22A Time off instead of payment for overtime

22A inserted by [PR607586 ppc 01Jul18]

22A.1 An employee and employer may agree to the employee taking time off instead of being paid for a particular amount of overtime that has been worked by the employee.

22A.2 Any amount of overtime that has been worked by an employee in a particular pay period and that is to be taken as time off instead of the employee being paid for it must be the subject of a separate agreement under clause 22A.

22A.3 For employees other than cinema workers (where the relevant overtime is performed on a Sunday or public holidays) an agreement under clause 22A must be made in writing and must state each of the following:

- (a) the number of overtime hours to which it applies and when those hours were worked;
- (b) that the employer and employee agree that the employee may take time off instead of being paid for the overtime;
- (c) that, if the employee requests at any time, the employer must pay the employee, for overtime covered by the agreement but not taken as time off, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked;
- (d) that any payment mentioned in paragraph (c) must be made in the next pay period following the request.

Note: An example of the type of agreement required by this clause is set out at Schedule N. There is no requirement to use the form of agreement set out at Schedule N. An agreement under clause 22A can also be made by an exchange of emails between the employee and employer, or by other electronic means.

- 22A.4 The period of time off that an employee is entitled to take is:
- (a) for cinema workers (where the relevant overtime is performed on a Sunday or public holidays) and radio broadcasting technical staff—equivalent to the overtime payment that would have been made; and

EXAMPLE: By making an agreement under clause 22A an employee who worked 2 overtime hours at the rate of time and a half is entitled to 3 hours' time off.
 - (b) for all other employees and cinema workers (where the relevant overtime is performed other than on a Sunday or public holidays)—the same as the number of overtime hours worked.

EXAMPLE: By making an agreement under clause 22A an employee who worked 2 overtime hours is entitled to 2 hours' time off.
- 22A.5 Time off must be taken:
- (a) within the period of 6 months after the overtime is worked; and
 - (b) at a time or times within that period of 6 months agreed by the employee and employer.
- 22A.6 If the employee requests at any time, to be paid for overtime covered by an agreement under clause 22A but not taken as time off, the employer must pay the employee for the overtime, in the next pay period following the request, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.
- 22A.7 If time off for overtime that has been worked is not taken within the period of 6 months mentioned in clause 22A.5, the employer must pay the employee for the overtime, in the next pay period following those 6 months, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.
- 22A.8 The employer must keep a copy of any agreement under clause 22A as an employee record.
- 22A.9 An employer must not exert undue influence or undue pressure on an employee in relation to a decision by the employee to make, or not make, an agreement to take time off instead of payment for overtime.
- 22A.10 An employee may, under section 65 of the Act, request to take time off, at a time or times specified in the request or to be subsequently agreed by the employer and the employee, instead of being paid for overtime worked by the employee. If the employer agrees to the request then clause 22A will apply, including the requirement for separate written agreements under clause 22A.2 for overtime that has been worked.
- Note: If an employee makes a request under section 65 of the Act for a change in working arrangements, the employer may only refuse that request on reasonable business grounds (see section 65(5) of the Act).
- 22A.11 If, on the termination of the employee's employment, time off for overtime worked by the employee to which clause 22A applies has not been taken, the employer must pay the employee for the overtime at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.

Note: Under section 345(1) of the Act, a person must not knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading representation about the workplace rights of another person under clause 22A.

22B.1 Employee may request change in working arrangements

Clause 22B applies where an employee has made a request for a change in working arrangements under s.65 of the Act.

Note 1: Section 65 of the Act provides for certain employees to request a change in their working arrangements because of their circumstances, as set out in s.65(1A).

Note 2: An employer may only refuse a s.65 request for a change in working arrangements on 'reasonable business grounds' (see s.65(5) and (5A)).

Note 3: Clause 22B is an addition to s.65.

Before responding to a request made under s.65, the employer must discuss the request with the employee and genuinely try to reach agreement on a change in working arrangements that will reasonably accommodate the employee's circumstances having regard to:

- (a) the needs of the employee arising from their circumstances;
- (b) the consequences for the employee if changes in working arrangements are not made; and
- (c) any reasonable business grounds for refusing the request.

22B.3 What the written response must include if the employer refuses the request

Clause 22B.3 applies if the employer refuses the request and has not reached an agreement with the employee under clause 22B.2.

- (a) The written response under s.65(4) must include details of the reasons for the refusal, including the business ground or grounds for the refusal and how the ground or grounds apply.
- (b) If the employer and employee could not agree on a change in working arrangements under clause 22B.2, the written response under s.65(4) must:

- (i) state whether or not there are any changes in working arrangements that the employer can offer the employee so as to better accommodate the employee's circumstances; and
- (ii) if the employer can offer the employee such changes in working arrangements, set out those changes in working arrangements.

22B.4 What the written response must include if a different change in working arrangements is agreed

If the employer and the employee reached an agreement under clause 22B.2 on a change in working arrangements that differs from that initially requested by the employee, the employer must provide the employee with a written response to their request setting out the agreed change(s) in working arrangements.

22B.5 Dispute resolution

Disputes about whether the employer has discussed the request with the employee and responded to the request in the way required by clause 22B, can be dealt with under clause 9—Dispute resolution.

- (b) A reference to a spouse or de facto partner in the definition of family member in clause 26A.2(a) includes a former spouse or de facto partner.

26A.3 Entitlement to unpaid leave

An employee is entitled to 5 days' unpaid leave to deal with family and domestic violence, as follows:

- (a) the leave is available in full at the start of each 12 month period of the employee's employment; and
- (b) the leave does not accumulate from year to year; and

Note: The reasons for which an employee may take leave include making arrangements for their safety or the safety of a family member (including relocation), attending urgent court hearings, or accessing police services.

26A.5 Service and continuity

- (i) must be given to the employer as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started); and

An employee who has given their employer notice of the taking of leave under clause 26A must, if required by the employer, give the employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is taken for the purpose specified in clause 26A.4.

Note: Depending on the circumstances such evidence may include a document issued by the police service, a court or a family violence support service, or a statutory declaration.

Provided that:
- (a) The employer must designate one of the nine days off work as an accrued day off.
 - (b) For work performed on an accrued day off only and where there is no agreement to bank the accrued day off, an employee will be entitled to be paid overtime at the rate of double time for all time worked or double time and a half for all time worked on a public holiday (with a minimum payment of four hours), and the provisions of clause 27.2 will not apply.

- (b) The employee must give their employer notice of the taking of leave under clause X.2.1(a) and of the reason the employee requires the leave, as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started).
- (c) An employee who has given their employer notice of taking leave under clause X.2.1(a) must, if required by the employer, give the employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is taken for a reason given in clause X.2.1(a).
