

About the Form F17C declaration

Employer's declaration in support of an application for approval of a multi-enterprise agreement (other than a greenfields agreement) – notification time on or after 6 June 2023

When to use this form

Enterprise agreements are agreements made at the enterprise level that contain terms and conditions of employment.

The Fair Work Commission (the Commission) assesses and approves enterprise agreements (agreements). It can also assist in the process of making agreements and can deal with disputes arising under an agreement. Before the Commission can approve an agreement, it must be satisfied that the agreement meets the requirements for approval set out in the Fair Work Act 2009, including that the employees will be 'better off overall' under the agreement than they would be if the relevant award applied.

This form provides information to assist the Commission to determine whether to approve an enterprise agreement.

Giving false or misleading information is a serious offence.

A person who knowingly gives false or misleading information or knowingly produces a false or misleading document in support of an application for approval of an enterprise agreement is guilty of an offence, the punishment for which is imprisonment for up to 12 months – see s.137.1 and s.137.2 of the Criminal Code.

This form can be used if:

- a Form F16 – Application for approval of an enterprise agreement \(other than a greenfields agreement\) has been or is being lodged with the Commission
- the agreement is a multi-enterprise agreement (other than a greenfields agreement), and
- the notification time for the agreement was on or after 6 June 2023.

If the notification time for an enterprise agreement (other than a greenfields agreement) is before 6 June 2023, you will need to complete Form F17A.

If the agreement is a single-enterprise agreement (other than a greenfields agreement) with a notification time on or after 6 June 2023, you will need to complete Form F17B.

When is the notification time?

The notification time is when bargaining for the enterprise agreement started. Changes were made to the Fair Work Act 2009 in relation to bargaining on 6 June 2023. Bargaining starts when:

- the employer agrees to bargain, or initiates bargaining, for the agreement
- the employer receives a request to bargain under s.173(2A) of the Fair Work Act in relation to the agreement
- a majority support determination in relation to the agreement comes into operation
- a scope order in relation to the agreement comes into operation
- a supported bargaining authorisation or single interest employer authorisation in relation to the agreement that specifies the employer comes into operation (from 6 June 2023 only), or
- a low-paid authorisation in relation to the agreement that specifies the employer comes into operation (before 6 June 2023 only).

Part 2.1 – The better off overall test

See s.186(2)(d) and s.193 of the Fair Work Act 2009.

The better off overall test requires the Commission to be satisfied, as at the time the application for approval of the agreement by the Commission was made, that each award covered employee, and each reasonably foreseeable employee would be better off overall under the agreement than under the relevant modern award.

Part 3 – Pre-approval steps

In this section, you will be required to provide details to help the Commission determine whether the agreement has been genuinely agreed to by the employees covered by the agreement.

Section 188(1) of the Fair Work Act requires the Commission to take into account the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement in determining whether it is satisfied that an agreement has been genuinely agreed to by the employees covered by the agreement. Sections 188(2), (2A), (4A) and (6) set out other requirements that must be met.

Part 3.1 – Notification time

21 What was the notification time for the agreement?

See section 173(2) of the Fair Work Act 2009. The notification time for a multi-enterprise agreement is the date when:

- the employer agrees to bargain, or initiates bargaining, for the agreement
- a supported bargaining authorisation in relation to the agreement that specifies the employer comes into operation, or
- a single interest employer authorisation in relation to the agreement that specifies the employer comes into operation.

Notification time	Date:
If the Commission issued a supported bargaining authorisation or a single interest employer authorisation in relation to the agreement, please provide the date of the order and the print number (PR)

Part 3.2 – Informing employees of bargaining and their right to be represented by a bargaining representative

22 Describe the steps the employer took to inform employees who will be covered by the agreement and were employed at the notification time for the agreement that:

- a. the employer is bargaining for an enterprise agreement, and
- b. of the proposed coverage of the agreement?

The Commission must take into account paragraph 1(a) of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement. Paragraph 1(a) says the employer should ensure that employees of the employer who will be covered by a proposed enterprise agreement and are employed at the notification time for the agreement, are informed:

- that the employer is bargaining for an enterprise agreement, and
- of the proposed coverage of the agreement,

at such a time and in such a manner that employees have a reasonable opportunity to be represented in bargaining for the agreement.

Describe each step taken and state the date on which it was taken. Include details of what information was given to employees at each step. For example, describe information given during meetings, by email or post, and on noticeboards.

Also lodge copies of any materials that were used to inform employees.

- a. their rights to be represented in bargaining for the agreement, including by an employee organisation or by another bargaining representative of their choice, and
- b. how to exercise those rights.

The Commission must take into account paragraph 1(b) of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement. Paragraph 1(b) says the employer should ensure that employees of the employer who will be covered by a proposed enterprise agreement and are employed at the notification time for the agreement, are informed:

- of the employees’ rights to be represented in bargaining for the agreement, including by an employee organisation or by another bargaining representative of their choice, and
- how to exercise those rights,

at such a time and in such a manner that employees have a reasonable opportunity to be represented in bargaining for the agreement.

Also lodge copies of any materials that were used to inform employees.

Date(s)	Steps taken	Information given

Part 3.3 – Providing employees with a reasonable opportunity to consider the agreement

The Commission must take into account paragraph 4 of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement. Paragraph 4 says that the employer should provide employees with a reasonable opportunity to consider a proposed enterprise agreement before voting on it, so that the employees can vote in an informed manner.

24.1 Did the employer provide employees entitled to vote on the agreement with copies of the agreement and incorporated materials in accordance with paragraph 5 of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement?

Paragraph 5 of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement says that the employer will be taken to satisfy paragraph 4 if, a reasonable time period before the start of the voting on the proposed agreement, the employer provides to employees who are entitled to vote on the agreement:

- a full copy of the agreement, and
- a full copy of any other material incorporated by reference in the agreement.

Yes – Go to question 24.2

No – Explain below how the employer provided employees with a reasonable opportunity to consider the agreement before voting on it, so that the employees could vote in an informed manner. Then go to question 25.

- c. a full copy of the agreement, and
- d. a full copy of any other material incorporated by reference in the agreement.

See paragraphs 5 to 7 of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement. Paragraph 6 of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement says what a ‘reasonable time period’ includes, and paragraph 7 says how the copies may be provided to employees.

Describe each step taken and state the date on which it was taken.

Date(s)	Steps taken to provide to employees entitled to vote on the agreement a full copy of the agreement and of any other material incorporated by reference in the agreement

List the other material incorporated by reference in the agreement (if any).

Part 3.4 – Explaining the terms of the agreement

25 What steps were taken by the employer to explain the terms of the agreement, what was explained and how was the effect of those terms explained to the employees?

See section 180(5)(a) of the Fair Work Act 2009. The employer must take all reasonable steps to ensure the terms of the agreement, and the effect of those terms, are explained to the employees employed at the time who will be covered by the agreement.

The Commission must also take into account paragraphs 8 to 14 of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement. Paragraph 8 says that taking all reasonable steps to explain the terms of the agreement, and the effect of those terms, should include at a minimum explaining to employees how the proposed agreement will alter their existing minimum entitlements and other terms and conditions of employment.

Form F17C – Employer’s declaration in support of an application for approval of a multi-enterprise agreement (other than a greenfields agreement) – notification time on or after 6 June 2023

Paragraphs 8 and 9 also give guidance on what should be explained. Paragraphs 12 and 13 say how employees may be provided with the explanation.

Describe the steps taken to explain to the employees the terms of the agreement and the effect of those terms. For example, describe how the information was given in meetings, by email or post, and by other means. Write down the date on which each step was taken.

Also lodge copies of any materials that were used to explain the agreement to the employees.

(tick all that apply and provide further information):

- any enterprise agreement that currently applies. Please specify which agreement/s:

27 When the employer explained the terms of the agreement and the effect of those terms to the employees, what was done to take into account the particular circumstances and needs of the employees?

See section 180(5)(b) of the Fair Work Act 2009. The employer must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the explanation is provided in an appropriate manner. Section 180(6) of the Fair Work Act 2009 provides as examples of the kinds of employees whose circumstances and needs are to be taken into account, employees from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, young employees and employees who didn’t have a bargaining representative.

The Commission must also take into account paragraph 14 of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement.

Identify the relevant group of employees addressed and their particular circumstances (for example employees from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds or young employees). Describe the steps you took to accommodate their circumstances. Write down the date on which each step was taken.

Also lodge copies of any materials that were used to ensure the explanation to employees was provided in an appropriate manner (if not lodged in response to question 25).

Do not simply state that the employer took reasonable steps to ensure the explanation was provided in an appropriate manner.

Date of step	Step taken	Relevant group of employees addressed

Part 3.5 – Providing employees with a reasonable opportunity to vote on the agreement in a free and informed manner

The Commission must take into account paragraphs 15 and 16 of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement. Paragraph 15 says that employees should be given a reasonable opportunity to vote on a proposed agreement in a free and informed manner.

28 Describe the steps that were taken to inform employees entitled to vote of:

- a. the time and place for the vote, and
- b. the voting method.

Paragraph 16 of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement says that employees should be informed of the time, place and method for the vote:

- at least 7 full calendar days before the day on which voting starts, or
- by such other reasonable time before the day on which voting starts as is agreed with one or more employee organisation(s) acting as bargaining representative(s) for a significant proportion of the employees to be covered by the agreement.

Describe how employees were informed about the time and place for the vote and the voting method. For example, describe information given during meetings, by email or post, and on noticeboards. Include the date each of these steps was taken.

Also lodge copies of any materials that were provided to employees to notify them about the vote.

Do not simply state that the relevant employees were notified by the specified time.

29.1 Describe the voting process for the agreement

Paragraph 15 of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement also says that giving employees a reasonable opportunity to vote on a proposed agreement in a free and informed manner should include:

- a voting process that ensures the vote of each employee is not disclosed to or ascertainable by the employer, and
- a method and period of voting that provides all employees entitled to vote with a fair and reasonable opportunity to cast a vote.

Describe the voting process used and the method and period of the vote, and explain how all employees entitled to vote were provided with a fair and reasonable opportunity to cast a vote.

29.2 Describe any further steps taken to give employees a reasonable opportunity to vote on the agreement in a free and informed manner

Part 3.6 – Sufficient interest and sufficiently representative

- have a sufficient interest in the terms of the agreement, and
- are sufficiently representative, having regard to the employees the agreement is expressed to cover?

See section 188(2) of the Fair Work Act 2009. The Commission must also take into account paragraphs 17 and 18 of the Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement.

Part 3.7 – Voting on the agreement

31 Did each bargaining representative for the agreement that is an employee organisation provide the employer with written agreement to the making of the request for employees to vote on the agreement?

See sections 188(2A), 180A and 240B of the Fair Work Act 2009.

Information sheet

Legal or other representation

Representation is where another person (such as a lawyer or paid agent, or an employee of an employer organisation) speaks or acts on a person’s behalf, or assists a person in certain other ways in relation to a matter before the Commission. There is no requirement to be represented at the Commission.

There are some restrictions on representation by a lawyer or paid agent.

Generally, a person must give notice to the Commission (by lodging a Form F53 – Notice that a person: (a) has a lawyer or paid agent or (b) will seek permission for lawyer or paid agent to participate in a conference or hearing) and seek permission from the Commission Member dealing with the matter if they wish to have a lawyer or paid agent represent them by participating in a conference or a hearing.

Apart from participating in a conference or hearing, a person’s lawyer or paid agent can represent them without permission, unless the Commission decides otherwise. For example, the lawyer or paid agent can prepare and lodge written applications, responses and submissions with the Commission, and communicate in writing with the Commission and other parties to the matter on the person’s behalf.

The requirement to give notice and seek permission for a lawyer or paid agent to participate in a conference or hearing, does not apply if the lawyer or paid agent is:

- an employee or officer of the person or
- a bargaining representative that is representing the person or
- an employee or officer of an employee or employer organisation, or an association of employers or a peak council, that is representing the person.

Rule 13(2) of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2024 sets out further exceptions to the requirement to give notice and seek permission.

For more information about representation by lawyers and paid agents, see section 596 of the Fair Work Act 2009, rules 11, 12, 13 and 14 of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2024 and the Commission’s practice note on representation by lawyers and paid agents.
