Part 2—Consultation and Dispute Resolution

8. Facilitative provisions

8.1 Agreement to vary award provisions

(a) This award also contains facilitative provisions which allow agreement between the employer and employees on how specific award provisions are to apply at the workplace or section or sections of it. The facilitative provisions are identified in clauses 8.2, 8.3 and 8.4.

(b) The specific award provisions establish both the standard award conditions and the framework within which agreement can be reached as to how the particular provisions should be applied in practice. Facilitative provisions are not to be used as a device to avoid award obligations nor should they result in unfairness to an employee or employees covered by this award.

the agreement reached is kept by the employer as a time and wages record; and unions which have members employed at an enterprise covered by this award must be informed by the employer of the intention to use the facilitative provision and be given a reasonable opportunity to participate in negotiations regarding its use. Union involvement in this process does not mean that the consent of the union is required prior to the introduction of agreed facilitative arrangements at the enterprise.

Where no agreement has been sought by the employer with the majority of employees in accordance with clause 8.3(a), the employer may reach agreement with individual employees in the workplace or a section or sections of it and such agreement binds the individual employee provided the agreement reached is kept by the employer as a time and wages record and provided the agreement is only with an individual employee or a number of individual employees less than the majority in the workplace or a section or sections of it.

8.4 Facilitation by majority agreement

The following facilitative provisions may only be utilized by agreement between the employer and the majority of employees in the workplace or a section or sections of it:

10.9 Clause 10.8 is subject to any applicable work health and safety legislation.

Part 3—Types of Employment and Termination of Employment

11. Types of employment

[Varied by PR562129]

11.1 Types of employment

Employees under this award will be employed in one of the following categories:

(a) full-time;

(b) part-time; or

(c) casual; and

(d) in respect of meat processing establishments only, the category of daily hire employment (including part-time daily hire).

11.2 At the time of engagement an employer will inform each employee of the terms of their engagement and in particular whether they are to be full-time, part-time, casual, daily hire or part-time daily hire.

11.3 The employer and an employee may agree to the transfer of the employee from one category to another.
11.4 In respect to meat processing establishments where daily hire is permitted, if the employer and an employee are unable to agree upon a transfer from one category of employment to another, the employer may require the employee to transfer from:

(a) full-time to daily hire;
(b) daily hire to full-time;
(c) part-time to part-time daily hire; or
(d) part-time daily hire to part-time, upon giving to the employee seven days’ notice of such transfer.

Nothing in clause 11.4 authorises an employer to require an employee to transfer to casual employment.

12. Full-time employment

A full-time employee is an employee who is engaged to work an average of 38 ordinary hours per week.

13. Part-time employment

13.1 An employer may employ part-time employees in any classification in this award.

13.2 A part-time employee is an employee who:

(a) works less than full-time hours of 38 per week;
(b) has reasonably predictable hours of work of not less than four consecutive hours on any day; and
(c) receives, on a pro rata basis, equivalent pay and conditions to those of a full-time employee who perform the same kind of work.

13.3 At the time of employment the employer and the part-time employee will agree, in writing, on a regular pattern of work specifying at least:

(a) the hours worked each day;
(b) which days of the week the employee will work;
(c) the actual starting and finishing times of each day; and
(d) that the minimum daily engagement is four hours.

13.4 Clause 13.3 does not apply to a meat processing establishment, except for employees of the establishment engaged in retail and/or wholesale sales of fresh meat and ordinary products.
Meat Industry Award 2010

13.5 The terms of any agreement concerning part-time employment or any agreed variation to the terms will be in writing with a copy retained by the employer and a copy provided to the employee.

13.6 All time worked in excess of the hours as mutually agreed will be overtime.

13.7 A part-time employee employed under the provisions of this clause will be paid for ordinary hours worked at the rate of 1/38th of the appropriate weekly rate prescribed in clause 19—Minimum wages.

14. Daily hire

14.1 An employer in a meat processing establishment may employ daily hire or part-time daily hire employees.

14.2 The daily hire employee will be employed by the day or shift or part thereof as the case may be, without breaking service for the purposes of the award and the NES as to payment for public holidays, personal/carer’s leave and annual leave. Employment will terminate at the end of each day or shift on which the employee is employed.

14.3 A daily hire employee may be required by the employer to work no less than 7.6 ordinary hours for each day they are employed.

14.4 A part-time daily hire employee may be required by the employer to work no less than four consecutive hours for each day they are employed.

14.5 Notwithstanding the termination of employment at the end of each day or shift, the engagement of a daily hire employee or part-time daily hire employee will continue until the engagement is terminated.

14.6 Engagement may be terminated by notice on either side as from the end of the ordinary working hours on the day or shift on which notice is given or at any later time specified by the notice.

14.7 An employee who terminates their engagement as from a time prior to the end of the ordinary working hours on any day or shift without having given the notice in accordance with clause 14.6 will not be entitled to payment in respect of any time actually worked on that day or shift.

14.8 A daily hire employee will be paid at the daily rate of 1/5th of the appropriate weekly rate prescribed by clause 19—Minimum wages for the classification in which they are employed plus a daily hire loading of 10% of that daily rate.

14.9 A part-time daily hire employee will receive for the hours worked, on a pro rata basis, equivalent pay and conditions to those of daily hire employees who perform the same work.

14.10 In consideration of the rights conferred, a daily hire employee or a part-time daily hire employee will attend and offer for employment at the normal or other place specified by the employer at the usual starting time on each ordinary day unless notified on a particular day they are not required to attend.
15. Casual employment

[Varied by PR994552, PR533352, PR700584]

15.1 A casual employee is one who is engaged and paid as such.

15.2 A casual employee will perform such work as the employer requires during the period of engagement.

15.3 Subject to clause 15.6, the minimum period of engagement of a casual will be four hours each day or shift which may be comprised of hours within or outside the span of ordinary hours provided for in this award.

15.4 Employment of a casual will terminate at the end of each day.

15.5 The ordinary hours of a casual employee must not exceed 38 in any week.

15.6 The minimum period of engagement for a casual cleaner employed to clean premises in any establishment may be two hours on any day or shift. The minimum period of engagement for a casual clerk employed as a book keeper may be three hours on any day or shift. The hours for casual cleaners or casual clerks may also be within or outside the span of ordinary hours.

15.7 Casual employees will be paid at the termination of each engagement or in accordance with the arrangements set out in clause 29.1.

15.8 A casual employee who terminates their employment prior to the end of their ordinary working hours on any day or shift will not be entitled to payment in respect of any time actually worked on that day or shift.

15.9 A casual employee, for each ordinary hour worked or part thereof, will be paid at the rate of:

(a) \( \frac{1}{38} \)th of the appropriate weekly rate prescribed in clause 19—Minimum wages; plus

(b) a casual loading of 25% based on that hourly rate.

15.10 Notwithstanding clause 15.9, the loading received by a casual who works ordinary hours on a Saturday or Sunday, where ordinary hours are permitted by this award, the appropriate weekend loadings as set out in clause 31—Hours of work will apply.

15.11 A casual employee who works overtime does not receive the loading set out in clause 15.9(b) but receives, instead, the overtime penalty rates set out in clause 36—Overtime for the period worked.

15.12 A casual employee employed on shiftwork will, in addition to the casual loading set out in clause 15.9, be paid the appropriate shift penalty based on the ordinary hourly rate excluding the casual loading.

15.13 Casual employees will be notified wherever possible of their starting and finishing times for the period of their engagement at the commencement of their engagement.
15.14 Right to request casual conversion in meat processing establishments

[15.14 inserted by PR700584 ppc 01Oct18]

(a) A person engaged by a particular employer as a regular casual employee may request that their employment be converted to full-time, part-time, daily hire or part-time daily hire employment.

(b) A regular casual employee is a casual employee who has over the preceding 12 months worked a pattern of hours on an ongoing basis which, without significant adjustment, the employee could continue to perform as a full-time, part-time or daily hire employee (including part-time daily hire employee) under the provisions of this award.

(c) A regular casual employee may request to have their casual employment converted to the category of non-casual employment corresponding to the pattern of hours the employee has worked over the period referred to in clause 15.14(b).

(d) Any request under this clause must be in writing and provided to the employer.

(e) Where a regular casual employee seeks to convert to full-time, part-time, daily hire or part-time daily hire employment, the employer may agree to or refuse the request. The request may only be refused on reasonable grounds and after consultation with the employee.

(f) Reasonable grounds for refusal may include:

(i) that it would require a significant adjustment to the casual employee’s hours of work in order for the employee to be engaged as a full-time, part-time, daily hire or part-time daily hire employee in accordance with the provisions of this award - that is, the casual employee is not a true regular casual employee as defined in clause 15.14(b);

(ii) that it is known, or reasonably foreseeable, that the regular casual employee’s position will cease to exist within the next 12 months;

(iii) that it is known, or reasonably foreseeable, that the hours of work which the regular casual employee is required to perform will be significantly reduced in the next 12 months, other than where daily hire is in operation and the reduction in hours is due to seasonal factors; or

(iv) that it is known, or reasonably foreseeable, that there will be a significant change in the days and times at which the employee’s hours of work are required to be performed in the next 12 months which cannot be accommodated within the days and/or hours during which the employee is available to work.

(g) For any ground of refusal to be reasonable it must be based on facts that are known or reasonably foreseeable.

(h) Where the employer refuses a regular casual employee’s request to convert, the employer must provide the casual employee with the employer’s reasons for refusal in writing within 21 days of the request being made. If the employee...
does not accept the employer’s refusal, this will constitute a dispute that will be dealt with under the dispute resolution procedure in clause 10. Under that procedure, the employee or the employer may refer the matter to the Fair Work Commission if the dispute cannot be resolved at the workplace level.

(i) Where it is agreed that a casual employee will have their employment converted to full-time, part-time, daily hire or part-time daily hire employment as provided for in this clause, the employer and employee must discuss and record in writing:

(i) the form of employment to which the employee will convert—that is, full-time, part-time, daily hire or part-time daily hire employment; and

(ii) if it is agreed that the employee will become a part-time employee, the matters referred to in clause 13.3 where that provision is applicable, or otherwise the days the employee will be required to attend for work and the starting and finishing times for each such day.

(j) The conversion will take effect from the start of the next pay cycle following such agreement being reached unless otherwise agreed.

(k) Once a casual employee has converted to full-time, part-time, daily hire or part-time daily hire employment, the employee may only revert to casual employment with the written agreement of the employer.

(l) A casual employee must not be engaged and re-engaged (which includes a refusal to re-engage), or have their hours reduced or varied, in order to avoid any right or obligation under this clause.

(m) Nothing in this clause obliges a regular casual employee to convert to full-time, part-time, daily hire or part-time daily hire employment, nor permits an employer to require a regular casual employee to so convert.

(n) Nothing in this clause requires an employer to increase the hours of a regular casual employee seeking conversion to full-time, part-time, daily hire or part-time daily hire employment.

(o) An employer must provide a casual employee whether a regular casual employee or not, with a copy of the provisions of this clause within the first 12 months of the employee’s first engagement to perform work. In respect of casual employees already employed as at 1 October 2018, an employer must provide such employees with a copy of the provisions of this subclause by 1 January 2018.

(p) A casual employee’s right to request to convert is not affected if the employer fails to comply with the notice requirements in clause 15.14(o).

(q) A casual employee’s right to request to convert is not affected if the employer fails to comply with the notice requirements in paragraph 15.15(p)
15.15 Right to request casual conversion in non-meat processing establishments

[15.15 inserted by PR700584 ppc 01Oct18]

(a) A person engaged by a particular employer as a regular casual employee may request that their employment be converted to full-time or part-time employment.

(b) A regular casual employee is a casual employee who has in the preceding period of 12 months worked a pattern of hours on an ongoing basis which, without significant adjustment, the employee could continue to perform as a full-time employee or part-time employee under the provisions of this award.

(c) A regular casual employee who has worked equivalent full-time hours over the preceding period of 12 months’ casual employment may request to have their employment converted to full-time employment.

(d) A regular casual employee who has worked less than equivalent full-time hours over the preceding period of 12 months’ casual employment may request to have their employment converted to part-time employment consistent with the pattern of hours previously worked.

(e) Any request under this subclause must be in writing and provided to the employer.

(f) Where a regular casual employee seeks to convert to full-time or part-time employment, the employer may agree to or refuse the request, but the request may only be refused on reasonable grounds and after there has been consultation with the employee.

(g) Reasonable grounds for refusal include that:

   (i) it would require a significant adjustment to the casual employee’s hours of work in order for the employee to be engaged as a full-time or part-time employee in accordance with the provisions of this award – that is, the casual employee is not truly a regular casual employee as defined in paragraph (b);

   (ii) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that the regular casual employee’s position will cease to exist within the next 12 months;

   (iii) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that the hours of work which the regular casual employee is required to perform will be significantly reduced in the next 12 months; or

   (iv) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that there will be a significant change in the days and/or times at which the employee’s hours of work are required to be performed in the next 12 months which cannot be accommodated within the days and/or hours during which the employee is available to work.

(h) For any ground of refusal to be reasonable, it must be based on facts which are known or reasonably foreseeable.
(i) Where the employer refuses a regular casual employee’s request to convert, the employer must provide the casual employee with the employer’s reasons for refusal in writing within 21 days of the request being made. If the employee does not accept the employer’s refusal, this will constitute a dispute that will be dealt with under the dispute resolution procedure in clause 10. Under that procedure, the employee or the employer may refer the matter to the Fair Work Commission if the dispute cannot be resolved at the workplace level.

(j) Where it is agreed that a casual employee will have their employment converted to full-time or part-time employment as provided for in this clause, the employer and employee must discuss and record in writing:

(i) the form of employment to which the employee will convert – that is, full-time or part-time employment; and

(ii) if it is agreed that the employee will become a part-time employee, the matters referred to in clause 13.3.

(k) The conversion will take effect from the start of the next pay cycle following such agreement being reached unless otherwise agreed.

(l) Once a casual employee has converted to full-time or part-time employment, the employee may only revert to casual employment with the written agreement of the employer.

(m) A casual employee must not be engaged and re-engaged (which includes a refusal to re-engage), or have their hours reduced or varied, in order to avoid any right or obligation under this clause.

(n) Nothing in this clause obliges a regular casual employee to convert to full-time or part-time employment, nor permits an employer to require a regular casual employee to so convert.

(o) Nothing in this clause requires an employer to increase the hours of a regular casual employee seeking conversion to full-time or part-time employment.

(p) An employer must provide a casual employee, whether a regular casual employee or not, with a copy of the provisions of this subclause within the first 12 months of the employee’s first engagement to perform work. In respect of casual employees already employed as at 1 October 2018, an employer must provide such employees with a copy of the provisions of this subclause by 1 January 2019.

(q) A casual employee’s right to request to convert is not affected if the employer fails to comply with the notice requirements in paragraph (p).
16. Termination of employment

[16 substituted by PR610264 ppc 01Nov18]

Note: The NES sets out requirements for notice of termination by an employer. See ss.117 and 123 of the Act.

16.1 Notice of termination by an employee

(a) This clause applies to all employees except those identified in ss.123(1) and 123(3) of the Act.

(b) An employee must give the employer notice of termination in accordance with Table 1—Period of notice of at least the period specified in column 2 according to the period of continuous service of the employee specified in column 1.

<thead>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>

<td>3 weeks</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>4 weeks</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Note: The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of an employer except that the employee does not have to give additional notice based on the age of the employee.

(c) In paragraph (b) continuous service has the same meaning as in s.117 of the Act.

(d) If an employee who is at least 18 years old does not give the period of notice required under paragraph (b), then the employer may deduct from wages due to the employee under this award an amount that is no more than one week’s wages for the employee.

(e) If the employer has agreed to a shorter period of notice than that required under paragraph (b), then no deduction can be made under paragraph (d).

(f) Any deduction made under paragraph (d) must not be unreasonable in the circumstances.

16.2 Job search entitlement

Where an employer has given notice of termination to an employee, the employee must be allowed time off without loss of pay of up to one day for the purpose of seeking other employment.

16.3 The time off under clause 16.2 is to be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.
17. Redundancy

[Varied by PR994552, PR503686, PR561478; substituted by PR706985 ppc 03May19]

NOTE: Redundancy pay is provided for in the NES. See sections 119–123 of the Act.

17.1 Transfer to lower paid duties on redundancy

(a) Clause 17.1 applies if, because of redundancy, an employee is transferred to new duties to which a lower ordinary rate of pay applies.

(b) The employer may:

(i) give the employee notice of the transfer of at least the same length as the employee would be entitled to under section 117 of the Act as if it were a notice of termination given by the employer; or

(ii) transfer the employee to the new duties without giving notice of transfer or before the expiry of a notice of transfer, provided that the employer pays the employee as set out in paragraph (c).

(c) If the employer acts as mentioned in paragraph (b)(ii), the employee is entitled to a payment of an amount equal to the difference between the ordinary rate of pay of the employee (inclusive of all-purpose allowances, shift rates and penalty rates applicable to ordinary hours) for the hours of work the employee would have worked in the first role, and the ordinary rate of pay (also inclusive of all-purpose allowances, shift rates and penalty rates applicable to ordinary hours) of the employee in the second role for the period for which notice was not given.

17.2 Employee leaving during redundancy notice period

(a) An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the minimum period of notice prescribed by section 117(3) of the Act.

(b) The employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under clause 17 or under sections 119–123 of the Act had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice.

(c) However, the employee is not entitled to be paid for any part of the period of notice remaining after the employee ceased to be employed.

17.3 Job search entitlement

(a) Where an employer has given notice of termination to an employee in circumstances of redundancy, the employee must be allowed time off without loss of pay of up to one day each week of the minimum period of notice prescribed by section 117(3) of the Act for the purpose of seeking other employment.

(b) If an employee is allowed time off without loss of pay of more than one day under paragraph (a), the employee must, at the request of the employer, produce proof of attendance at an interview.
(c) A statutory declaration is sufficient for the purpose of paragraph (b).

(d) An employee who fails to produce proof when required under paragraph (b) is not entitled to be paid for the time off.

(e) This entitlement applies instead of clauses 16.2 and 16.3.

Meat Industry Award 2010

(b) The minimum award rates for adult apprentices who commenced on or after 1 January 2014 and are in the second and subsequent years of their apprenticeship must be the rate for the lowest adult classification in clause 19.1 or the rate prescribed by clause 21.1 for the relevant year of the apprenticeship, whichever is the greater.

(c) A person employed by an employer under this award immediately prior to entering into a training agreement as an adult apprentice with that employer must not suffer a reduction in their minimum wage by virtue of entering into the training agreement, provided that the person has been an employee in that enterprise for at least six months as a full-time employee or twelve months as a part-time or regular and systematic casual employee immediately prior to commencing the apprenticeship. For the purpose only of fixing a minimum wage, the adult apprentice must continue to receive the minimum wage that applies to the classification specified in clause 19.1 in which the adult apprentice was engaged immediately prior to entering into the training agreement.

21.3 Apprentice conditions of employment

[21.3—Apprentice conditions of employment inserted by PR559287 ppc 01Jan15]

(a) The terms of this award apply to apprentices in the meat industry except where otherwise stated. Apprentices may be engaged in trades or occupations that are defined and provided for in Schedule B—Classification Structure where such trades or occupations are declared or recognised by an apprenticeship authority. There is no such declaration or recognition for a trade qualified Slaughterer as defined.

(b) For the purposes of this clause herein, apprenticeship authority means a State or Territory training authority with the responsibility for the apprenticeship.

(c) In any State in which any statute or regulation relating to apprentices is in force, that statute and regulation will operate in that State provided that the provisions of the statute or regulation are not inconsistent with this award in which case the provisions of this award will apply.

(d) An apprentice may be engaged under a training agreement approved by the relevant apprenticeship authority, provided the qualification outcome specified in the training agreement is consistent with that established for the vocation in the training package.

(e) Apprenticeships under this award are competency based. The actual time taken to complete an apprenticeship will therefore vary depending upon factors such as the intensity of training and the variety of work experience and any additional requirements set out in this award.
The nominal period of the apprenticeship is up to four years, however this period may be varied as follows:

(i) to make up for lost time as set out in clause 21.3(q); and/or

(ii) with the approval of the relevant State or Territory apprenticeship authority, to recognise prior learning including vocational education and training in school, pre-apprenticeship programs and other prior learning, the nominal period may be shortened to reflect the proportion of the competencies already acquired; and/or

(iii) it may be extended by up to six months in Stage 3 and 12 months in Stage 4 in the apprenticeship where required to complete the competencies.

Notwithstanding the nominal period, the apprenticeship may be completed in a shorter period when:

(i) the qualification specified in the training agreement is successfully completed; and

(ii) the apprentice has the necessary practical experience to achieve competency in the skills covered by the training agreement, provided that the determination as to whether this condition has been met must be by agreement between the registered training organisation, the employer and the apprentice and where there is a disagreement concerning this matter the matter may be referred to the relevant state/territory apprenticeship authority for determination; and

(iii) the requirements of the relevant state/territory apprenticeship authority with respect to demonstration of competency and any minimum necessary work experience requirements are met; and

(iv) with respect to trades where there are additional licensing or regulatory requirements under State legislation or this award, when these requirements are met.

An apprenticeship may be cancelled or suspended only in accordance with the requirements of the training agreement and the requirements of State legislation and the apprenticeship authority.

The probationary period of an apprentice is as set out in the training agreement or contract of apprenticeship consistent with the requirement of the apprenticeship authority and with State legislation but must not exceed three months.

Time spent by an apprentice in attending any training and/or assessment specified in, or associated with, the training contract is to be regarded as time worked for the employer for the purposes of calculating the apprentice’s wages and determining the apprentice’s employment conditions. This subclause operates subject to the provisions of Schedule D—School-based Apprenticeship.
Meat Industry Award 2010

(k) No apprentice will, except in an emergency, work or be required to work overtime or shiftwork at times which would prevent their attendance at training consistent with their training contract.

(l) The ordinary hours of employment of apprentices in each enterprise are not to exceed those of the relevant tradesperson.

(m) The minimum wages applying to apprentices under this award are dealt with in clause 21.1 and 21.2 and no apprentice is to work under a system of payment by results.

(n) An apprentice is entitled to be released from work without loss of continuity of employment and to payment of the appropriate wages for any training and assessment specified in, or associated with, the training contract.

(o) The nominal period of the apprenticeship is extended by an additional day for each day of absence during each year of the apprenticeship, except in respect of absences due to annual leave or long service leave.

(p) Periods of paid personal/carer leave which total ten or less days in any apprenticeship year do not extend the nominal period of the apprenticeship.

(q) Except where the apprentice meets the competency requirements to progress to the next stage as set out in clause 21.7 the following year of their apprenticeship does not commence until the additional days have been worked. However, any time that has been worked by the apprentice in excess of their ordinary hours must be credited to the apprentice when calculating the amount of additional time that needs to be worked in the relevant year.

21.4 Payment of Travel Costs, Fees and Text Books

[21.4—Payment of Travel Costs, Fees and Text Books inserted by PR559287 ppc 01Jan15]

(a) Where an apprentice is required to attend block release training for training identified in or associated with their training contract, and such training requires an overnight stay, the employer must pay for the excess reasonable travel costs incurred by the apprentice in the course of travelling to and from such training. Provided that this clause will not apply where the apprentice could attend an alternative Registered Training Organisation (RTO) and the use of the more distant RTO is not agreed between the employer and the apprentice.

(b) For the purposes of clause 21.4(a) excess reasonable travel costs include the total costs of reasonable transportation (including transportation of tools where required), accommodation costs incurred while travelling (where necessary) and reasonable expenses incurred while travelling, including meals, which exceed those incurred in travelling to and from work. For the purposes of this subclause, excess travel costs do not include payment for travelling time or expenses incurred while not travelling to and from block release training.

(c) The amount payable by an employer under clause 21.4(a) may be reduced by an amount the apprentice is eligible to receive for travel costs to attend block release training under a Government apprentice assistance scheme. This will only apply if an apprentice has either received such assistance or their employer has advised them in writing of the availability of such assistance.

(d) All training fees charged by an RTO for prescribed courses and the cost of all prescribed textbooks (excluding those textbooks which are available in the employer's technical library) for the apprenticeship, which are paid by an apprentice, shall be reimbursed by the employer within six months of the commencement of the apprenticeship or the relevant stage of the apprenticeship, or within three months of the commencement of the training provided by the RTO, whichever is the later, unless there is unsatisfactory progress.

(e) An employer may meet its obligations under clause 21.4(d) by paying any fees and/or cost of textbooks directly to the RTO.

21.5 Competency based progression

[21.5—Competency based progression inserted by PR559287 ppc 01Jan15]

(a) For the purpose of competency based wage progression in clause 21.1 and 21.2 an apprentice will be paid at the relevant wage rate for the next stage of their apprenticeship if:

(i) competency has been achieved in the relevant proportion of the total units of competency specified in clause 21.7 for that stage of the apprenticeship. The units of competency which are included in the relevant proportion must be consistent with any requirements in the training plan; and

(ii) any requirements of the relevant State/Territory apprenticeship authority and any additional requirements of the relevant training package with respect to the demonstration of competency and any minimum necessary work experience requirements are met; and

(iii) either:

(A) the Registered Training Organisation (RTO), the employer and the apprentice agree that the abovementioned requirements have been met; or

(B) the employer has been provided with written advice that the RTO has assessed that the apprentice meets the abovementioned requirements in respect to all the relevant units of competency and the employer has not advised the RTO and the apprentice of any disagreement with that assessment within 21 days of receipt of the advice.

(b) If the employer disagrees with the assessment of the RTO referred to in clause 21.5(a)(iii)(B) above, and the dispute cannot be resolved by agreement between the RTO, the employer and the apprentice, the matter may be referred to the relevant State/Territory apprenticeship authority for determination. If the matter is not capable of being dealt with by such authority it may be dealt with in accordance with the dispute resolution clause in this award. For the avoidance of doubt, disputes concerning other apprenticeship progression provisions of this award may be dealt with in accordance with the dispute resolution clause.

(c) For the purposes of this clause, the training package containing the qualification specified in the contract of training for the apprenticeship sets out the assessment requirements for the attainment of the units of competency that make up the qualification. The definition of "competency" utilised for the purpose of the training packages and for the purpose of this clause is the consistent application of knowledge and skill to the standard of performance required in the workplace. It embodies the ability to transfer and apply skills and knowledge to new situations and environments.

(d) The apprentice will be paid the wage rate referred to in clause 21.5(a) from the first full pay period to commence on or after the date on which an agreement or determination is reached in accordance with clause 21.5(a)(iii) or on a date as determined under the dispute resolution process in clause 21.5(b).

Meat Industry Award 2010

[22.2 varied by PR606384 ppc 01Jul18]

22.2 This award incorporates the terms of Schedule E to the Miscellaneous Award 2010 as at 1 July 2018. Provided that any reference to “this award” in Schedule E to the Miscellaneous Award 2010 is to be read as referring to the Meat Industry Award 2010 and not the Miscellaneous Award 2010.

23. School-based apprentices

See Schedule D

24. Payment by results

24.1 This clause applies only to meat processing establishments.

24.2 Subject to the provisions of this clause an employer may elect to pay employees under an incentive payment system (as an alternative to the timework payment system provided in this award).

24.3 An incentive payment system may apply to the whole of a workplace or enterprise covered by this award or a section or sections of such workplace or the specified categories of employees within the workplace and, to the extent of any inconsistency, will prevail over the timework payment system provided in this award whilst the incentive payment system remains in force.

24.4 The terms and conditions of any incentive payment system and any agreed modification to such system will be:

(a) fully explained by the employer to all employees working under such system prior to implementation;

(b) committed to writing by the employer in a form that enables the operation of the system to be readily understood, and allows employees to monitor accrual of entitlements under the system; and

(c) made available by the employer in written form to all employees covered by the system, upon request, or to an employee.

24.5 The information upon which payments under an incentive system are calculated, and all payments made and other benefits provided to employees under a system must be recorded in writing in the time and wages records of the employer kept in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

24.6 Subject to this clause, all wages and other entitlements payable to an employee in accordance with an incentive payment system under this clause, will be payable to the employee as if the terms of the incentive payment system were terms of this award.

24.7 Once implemented, any incentive payment system may only be modified by agreement either between the employer and the majority of employees covered by the system. Unless expressly agreed by the employer and a majority of employees no modification to the system will operate so as to detract from or reduce accrued or...
Meat Industry Award 2010

accruing rights in respect of work performed by employees prior to the implementation of the modification.

24.8 Nothing in clause 24.11 will affect the right of an employer or a majority of employees to terminate any incentive payment system under clause 24.11 in cases where no modification of the system is sought.

24.9 Subject to this award, NES and the Act, the minimum ordinary time earnings for a day or week for employees working in accordance with an incentive payment scheme will be based on the rate of pay prescribed by clause 19—Minimum wages for the classification of the employee plus:

(a) for daily hire employees, an incentive loading of 20% of the employees classification rate, and a daily hire loading of 10% of the employees classification rate;

(b) for casual employees, an incentive loading of 20% of the employees classification rate, and a further casual loading of 25% of the employees classification rate; or

(c) for all other employees, an incentive loading of 20% of the employees classification rate.

24.10 Employees working in accordance with an incentive payment system who perform work in overtime hours defined in clause 36—Overtime or on Saturdays, Sundays or public holidays, will be entitled to minimum payments for all work performed during such times which are no less than the payments to which such employees would be entitled for such time periods worked pursuant to clauses 31—Hours of work, 36—Overtime and 40—Public holidays.

24.11 Subject to clause 24.7, the employer or the majority of the employees covered by any incentive payment system may elect at any time to terminate any such system in force, either in relation to the whole of an establishment or enterprise or any part thereof, upon giving not less than two months’ notice of their intention to do so.

24.12 All payments made to employees working under an incentive payment system for work performed during ordinary hours must be treated as the ordinary time rate for the purpose of calculating payment for annual leave, sick leave, public holidays and other paid leave under the award. The weekly rate of pay for such purposes will be calculated by dividing all payment for work performed in ordinary hours over the 12 months’ preceding the taking of leave, by the number of weeks during which any such work was performed. The daily rate of pay will be the appropriate pro rata percentage of the weekly rate.

24.13 If an employee is a member of a union, the employee may be represented by a union in meeting and conferring with the employer about the implementation of this clause, and in such case, the union must be given a reasonable opportunity to participate in negotiations regarding the proposed implementation of this clause. Union involvement does not mean that the consent of the union is required prior to the introduction of agreed arrangements.

24.14 For the purpose of this clause, the following will apply:
(a) incentive payment system means a system of payment whereby the rate or quantum of wages is calculated for each day, shift or week by direct reference to the amount of work performed by the employee, either individually or as a member of a team; and

(b) timework payment system means a system of payment whereby the rate or quantum of wages is calculated for each day, shift or week (or part thereof) worked by reference to the time worked by employees, irrespective of the amount of work actually performed during that time, whether or not expected or predicted levels of production are agreed or specified during such work time.

24.15 Transitional

(a) If, upon the date that this modern award comes into effect, an employer elects to maintain in force an incentive payment system that was in force and effect immediately prior to that date, then the employer will be taken to have elected to implement that system in accordance with clause 24.2.

(b) If an employer elects to maintain an existing scheme under this clause, that scheme will apply from that date in the same manner as if the scheme was implemented for the first time under this clause.

(b) The rights and obligations in these clauses supplement those in superannuation legislation.

Employees whose duties are integral to the operation means employees of the following classifications who are engaged to work on or in close connection with the relevant system of production or conveyance, namely:

(i) Slaughtering operations—slaughterers, knife-hands, gut-room labourers, tripe room labourers; and

(ii) Boning operations—boners, slicers, packers (including cryovac operators and scalers, where employed as part of a packing team), pre-trimmers and employees engaged to push carcases or sides to or from slaughterers or boners on rail systems.

(b) A rest break taken in accordance with clause 32.2(a) will count as ordinary time worked.

Provided that where there is a breakdown of machinery within one hour of the time of the normal meal, the employer may require employees to have their meal break at an earlier time.
33.  Shiftwork

If the employer agrees to the request then clause 36.2 will apply for overtime that has been worked.

Note: If an employee makes a request under section 65 of the Act for a change in working arrangements, the employer may only refuse that request on reasonable business grounds (see section 65(5) of the Act).

(h) If, on the termination of the employee’s employment, time off for overtime worked by the employee to which clause 36.2 applies has not been taken, the employer must pay the employee for the overtime at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.

Note: Under section 345(1) of the Act, a person must not knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading representation about the workplace rights of another person under clause 36.2.

Note 2: If the employer refuses the request, the written response must include details of the reasons for the refusal (s.65(6)).

36A.3 What the written response must include if the employer refuses the request

Clause 36A.3 applies if the employer refuses the request and has not reached an agreement with the employee under clause 36A.2.

(a) The written response under s.65(4) must include details of the reasons for the refusal, including the business ground or grounds for the refusal and how the ground or grounds apply.

(b) If the employer and employee could not agree on a change in working arrangements under clause 36A.2, the written response under s.65(4) must:

(i) state whether or not there are any changes in working arrangements that the employer can offer the employee so as to better accommodate the employee’s circumstances; and

(ii) if the employer can offer the employee such changes in working arrangements, set out those changes in working arrangements.

36A.4 What the written response must include if a different change in working arrangements is agreed

(b) If an employee has an excessive leave accrual, the employer or the employee may seek to confer with the other and genuinely try to reach agreement on how to reduce or eliminate the excessive leave accrual.
(c) Clause 37.11 sets out how an employer may direct an employee who has an excessive leave accrual to take paid annual leave.

(d) Clause 37.12 sets out how an employee who has an excessive leave accrual may require an employer to grant paid annual leave requested by the employee.

(i) is of no effect if it would result at any time in the employee’s remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than 6 weeks when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 37.10, 37.11 or 37.12 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account; and

(d) An employee to whom a direction has been given under paragraph (a) may request to take a period of paid annual leave as if the direction had not been given.

Note 1: Paid annual leave arising from a request mentioned in paragraph (d) may result in the direction ceasing to have effect. See clause 37.11(b)(i).

Note 2: Under section 88(2) of the Fair Work Act, the employer must not unreasonably refuse to agree to a request by the employee to take paid annual leave.

(i) the employee has had an excessive leave accrual for more than 6 months at the time of giving the notice; and

(ii) the employee has not been given a direction under clause 37.11(a) that, when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 37.10, 37.11 or 37.12 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account, would eliminate the employee’s excessive leave accrual.

(c) A notice given by an employee under paragraph (a) must not:

(i) if granted, result in the employee’s remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being at any time less than 6 weeks when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 37.10, 37.11 or 37.12 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account; or

Schedule D—School-based Apprenticeship

[D.1 This schedule applies to school-based apprentices. A school-based apprentice is a person who is undertaking an apprenticeship in accordance with this schedule while also undertaking a course of secondary education.

D.2 A school-based apprenticeship may be undertaken in the trades covered by this award under a training agreement or contract of training for an apprentice declared or recognised by the relevant State or Territory authority.

D.3 The relevant minimum wages for full-time junior and adult apprentices provided for in this award, calculated hourly, will apply to school-based apprentices for total hours worked including time deemed to be spent in off-the-job training.

D.4 For the purposes of clause D.3, where an apprentice is a full-time school student, the time spent in off-the-job training for which the apprentice must be paid is 25% of the actual hours worked each week on-the-job. The wages paid for training time may be averaged over the semester or year.

D.5 A school-based apprentice must be allowed, over the duration of the apprenticeship, the same amount of time to attend off-the-job training as an equivalent full-time apprentice.

D.6 For the purposes of this schedule, off-the-job training is structured training delivered by a Registered Training Organisation separate from normal work duties or general supervised practice undertaken on the job.

D.7 The duration of the apprenticeship must be as specified in the training agreement or contract for each apprentice but must not exceed six years.

The rate of progression reflects the average rate of skill acquisition expected from the typical combination of work and training for a school-based apprentice undertaking the applicable apprenticeship.

[D.10 substituted by PR544263 ppc 01Jan14]

D.10 If an apprentice converts from school-based to full-time, the successful completion of competencies (if provided for in this award) and all time spent as a full-time apprentice will count for the purposes of progression through the relevant wage scale in addition to the progression achieved as a school-based apprentice.

D.11 School-based apprentices are entitled pro rata to all of the other conditions in this award.
