   (b) Injury will be given the same meaning and application as applying under the applicable workers’ compensation legislation covering the employer.

22.2 Entitlement to accident pay

   (a) The employer must pay accident pay where an employee suffers an injury and weekly payments of compensation are paid to the employee under the applicable workers’ compensation legislation.

   (b) An employee will only be entitled to payment under this clause while the employee remains in employment of the employer. However, an employer must not terminate the employment of the employee to avoid any payment under this clause.

22.3 Notice of injury

   (a) When an employee receives an injury for which the employee claims to be entitled to payment under this clause, the employee shall give notice in writing of the injury to the employer as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving the injury. Notice can be given by a representative of the employee.

22.4 Maximum period

   The maximum period or aggregate of periods of accident pay to be made by an employer shall be 26 weeks for any one injury. The 26 week period commences from the first day of incapacity for work, which may be subsequent to the date of injury.

22.5 Pro rata payments

   For a period of less than one week, accident pay (as defined) will be calculated on a pro rata basis.

22.6 Return to work

   If an employee entitled to accident pay under this clause returns to work on reduced hours or to perform modified duties, the amount of accident pay due will be reduced by any amounts paid for the performance of such work.

Where the employee recovers damages from the employer or from a third party in respect of the said injury independently of the applicable workers’ compensation legislation, such employee will be liable to repay to the employer the amount of accident pay which the employer has paid under this clause and the employee will not be entitled to any further accident pay thereafter.

24.5 Absence from duty

An employee failing to attend for duty will not be entitled to pay for the time of such non-attendance except as provided for in the case of annual leave, public holidays, personal/carer’s leave and compassionate leave or any other absences from work without loss of pay permitted by this award.

24.6 Make-up time

An employee on day work or shiftwork may elect, with the consent of their employer, to work make-up time, under which the employee takes time off during ordinary hours and works those at a later time, at the rate which would have been applicable to the hours taken off.

24.7 Make-up time after stand-down

(a) In the event of a stand-down situation arising, an employer and employee(s) may agree that each employee may work make-up time, up to the number of hours of work lost as a result of the stand-down, at the rate which would have been applicable to the hours lost. Such make-up time must be worked within seven days of the end of the stand-down period or during the stand-down period if such hours are worked by agreement outside normal hours of work.

(b) For the purpose of this provision the hours of work may be worked at such time as is agreed despite any other provisions of this award.

(c) No employee may be required by an employer to agree to work such make-up time and, in the absence of an agreement by an employee to do so the usual overtime and penalty rates applicable under this award will apply to work required to be performed by such employees.

(d) Provided that an employee who is required to attend for work on any day but for whom, for the reason abovementioned, no work is provided will be entitled to two hours’ pay and provided further that where an employee commences work the employee will be entitled to be provided with four hours’ employment or failing which be entitled to be paid as for four hours’ work.

(b) The rights and obligations in these clauses supplement those in superannuation legislation.

25.2 Employer contributions

25.3 Voluntary employee contributions

(a) Subject to the governing rules of the relevant superannuation fund, an employee may, in writing, authorise their employer to pay on behalf of the employee a specified amount from the post-taxation wages of the employee into the same superannuation fund as the employer makes the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 25.2.
(b) An employee may adjust the amount the employee has authorised their employer to pay from the wages of the employee from the first of the month following the giving of three months’ written notice to their employer.

[25.4 varied by PR994547 from 01Jan10]

Unless, to comply with superannuation legislation, the employer is required to make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 25.2 to another superannuation fund that is chosen by the employee, the employer must make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 25.2 and pay the amount authorised under clauses 25.3(a) or (b) to one of the following superannuation funds or its successor:

[25.4(h) renumbered as 25.4(i) by PR994376 ppc 01Mar10; varied by PR546073 ppc 01Jan14]

(i) any superannuation fund to which the employer was making superannuation contributions for the benefit of its employees before 12 September 2008, provided the superannuation fund is an eligible choice fund and is a fund that offers a MySuper product or is an exempt public sector scheme; or

[25.4(j) inserted by PR546073 ppc 01Jan14]

(j) a superannuation fund or scheme which the employee is a defined benefit member of.

Part 5—Hours of Work and Related Matters

26.2 Meal breaks without pay will be for a period of not less than 30 minutes and not more than 60 minutes.

26.3 Subject to the exceptions provided below, an employee will not be required to work more than five hours without a break for a meal. An employee will be paid at the rate of time and one half for all time worked:

   (a) where the employee is required to work beyond five hours without a break for a meal; or

   (b) during meal breaks and thereafter until a meal break is allowed.

26.4 Where the employer and the majority of employees in an establishment agree that six hours can be worked without a meal break being taken, this arrangement will apply to all employees within that establishment.

26.5 An employee required to perform regular maintenance will work at the ordinary rates during meal breaks whenever instructed to do so for the purposes of making good breakdowns of plant or upon routine maintenance of plant which can only be done while such plant is idle.

26.6 An employer may in appropriate circumstances reasonably require an employee to change the timing of a scheduled meal break or rest break to meet operational requirements.
26.7 In addition to a meal break, an employer may provide to an employee either a morning or afternoon tea break not exceeding 15 minutes. Where a break is unpaid it must not exceed 15 minutes duration. Where both a morning and an afternoon tea break is provided on the same day or shift at least one of such breaks must be paid.

26.8 Rest breaks—for vehicle manufacturing employees only

Where rostered breaks are available such breaks may be staggered for particular work sections within one hour of the break being scheduled.

27. Crib breaks when working overtime

27.1 An employee required to work overtime for more than one and a half hours after working ordinary hours will be allowed a crib break of 20 minutes before starting such overtime. The crib break will be paid for at ordinary rate.

27.2 An employee required to work overtime will be allowed a crib break of 20 minutes without deduction of pay after each four hours of overtime worked provided work continues after the crib break.

27.3 Provided that where a day worker is required to work overtime on a Saturday the first prescribed crib break if occurring between 10.00 am and 1.00 pm will be paid at ordinary rate.

27.4 An employer and employee may agree to any variation of this subclause to meet the circumstances of the work in hand provided that the employer will not be required to make any payment in respect of any time allowed in excess of 20 minutes.

27.5 This clause will not apply to an employee working overtime on a Sunday or public holiday unless the employee is rostered to work any of their ordinary hours on that day.

(a) on a Sunday—at the rate of double time;

(c) on any other day—time and a half for the first three hours and double time thereafter. Payment at double time is to continue until the completion of the overtime work.

28.3 Time off instead of payment for overtime may be provided if an employee so elects and is agreed to by the employer.

(a) Time off instead of payment for overtime must be taken at a mutually convenient time within four weeks of the overtime being worked. However, an employee with the agreement of the employer may elect to bank up to eight hours of time off instead of overtime to be taken no later than eight weeks after the overtime was worked.

(b) Any agreement reached in accordance with this subclause should be placed in writing and recorded with the employee’s wage records and for file. Any hours banked and cleared in accordance with this subclause must be recorded in the employees wage records.

(c) Time off instead of payment for overtime must equate to the overtime rate i.e. if the employee works one hour overtime and elects to claim time off instead of payment the time off would be equal to time and a half.

(d) Provided that where an employee’s employment is terminated or the employee resigns or the entitlement has not been taken, the entitlement will be paid out at the rate at which it was accrued.

(e) Clause 28.2 will not apply when the time is worked:

(i) by arrangement between the employees themselves;

(ii) for the purpose of effecting the customary rotation of shifts; or

(iii) in accordance with clause 24.6 in this award.

28.6 Rest period before recommencing work

(a) When overtime work, including work on a rostered day off or work on a Sunday or a public holiday is necessary, it will wherever reasonably practicable be arranged so that an employee works not more than 14 hours in any period of 24 consecutive hours and so that each employee may have at least 10 consecutive hours off duty in each such 24 consecutive hours.

(b) Subject to the exceptions referred to in clause 28.8 and clause 28.9, on the completion of a period of work an employee is required to have a period of 10 consecutive hours off duty from their ordinary working time without loss of pay until recommencing work.

(c) If, on the instructions of their employer, an employee resumes or continues work without having had 10 consecutive hours off duty the employee will be paid at the rate of double time until released from duty. The employee will then be entitled to be absent for 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for any ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

28.7 Standing by

(a) Subject to clause 28.7(b) where an employee is required regularly to hold themselves in readiness for a call-back, an employee directed by an employer to hold themselves in readiness to work outside their ordinary working hours will for this period be paid standing by time at their ordinary time rate of pay commencing from the time an employee is required to hold themselves in readiness for a call-back.

(b) This clause will not apply to an employee in a garage and/or to an employee engaged as the driver of a tow and/or repair vehicle and/or to the assistant to such a driver.

28.8 Call-back (general)

(a) An employee recalled to work overtime after leaving the employer’s business premises (whether notified before or after leaving the premises) will be paid for a minimum of three hours’ work at the appropriate rate for each time recalled; provided that, except in the case of unforeseen circumstances arising, the employee will not be required to work the full three hours if the employee was recalled to perform work which is completed within a shorter period.

(b) This clause will not apply where:
(i) it is customary for an employee to return to an employer’s premises for periods not exceeding 30 minutes each to perform a specific job outside the ordinary working hours in which case the employee will be paid for a minimum of one hour’s work at the appropriate rate for each time recalled; or

(ii) where the overtime is continuous (subject to a reasonable meal break) with the commencement of ordinary working time.

(c) Where the actual time worked is less than three hours on such recall or each of such recalls, overtime worked in the circumstances specified in this subclause will not be regarded as overtime for the purposes of clause 28.6(a).

(d) This subclause will not apply to an employee in a garage and/or to an employee engaged as the driver of a tow and/or repair vehicle and/or to the assistant to such a driver.

The calculation of the period of time of duty will include only the time reasonably occupied in travel or work between the time of the employee’s departure from the normal place of residence and the time of return to such place after the performance of the work provided that:

(i) in the case of the first call-back in any one day an employee will be paid as for at least a period of two hours at the rate of double time; and

(ii) in the case of each subsequent call-back in the same day as for at least a period of one hour at the rate of double time whether occurring within two hours of the first call-back or not.

28A Requests for flexible working arrangements

[28A inserted by PR701492 ppc 01Dec18]

28A.1 Employee may request change in working arrangements

Clause 28A applies where an employee has made a request for a change in working arrangements under s.65 of the Act.

Note 1: Section 65 of the Act provides for certain employees to request a change in their working arrangements because of their circumstances, as set out in s.65(1A).

Note 2: An employer may only refuse a s.65 request for a change in working arrangements on ‘reasonable business grounds’ (see s.65(5) and (5A)).

Note 3: Clause 28A is an addition to s.65.

28A.2 Responding to the request

Before responding to a request made under s.65, the employer must discuss the request with the employee and genuinely try to reach agreement on a change in working arrangements that will reasonably accommodate the employee’s circumstances having regard to:

(a) the needs of the employee arising from their circumstances;
(b) the consequences for the employee if changes in working arrangements are not made; and
(c) any reasonable business grounds for refusing the request.
Note 1: The employer must give the employee a written response to an employee’s s.65 request within 21 days, stating whether the employer grants or refuses the request (s.65(4)).

Note 2: If the employer refuses the request, the written response must include details of the reasons for the refusal (s.65(6)).

28A.3 What the written response must include if the employer refuses the request

Clause 28A.3 applies if the employer refuses the request and has not reached an agreement with the employee under clause 28A.2.

(a) The written response under s.65(4) must include details of the reasons for the refusal, including the business ground or grounds for the refusal and how the ground or grounds apply.

(b) If the employer and employee could not agree on a change in working arrangements under clause 28A.2, the written response under s.65(4) must:

   (i) state whether or not there are any changes in working arrangements that the employer can offer the employee so as to better accommodate the employee’s circumstances; and

   (ii) if the employer can offer the employee such changes in working arrangements, set out those changes in working arrangements.

28A.4 What the written response must include if a different change in working arrangements is agreed

If the employer and the employee reached an agreement under clause 28A.2 on a change in working arrangements that differs from that initially requested by the employee, the employer must provide the employee with a written response to their request setting out the agreed change(s) in working arrangements.

28A.5 Dispute resolution

Disputes about whether the employer has discussed the request with the employee and responded to the request in the way required by clause 28A, can be dealt with under clause 9—Dispute resolution.

Part 6—Leave and Public Holidays

29. Annual leave

[Varied by PR992635, PR567252, PR583095]

29.1 Annual leave is provided for in the NES. Annual leave does not apply to a casual employee.

29.2 An employee for each year of service with an employer and subject to clauses 29.3 and 29.7, is entitled to four weeks of paid annual leave.
29.3 An employee’s entitlement to annual leave accrues progressively during a year of service according to the employee’s ordinary hours of work.

29.4 Excessive leave accruals: general provision

[29.4 renamed and substituted by PR583095 ppc 29Jul16]

Note: Clauses 29.4 to 29.6 contain provisions, additional to the National Employment Standards, about the taking of paid annual leave as a way of dealing with the accrual of excessive paid annual leave. See Part 2.2, Division 6 of the Fair Work Act.

(a) An employee has an excessive leave accrual if the employee has accrued more than 8 weeks’ paid annual leave (or 10 weeks’ paid annual leave for a shiftworker, as defined by clause 29.7).

(b) If an employee has an excessive leave accrual, the employer or the employee may seek to confer with the other and genuinely try to reach agreement on how to reduce or eliminate the excessive leave accrual.

(c) Clause 29.5 sets out how an employer may direct an employee who has an excessive leave accrual to take paid annual leave.

(d) Clause 29.6 sets out how an employee who has an excessive leave accrual may require an employer to grant paid annual leave requested by the employee.

29.5 Excessive leave accruals: direction by employer that leave be taken

[New 29.5 inserted by PR583095 ppc 29Jul16]

(a) If an employer has genuinely tried to reach agreement with an employee under clause 29.4(b) but agreement is not reached (including because the employee refuses to confer), the employer may direct the employee in writing to take one or more periods of paid annual leave.

(b) However, a direction by the employer under paragraph (a):

(i) is of no effect if it would result at any time in the employee’s remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than 6 weeks when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 29.4, 29.5 or 29.6 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account; and

(ii) must not require the employee to take any period of paid annual leave of less than one week; and

(iii) must not require the employee to take a period of paid annual leave beginning less than 8 weeks, or more than 12 months, after the direction is given; and

(iv) must not be inconsistent with any leave arrangement agreed by the employer and employee.

(c) The employee must take paid annual leave in accordance with a direction under paragraph (a) that is in effect.
(d) An employee to whom a direction has been given under paragraph (a) may request to take a period of paid annual leave as if the direction had not been given.

Note 1: Paid annual leave arising from a request mentioned in paragraph (d) may result in the direction ceasing to have effect. See clause 29.5(b)(i).

Note 2: Under section 88(2) of the Fair Work Act, the employer must not unreasonably refuse to agree to a request by the employee to take paid annual leave.

29.6 Excessive leave accruals: request by employee for leave

[New 29.6 inserted by PR583095; substituted by PR583095 ppc 29Jul17]

(a) If an employee has genuinely tried to reach agreement with an employer under clause 29.4(b) but agreement is not reached (including because the employer refuses to confer), the employee may give a written notice to the employer requesting to take one or more periods of paid annual leave.

(b) However, an employee may only give a notice to the employer under paragraph (a) if:

(i) the employee has had an excessive leave accrual for more than 6 months at the time of giving the notice; and

(ii) the employee has not been given a direction under clause 29.5(a) that, when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 29.4, 29.5 or 29.6 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account, would eliminate the employee’s excessive leave accrual.

(c) A notice given by an employee under paragraph (a) must not:

(i) if granted, result in the employee’s remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being at any time less than 6 weeks when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 29.4, 29.5 or 29.6 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account; or

(ii) provide for the employee to take any period of paid annual leave of less than one week; or

(iii) provide for the employee to take a period of paid annual leave beginning less than 8 weeks, or more than 12 months, after the notice is given; or

(iv) be inconsistent with any leave arrangement agreed by the employer and employee.

(d) An employee is not entitled to request by a notice under paragraph (a) more than 4 weeks’ paid annual leave (or 5 weeks’ paid annual leave for a shiftworker, as defined by clause 29.7) in any period of 12 months.

(e) The employer must grant paid annual leave requested by a notice under paragraph (a).
29.7 Seven day shiftworkers

[29.5 substituted by PR567252 ppc 27May15; 29.5 renumbered as 29.7 by PR583095 ppc 29Jul16]

For the purpose of the additional week of annual leave provided for in s.87(1)(b) of the Act, a shiftworker is a seven day shiftworker who is regularly rostered to work on Sundays and public holidays.

29.8 Annual leave in advance

[29.6 renumbered as 29.8 by PR583095 ppc 29Jul16; 29.8 renamed and substituted by PR583095 ppc 29Jul16]

(a) An employer and employee may agree in writing to the employee taking a period of paid annual leave before the employee has accrued an entitlement to the leave.

(b) An agreement must:

(i) state the amount of leave to be taken in advance and the date on which leave is to commence; and

(ii) be signed by the employer and employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, by the employee’s parent or guardian.

Note: An example of the type of agreement required by clause 29.8 is set out at Schedule H. There is no requirement to use the form of agreement set out at Schedule H.

(c) The employer must keep a copy of any agreement under clause 29.8 as an employee record.

(d) If, on the termination of the employee’s employment, the employee has not accrued an entitlement to all of a period of paid annual leave already taken in accordance with an agreement under clause 29.8, the employer may deduct from any money due to the employee on termination an amount equal to the amount that was paid to the employee in respect of any part of the period of annual leave taken in advance to which an entitlement has not been accrued.

29.9 Payment for period of leave

[29.7(a) substituted by PR992635 ppc 29Jan10; 29.7 renumbered as 29.9 by PR583095 ppc 29Jul16]]

(a) Instead of the base rate of pay as referred to in s.90(1) of the Act, an employee under this award, before going on annual leave, must be paid the wages they would have received in respect of the ordinary hours the employee would have worked had the employee not been on leave during the relevant period. During a period of annual leave an employee will also receive a loading as follows:

(i) Day workers

Employees who would have worked on day work only had they not been on leave—17.5% loading.
(ii) Shiftworkers

Employees who would have worked on shiftwork had they not been on leave—17.5% loading or the shift loading, whichever is the greater but not both.

(b) Subject to clause 29.9(c), the wages to be paid must be worked out on the basis of what the employee would have been paid under this award for working ordinary hours during the period of annual leave, including allowances, loadings and penalties paid for all purposes of the award, first aid allowance and any other wages payable under the employee’s contract of employment including any over award payment.

(c) The employee is not entitled to payments in respect of overtime, special rates or any other payment which might have been payable to the employee as a reimbursement for expenses incurred.

[29.10 inserted by PR583095 ppc 29Jul16]

Despite anything else in this clause, an employee paid by electronic funds transfer (EFT) may be paid in accordance with their usual pay cycle while on paid annual leave.

29.11 Untaken leave on termination

[29.8 varied by PR992635 ppc 29Jan10; 29.8 renumbered as 29.10 by PR583095 ppc 29Jul16; 29.10 renumbered as 29.11 by PR583095 ppc 29Jul16]

Subject to clause 29.8(d) an employee who has outstanding or untaken paid annual leave due when the employment contract ends must be paid the amount that would have been payable to the employee under clause 29.9(a). Payment of either leave loading or the higher shift loading payment instead of leave loading prescribed in clause 29.9(a) will not apply to the pay out of untaken leave.

29.12 Annual close-down

[29.9 renumbered as 29.11 by PR583095 ppc 29Jul16; 29.11 renumbered as 29.12 by PR583095 ppc 29Jul16]

Where an employer closes down a plant, or a section or sections thereof, for the purpose of allowing annual leave to all or the bulk of the employees in the workplace or section or sections concerned, the following provisions apply:

(a) An employer may by giving not less than four weeks’ notice of their intention to do so, stand off for the duration of the close-down all employees in the workplace or section or sections concerned. In such event the employer may allow to those who are not qualified for the full entitlement to annual leave for the total close-down period paid leave up to the total amount of leave accrued as at the commencement of the close-down. Such leave will be at the appropriate rate of wage as prescribed in clause 29.9. The balance of the close-down for which the employee does not have sufficient accrued leave to cover such period will be leave without pay.
(b) An employee who has accrued enough leave for the close-down period must be allowed the leave, and be paid at the appropriate wage rate in clause 29.9.

(c) An employer may close-down for one or two separate periods for the purpose of granting annual leave in accordance with this subclause. If the employer closes down in two separate periods one of those periods must be for a period of at least 21 consecutive days.

family and domestic violence means violent, threatening or other abusive behaviour by a family member of an employee that seeks to coerce or control the employee and that causes them harm or to be fearful.

family member means:

(i) a spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the employee; or

(ii) a child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of a spouse or de facto partner of the employee; or

(iii) a person related to the employee according to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander kinship rules.

(b) A reference to a spouse or de facto partner in the definition of family member in clause 32A.2(a) includes a former spouse or de facto partner.

32A.3 Entitlement to unpaid leave

An employee is entitled to 5 days’ unpaid leave to deal with family and domestic violence, as follows:

(a) the leave is available in full at the start of each 12 month period of the employee’s employment; and

(b) the leave does not accumulate from year to year; and

(c) is available in full to part-time and casual employees.

Note: 1. A period of leave to deal with family and domestic violence may be less than a day by agreement between the employee and the employer.

Note: The reasons for which an employee may take leave include making arrangements for their safety or the safety of a family member (including relocation), attending urgent court hearings, or accessing police services.

Note: Depending on the circumstances such evidence may include a document issued by the police service, a court or a family violence support service, or a statutory declaration.

32A.7 Confidentiality will be deemed to be the number of hours represented by the difference between the time recorded by the clock at the beginning of a shift and the time so recorded at the end thereof, the time of the clock in each case to be set to the time fixed pursuant to the relevant Federal, State or Territory legislation.

(b) In this subclause the expressions standard time and summer time will bear the same meanings as are prescribed by the relevant Federal, State or Territory legislation.
