpose of calculating overtime under clause 19:
(a) each day’s work will stand alone;

(b) day means all the time between the normal starting time of one day and the normal starting time of the next day;

(c) Saturday means all the time between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday; and

(d) Sunday means all the time between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday.

19.3 Rest period after overtime duty

(a) Overtime will be arranged so that employees have at least 10 consecutive hours off duty after completing the overtime.

(b) Where an employee works so much overtime that there are fewer than 10 hours between finishing overtime on one day and the commencement of ordinary work on the next day, the employee will be released, subject to clause 19.3(c), until they have had at least 10 consecutive hours off without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

(c) If, on the instructions of the employer, an employee resumes work or continues work without having had 10 consecutive hours off duty, they will be paid at the rate of 200% of the ordinary hourly rate until released from duty for such period and can then be absent until they have had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

19.4 Transport after overtime work

When an employee finishes working overtime at a time when reasonable means of transport are not available, the employer must provide them with transport to their usual place of residence or to the nearest appropriate public transport.

19.5 Weekend and public holiday work

(a) Saturday work

(i) All time worked on a Saturday must be paid for at 150% of the ordinary hourly rate for the first 2 hours and 200% of the ordinary hourly rate after that.

(ii) All work performed on Easter Saturday must be paid for at 250% of the ordinary hourly rate.

(iii) An employee required to work prearranged overtime on a Saturday must be given a minimum of 3 hours’ work or be paid for 3 hours at the appropriate overtime rate.

(b) Sunday work

(i) All time worked on a Sunday must be paid for at 200% of the ordinary hourly rate.
(ii) An employee required to work prearranged overtime on a Sunday must be given a minimum of 4 hours’ work or be paid for 4 hours at the appropriate overtime rate.

(c) Public holiday work

(i) All work performed on any of the holidays or substituted holidays prescribed in clause 27—Public holidays must be paid for at 250% of the ordinary hourly rate.

(ii) An employee required to work on a public holiday must be given a minimum of 4 hours’ work or paid for 4 hours at the appropriate penalty rate.

19.6 Call-outs

(a) Monday to Friday

(i) An employee called out to work after they have left work for the day must be paid for a minimum of 3 hours’ work at 150% of the ordinary hourly rate for each time they are called out.

(ii) If the employee is required to work for 2 hours or more, they must be paid for a minimum of 4 hours’ work at the ordinary hourly rate for the first 2 hours and 200% of the ordinary hourly rate after that.

(b) Saturdays

(i) An employee called out to work on a Saturday must be paid for a minimum of 3 hours’ work at 150% of the ordinary hourly rate for each time they are called out.

(ii) If the employee is required to work for 2 hours or more, they must be paid for a minimum of 3 hours’ work at 150% of the ordinary hourly rate for the first 2 hours and 200% of the ordinary hourly rate after that.

(c) Sundays

(i) An employee called out to work on a Sunday must, for the first call out, be paid for a minimum of 3 hours’ work at 200% of the ordinary hourly rate.

(ii) Each subsequent call out must be paid at the rate of 200% of ordinary hourly rate for the actual time worked.

(d) Public holidays

(i) An employee called out to work on a public holiday must, for the first call out, be paid for a minimum of 3 hours’ work at 250% of the ordinary hourly rate.

(ii) Each subsequent call out must be paid at the rate of 250% of the ordinary hourly rate for the actual time worked.
19.7 Time off instead of payment for overtime

(a) An employee and employer may agree in writing to the employee taking time off instead of being paid for a particular amount of overtime that has been worked by the employee.

(b) Any amount of overtime that has been worked by an employee in a particular pay period and that is to be taken as time off instead of the employee being paid for it must be the subject of a separate agreement under clause 19.7.

(c) An agreement must state each of the following:

(i) the number of overtime hours to which it applies and when those hours were worked;

(ii) that the employer and employee agree that the employee may take time off instead of being paid for the overtime;

(iii) that, if the employee requests at any time, the employer must pay the employee, for overtime covered by the agreement but not taken as time off, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked;

(iv) that any payment mentioned in clause 19.7(c)(iii) must be made in the next pay period following the request.

NOTE: An example of the type of agreement required by clause 19.7 is set out at Schedule D—Agreement for Time Off Instead of Payment for Overtime. There is no requirement to use the form of agreement set out at Schedule D—Agreement for Time Off Instead of Payment for Overtime. An agreement under clause 19.7 can also be made by an exchange of emails between the employee and employer, or by other electronic means.

(d) The period of time off that an employee is entitled to take is the same as the number of overtime hours worked.

EXAMPLE: By making an agreement under clause 19.7 an employee who worked 2 overtime hours is entitled to 2 hours' time off.

(e) Time off must be taken:

(i) within the period of 6 months after the overtime is worked; and

(ii) at a time or times within that period of 6 months agreed by the employee and employer.

(f) If the employee requests at any time, to be paid for overtime covered by an agreement under clause 19.7 but not taken as time off, the employer must pay the employee for the overtime, in the next pay period following the request, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.

(g) If time off for overtime that has been worked is not taken within the period of 6 months mentioned in clause 19.7(e), the employer must pay the employee for the overtime, in the next pay period following those 6 months, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.
(h) The employer must keep a copy of any agreement under clause 19.7 as an employee record.

(i) An employer must not exert undue influence or undue pressure on an employee in relation to a decision by the employee to make, or not make, an agreement to take time off instead of payment for overtime.

(j) An employee may, under section 65 of the Act, request to take time off, at a time or times specified in the request or to be subsequently agreed by the employer and the employee, instead of being paid for overtime worked by the employee. If the employer agrees to the request then clause 19.7 will apply, including the requirement for separate written agreements under clause 19.7(b) for overtime that has been worked.

NOTE: If an employee makes a request under section 65 of the Act for a change in working arrangements, the employer may only refuse that request on reasonable business grounds (see section 65(5) of the Act).

(k) If, on the termination of the employee’s employment, time off for overtime worked by the employee to which clause 19.7 applies has not been taken, the employer must pay the employee for the overtime at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.

NOTE: Under section 345(1) of the Act, a person must not knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading representation about the workplace rights of another person under clause 19.7.

20.4  Rostered shift off

24 minutes of each 8 hour shift worked during a shift cycle will accrue as an entitlement to take a rostered shift off (RSO) after each 19 shifts worked. The rostered off shift will be paid for as though worked.

20.5  Paid leave

Each day of paid leave taken and any public holiday occurring during any shift cycle will be regarded as a shift worked for accrual purposes.

20.6  Pro rata accrued entitlements

(a) A shiftworker who has not worked or is not regarded by reason of clause 20.5 as having worked a complete shift cycle will receive pro rata accrued entitlements for each shift worked or regarded as having been worked in that cycle.

(b) The pro rata entitlements will be payable for the rostered off shift or, in the case of termination of employment, on such termination.

20.7  Taking rostered day off

(a) The employer and employees concerned must agree in writing upon arrangements for the taking of rostered days off or for their accumulation. The accumulation must be limited to not more than 5 shifts before they are taken as rostered days off.

(b) When rostered days off shifts are taken, they will be regarded as shifts worked for accrual purposes in the particular shift cycle in which they are taken.

20.8  Work on a rostered day off

Where an employer, for emergency reasons, requires an employee to work on their rostered day off, the employee will, in addition to their accrued entitlements, be paid at overtime rates for all work performed on the rostered day off.

20.9  Overtime

(a) All time worked by a shiftworker in excess of or outside the ordinary hours (inclusive of time worked for accrual purposes), or on a shift other than a rostered shift, must be paid for at the rate of 200% of the ordinary hourly rate.

(b) This will not apply when the overtime is worked by arrangements between the employees themselves or for the purpose of effecting the customary rotation of shifts.
20.10  Shift allowances

A shiftworker whilst on afternoon or night shift (other than on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday) must be paid at 115% of the ordinary hourly rate for the shift.

20.11  Saturdays

Employees working shifts between midnight on Friday and midnight on Saturday must be paid at 150% of the ordinary hourly rate for ordinary hours of work, inclusive of time worked for accrual purposes as prescribed in clause 20.5.

20.12  Sundays and public holidays

(a) Subject to clause 20.12, employees working shifts on public holidays will be paid at 250% of the ordinary hourly rate.

(b) Subject to clause 20.12, employees working shifts on a Sunday will be paid at 200% of the ordinary hourly rate.

(c) The time worked by an employee on a shift commencing before midnight on the day before a Sunday or public holiday, which extends into the Sunday or public holiday will be regarded as time worked on the Sunday or public holiday.

(d) A shift, the majority of which falls on a Sunday or public holiday, will be regarded as a Sunday or public holiday shift.

20.13  Five successive shifts

Shiftworkers who work on any afternoon or night shift which does not continue for at least 5 successive afternoons or nights must be paid for at 150% of the ordinary hourly rate for all ordinary time occurring during such shift.

20.14  Call-outs

(a) A shiftworker must be paid for a minimum of 3 hours, at 200% of the ordinary hourly rate each time they are called out to work:

(i) on a day on which they are rostered off; or

(ii) after the end of their usual working time, after they have left work for the shift.

(b) If called out on a public holiday payment will be calculated at the rate prescribed in clause 19.5(c) of this award.

20.15  Transport after overtime or shift

When a shiftworker finishes working overtime or a shift for which they have not been regularly rostered at a time when reasonable means of transport are not available, the employer must provide the shiftworker with transport to their usual place of residence or to the nearest appropriate public transport.
21. Bushfire fighting

21.1 Clause 21 applies to situations where a fire is burning out of control requiring emergency attendance. It does not apply to regeneration burns and the mopping up operations associated with regeneration burns or wildfires.

21.2 Retention classification

(a) An employee will retain the classification applicable immediately prior to the outbreak of a wildfire.

(b) For the purpose of and during any period of wildfire firefighting operations the employer may specifically assign an employee to another classification for which a higher wage rate is prescribed. In this case, payment must be made in accordance with clause 15.3—Higher duties.

21.3 Normal hours of work

The weekly total of hours at ordinary time will not exceed 38 per week to be worked in accordance with the normal accrual provisions.

21.4 Work periods

The minimum work period, except as provided for stand-by and call outs, will be 8 consecutive hours inclusive of time worked for normal accrual purposes. A work period can only be terminated by a rest period of a minimum of 8 hours.

21.5 Rest period

(a) An employee must receive a rest period of at least 8 consecutive hours between successive work periods.

(b) If a rest period exceeds 16 hours, a new work period will be deemed to commence at the expiration of that 16 hours.

21.6 Paid rest period

(a) If a work period exceeds 16 hours due to an extreme emergency or lack of transport, an employee must, at the conclusion of the work period, receive a rest period of at least 8 hours duration and must, in respect of such rest period, be paid 8 hours at the ordinary hourly rate.

(b) After 8 hours of any paid rest period, a new work period will be deemed to commence.

21.7 Meal breaks

Meal breaks must not exceed 45 minutes and must be counted as time worked.

21.8 Monday to Friday payment

(a) Subject to clauses 21.8(b) and 21.8(c), all time worked Monday to Friday (including time worked prior to firefighting work) must be paid for at:

(i) the ordinary hourly rate for the first 8 hours; and
(ii) 150% of the ordinary hourly rate for the next 2 hours; and

(iii) 200% of the ordinary hourly rate after that.

(b) The wage rate will revert to the ordinary hourly rate when the employee has received a rest period of 8 hours.

(c) When penalty rates are being paid, and a work period extends beyond midnight, the penalty rates must continue until the end of the work period.

21.9 Saturday work

Except where the provisions of clause 21.8(c) apply, all time worked by an employee on a Saturday must be paid for at 150% of the ordinary hourly rate for the first 2 hours and 200% of the ordinary hourly rate after that.

21.10 Sunday work

All time worked by an employee on a Sunday must be paid for at 200% of the ordinary hourly rate.

21.11 Public holiday work

All time worked on a public holiday must be paid for at 250% of the ordinary hourly rate.

21.12 Stand-by

(a) Stand-by means all time during which an employee is required to be available for an immediate call to work.

(b) An employee on stand-by will be available either at home or at such other place as is mutually agreed with the employer.

(c) Stand-by payment must be at the rate of 50% of the employee’s ordinary hourly rate.

(d) Stand-by for employees on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays means the 8 hour period between 10.00 am and 6.00 pm.

(e) An employee who is requested to stand by on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday will be entitled to 8 hours’ stand-by payment for each day so requested.

(f) Despite clause 21.12(e), the employee will be entitled to only 8 hours stand-by pay if by 5.00 pm on their last normal working day preceding a weekend, they are notified that stand-by for that weekend has been cancelled.

(g) Between November and April, an employer may, on any normal weekday which has a high fire danger rating, place an employee on stand-by at the end of the normal working time for the day and/or their departure from the place where they normally cease work for the day. Payment must be made from the normal time of ceasing work at the rate as provided in clause 21.12(c).

(h) Where an employee is called upon to perform firefighting work on any day that they are on stand-by, they must be paid for all time worked at the appropriate prescribed rate in addition to any entitlement for stand-by performed on that day.
21.13 Call-outs

(a) An employee recalled to perform work in or in connection with wildfire fighting must be paid for a minimum of 4 hours’ work at the appropriate wage rate each time they are recalled.

(b) The employee must not be required to work the full hours if the job for which they are recalled is completed in a shorter period.

(c) If the work continues for more than 4 hours, the employee must be paid for a minimum work period of 8 consecutive hours.

21.14 Travelling time

All time spent by an employee travelling to and from a wildfire at the direction of the employer will be deemed to be time worked. Payment must start from, and finish at, the employer’s depot, camp or normal pick-up place in the home district.

21.15 Resumption of normal duties

(a) An employee who has been engaged in firefighting work will be entitled to a break of 10 hours between the end of the firefighting work and the start of normal duties, without loss of pay for recognised working time that occurs during the break.

(b) An employee who has been camped out for at least 3 nights will be entitled to a clear break of 12 hours in accordance with clause 21.15.

(c) These provisions will not apply with respect to any firefighting operations commenced and completed between the hours of 7.00 am and 5.00 pm on the same day.

21.16 Provision of meals

(a) The employer must provide 3 meals per day.

(b) Where an employee is required to work at night, the employer must provide suitable provisions at reasonable intervals. All food supplied by the employer must be free of charge to the employee.

Part 6—Leave and Public Holidays

22. Annual leave

22.1 Annual leave entitlements are provided for in the NES. Annual leave does not apply to casual employees.

22.2 Payment of annual leave

Before the start of the employee’s annual leave the employer must pay the employee:
(a) instead of the base rate of pay referred to in section 90(1) of the Act, the amount the employee would have earned for working their normal hours, exclusive of overtime, had they not been on leave; and

(b) an additional loading of 17.5% of the ordinary hourly rate.

22.3 Electronic funds transfer (EFT) payment of annual leave

Despite anything else in clause 22, an employee paid by electronic funds transfer
(EFT) may be paid in accordance with their usual pay cycle while on paid annual leave.

22.4 Annual leave in advance

(a) An employer and employee may agree in writing to the employee taking a period of paid annual leave before the employee has accrued an entitlement to the leave.

(b) An agreement must:

(i) state the amount of leave to be taken in advance and the date on which leave is to commence; and

(ii) be signed by the employer and employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, by the employee’s parent or guardian.

NOTE: An example of the type of agreement required by clause 22.4 is set out at Schedule E—Agreement to Take Annual Leave in Advance. There is no requirement to use the form of agreement set out at Schedule E—Agreement to Take Annual Leave in Advance.

(c) The employer must keep a copy of any agreement under clause 22.4 as an employee record.

(d) If, on the termination of the employee’s employment, the employee has not accrued an entitlement to all of a period of paid annual leave already taken in accordance with an agreement under clause 22.4, the employer may deduct from any money due to the employee on termination an amount equal to the amount that was paid to the employee in respect of any part of the period of annual leave taken in advance to which an entitlement has not been accrued.

22.5 Shut-down

(a) Where an employer intends temporarily to close (or reduce to nucleus) the place of employment or a section of it for the purpose, amongst others, of allowing annual leave to the employees concerned or a majority of them, the employer may give those employees one month’s notice in writing of an intention to apply the provisions of clause 22.5. In the case of any employee engaged after notice has been given, notice must be given to that employee on the date of their engagement.

(b) Where an employee has been given notice pursuant to clause 22.5(a) and the employee has:

(i) accrued sufficient annual leave to cover the full period of closing, the employee must take paid annual leave for the full period of closing;
(ii) insufficient accrued annual leave to cover the full period of closing, the employee must take paid annual leave to the full amount accrued and leave without pay for the remaining period of the closing; or

(iii) no accrued annual leave, the employee must take leave without pay for the full period of closing.

(c) Public holidays that fall within the period of close down will be paid as provided for in this award and will not count as a day of annual leave or leave without pay.

22.6 Excessive leave accruals: general provision

NOTE: Clauses 22.6 to 22.8 contain provisions, additional to the NES, about the taking of paid annual leave as a way of dealing with the accrual of excessive paid annual leave. See Part 2.2, Division 6 of the Act.

(a) An employee has an excessive leave accrual if the employee has accrued more than 8 weeks’ paid annual leave.

(b) If an employee has an excessive leave accrual, the employer or the employee may seek to confer with the other and genuinely try to reach agreement on how to reduce or eliminate the excessive leave accrual.

(c) Clause 22.7 sets out how an employer may direct an employee who has an excessive leave accrual to take paid annual leave.

(d) Clause 22.8 sets out how an employee who has an excessive leave accrual may require an employer to grant paid annual leave requested by the employee.

22.7 Excessive leave accruals: direction by employer that leave be taken

(a) If an employer has genuinely tried to reach agreement with an employee under clause 22.6(b) but agreement is not reached (including because the employee refuses to confer), the employer may direct the employee in writing to take one or more periods of paid annual leave.

(b) However, a direction by the employer under clause 22.7(a):

(i) is of no effect if it would result at any time in the employee’s remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than 6 weeks when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 22.6, 22.7 or 22.8 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account; and

(ii) must not require the employee to take any period of paid annual leave of less than one week; and

(iii) must not require the employee to take a period of paid annual leave beginning less than 8 weeks, or more than 12 months, after the direction is given; and

(iv) must not be inconsistent with any leave arrangement agreed by the employer and employee.
(c) The employee must take paid annual leave in accordance with a direction under clause 22.7(a) that is in effect.

(d) An employee to whom a direction has been given under clause 22.7(a) may request to take a period of paid annual leave as if the direction had not been given.

NOTE 1: Paid annual leave arising from a request mentioned in clause 22.7(d) may result in the direction ceasing to have effect. See clause 22.7(b)(i).

NOTE 2: Under section 88(2) of the Act, the employer must not unreasonably refuse to agree to a request by the employee to take paid annual leave.

22.8 Excessive leave accruals: request by employee for leave

(a) If an employee has genuinely tried to reach agreement with an employer under clause 22.6(b) but agreement is not reached (including because the employer refuses to confer), the employee may give a written notice to the employer requesting to take one or more periods of paid annual leave.

(b) However, an employee may only give a notice to the employer under clause 22.8(a) if:

(i) the employee has had an excessive leave accrual for more than 6 months at the time of giving the notice; and

(ii) the employee has not been given a direction under clause 22.7(a) that, when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 22.6, 22.7 or 22.8 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account, would eliminate the employee’s excessive leave accrual.

(c) A notice given by an employee under clause 22.8(a) must not:

(i) if granted, result in the employee’s remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being at any time less than 6 weeks when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 22.6, 22.7 or 22.8 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account; or

(ii) provide for the employee to take any period of paid annual leave of less than one week; or

(iii) provide for the employee to take a period of paid annual leave beginning less than 8 weeks, or more than 12 months, after the notice is given; or

(iv) be inconsistent with any leave arrangement agreed by the employer and employee.

(d) An employee is not entitled to request by a notice under clause 22.8(a) more than 4 weeks’ paid annual leave in any period of 12 months.

(e) The employer must grant paid annual leave requested by a notice under clause 22.8(a).
22.9 Cashing out of annual leave

(a) Paid annual leave must not be cashed out except in accordance with an agreement under clause 22.9.

(b) Each cashing out of a particular amount of paid annual leave must be the subject of a separate agreement under clause 22.9.

(c) An employer and an employee may agree in writing to the cashing out of a particular amount of accrued paid annual leave by the employee.

(d) An agreement under clause 22.9 must state:
   (i) the amount of leave to be cashed out and the payment to be made to the employee for it; and
   (ii) the date on which the payment is to be made.

(e) An agreement under clause 22.9 must be signed by the employer and employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, by the employee’s parent or guardian.

(f) The payment must not be less than the amount that would have been payable had the employee taken the leave at the time the payment is made.

(g) An agreement must not result in the employee’s remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than 4 weeks.

(h) The maximum amount of accrued paid annual leave that may be cashed out in any period of 12 months is 2 weeks.

(i) The employer must keep a copy of any agreement under clause 22.9 as an employee record.

NOTE 1: Under section 344 of the Act, an employer must not exert undue influence or undue pressure on an employee to make, or not make, an agreement under clause 22.9.

NOTE 2: Under section 345(1) of the Act, a person must not knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading representation about the workplace rights of another person under clause 22.9.

NOTE 3: An example of the type of agreement required by clause 22.9 is set out at Schedule F—Agreement to Cash Out Annual Leave. There is no requirement to use the form of agreement set out at Schedule F—Agreement to Cash Out Annual Leave.

23. Personal/carer’s leave and compassionate leave

Personal/carer’s leave and compassionate leave are provided for in the NES.

24. Parental leave and related entitlements

Parental leave and related entitlements are provided for in the NES.
25. Community service leave

Community service leave is provided for in the NES.

26. Unpaid family and domestic violence leave

Unpaid family and domestic violence leave is provided for in the NES.

NOTE 1: Information concerning an employee’s experience of family and domestic violence is sensitive and if mishandled can have adverse consequences for the employee. Employers should consult with such employees regarding the handling of this information.

NOTE 2: Depending upon the circumstances, evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of the employee’s need to take family and domestic violence leave may include a document issued by the police service, a court or family violence support service, or a statutory declaration.

27. Public holidays

27.1 Public holiday entitlements are provided for in the NES.

27.2 An employee working on a public holiday will be paid in accordance with clauses 19.5(c), 19.6(d), 20.12 or 21.11.

27.3 Part-day public holidays

For provisions in relation to part-day public holidays see Schedule G—Part-day Public Holidays.

Part 7—Consultation and Dispute Resolution

28. Consultation about major workplace change

28.1 If an employer makes a definite decision to make major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer must:

(a) give notice of the changes to all employees who may be affected by them and their representatives (if any); and

(b) discuss with affected employees and their representatives (if any):

(i) the introduction of the changes; and

(ii) their likely effect on employees; and

(iii) measures to avoid or reduce the adverse effects of the changes on employees; and

(c) commence discussions as soon as practicable after a definite decision has been made.
28.2 For the purposes of the discussion under clause 28.1(b), the employer must give in writing to the affected employees and their representatives (if any) all relevant information about the changes including:

(a) their nature; and

(b) their expected effect on employees; and

(c) any other matters likely to affect employees.

28.3 Clause 28.2 does not require an employer to disclose any confidential information if its disclosure would be contrary to the employer’s interests.

28.4 The employer must promptly consider any matters raised by the employees or their representatives about the changes in the course of the discussion under clause 28.1(b).

28.5 In clause 28 significant effects, on employees, includes any of the following:

(a) termination of employment; or

(b) major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer’s workforce or in the skills required; or

(c) loss of, or reduction in, job or promotion opportunities; or

(d) loss of, or reduction in, job tenure; or

(e) alteration of hours of work; or

(f) the need for employees to be retrained or transferred to other work or locations; or

(g) job restructuring.

28.6 Where this award makes provision for alteration of any of the matters defined at clause 28.5, such alteration is taken not to have significant effect.

29. Consultation about changes to rosters or hours of work

29.1 Clause 29 applies if an employer proposes to change the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of an employee, other than an employee whose working hours are irregular, sporadic or unpredictable.

29.2 The employer must consult with any employees affected by the proposed change and their representatives (if any).

29.3 For the purpose of the consultation, the employer must:

(a) provide to the employees and representatives mentioned in clause 29.2 information about the proposed change (for example, information about the nature of the change and when it is to begin); and

(b) invite the employees to give their views about the impact of the proposed change on them (including any impact on their family or caring responsibilities) and also invite their representative (if any) to give their views about that impact.
29.4 The employer must consider any views given under clause 29.3(b).

29.5 Clause 29 is to be read in conjunction with any other provisions of this award concerning the scheduling of work or the giving of notice.

30. Dispute resolution

30.1 Clause 30 sets out the procedures to be followed if a dispute arises about a matter under this award or in relation to the NES.

30.2 The parties to the dispute must first try to resolve the dispute at the workplace through discussion between the employee or employees concerned and the relevant supervisor.

30.3 If the dispute is not resolved through discussion as mentioned in clause 30.2, the parties to the dispute must then try to resolve it in a timely manner at the workplace through discussion between the employee or employees concerned and more senior levels of management, as appropriate.

30.4 If the dispute is unable to be resolved at the workplace and all appropriate steps have been taken under clauses 30.2 and 30.3, a party to the dispute may refer it to the Fair Work Commission.

30.5 The parties may agree on the process to be followed by the Fair Work Commission in dealing with the dispute, including mediation, conciliation and consent arbitration.

30.6 If the dispute remains unresolved, the Fair Work Commission may use any method of dispute resolution that it is permitted by the Act to use and that it considers appropriate for resolving the dispute.

30.7 A party to the dispute may appoint a person, organisation or association to support and/or represent them in any discussion or process under clause 30.

30.8 While procedures are being followed under clause 30 in relation to a dispute:

(a) work must continue in accordance with this award and the Act; and

(b) an employee must not unreasonably fail to comply with any direction given by the employer about performing work, whether at the same or another workplace, that is safe and appropriate for the employee to perform.

30.9 Clause 30.8 is subject to any applicable work health and safety legislation.
Part 8—Termination of Employment and Redundancy

31. Termination of employment

NOTE: The NES sets out requirements for notice of termination by an employer. See sections 117 and 123 of the Act.

31.1 Notice of termination by an employee

(a) Clause 31.1 applies to all employees except those identified in sections 123(1) and 123(3) of the Act.

(b) An employee must give the employer notice of termination in accordance with Table 1—Period of notice of at least the period specified in column 2 according to the period of continuous service of the employee specified in column 1.

NOTE: The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of an employer except that the employee does not have to give additional notice based on the age of the employee.

(c) In clause 31.1(b) continuous service has the same meaning as in section 117 of the Act.

(d) If an employee who is at least 18 years old does not give the period of notice required under clause 31.1(b), then the employer may deduct from wages due to the employee under this award an amount that is no more than one week’s wages for the employee.

(e) If the employer has agreed to a shorter period of notice than that required under clause 31.1(b), then no deduction can be made under clause 31.1(d).

(f) Any deduction made under clause 31.1(d) must not be unreasonable in the circumstances.

31.2 Job search entitlement

(a) Where an employer has given notice of termination to an employee, the employee must be allowed time off without loss of pay of up to one day for the purpose of seeking other employment.
(b) The time off under clause 31.2 is to be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.

32. Redundancy

NOTE: Redundancy pay is provided for in the NES. See sections 119 to 123 of the Act.

32.1 Transfer to lower paid duties on redundancy

(a) Clause 32.1 applies if, because of redundancy, an employee is transferred to new duties to which a lower ordinary rate of pay applies.

(b) The employer may:

(i) give the employee notice of the transfer of at least the same length as the employee would be entitled to under section 117 of the Act as if it were a notice of termination given by the employer; or

(ii) transfer the employee to the new duties without giving notice of transfer or before the expiry of a notice of transfer, provided that the employer pays the employee as set out in clause 32.1(c).

(c) If the employer acts as mentioned in clause 32.1(b)(ii), the employee is entitled to a payment of an amount equal to the difference between the ordinary rate of pay of the employee (inclusive of all-purpose allowances, shift rates and penalty rates applicable to ordinary hours) for the hours of work the employee would have worked in the first role, and the ordinary rate of pay (also inclusive of all-purpose allowances, shift rates and penalty rates applicable to ordinary hours) of the employee in the second role for the period for which notice was not given.

32.2 Employee leaving during redundancy notice period

(a) An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the minimum period of notice prescribed by section 117(3) of the Act.

(b) The employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under clause 32 or under sections 119 to 123 of the Act had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice.

(c) However, the employee is not entitled to be paid for any part of the period of notice remaining after the employee ceased to be employed.

32.3 Job search entitlement

(a) Where an employer has given notice of termination to an employee in circumstances of redundancy, the employee must be allowed time off without loss of pay of up to one day each week of the minimum period of notice prescribed by section 117(3) of the Act for the purpose of seeking other employment.

(b) If an employee is allowed time off without loss of pay of more than one day under clause 32.3(a), the employee must, at the request of the employer, produce proof of attendance at an interview.
(c) A statutory declaration is sufficient for the purpose of clause 32.3(b).

(d) An employee who fails to produce proof when required under clause 32.3(b) is not entitled to be paid for the time off.

(e) This entitlement applies instead of clause 31.2.

C.5 Assessment of capacity

C.8 Other terms and conditions of employment

Where an assessment has been made, the applicable percentage will apply to the relevant minimum wage only. Employees covered by the provisions of this schedule will be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as other workers covered by this award on a pro rata basis.

C.9 Workplace adjustment

An employer wishing to employ a person under the provisions of this schedule must take reasonable steps to make changes in the workplace to enhance the employee’s capacity to do the job. Changes may involve re-design of job duties, working time arrangements and work organisation in consultation with other workers in the area.

C.10.2 During that trial period the assessment of capacity will be undertaken and the percentage of the relevant minimum wage for a continuing employment relationship will be determined.

C.10.3 The minimum amount payable to the employee during the trial period must be no less than $87 per week.

C.10.4 Work trials should include induction or training as appropriate to the job being trialled.
