

Compliance snapshot for registered organisations 2025

The Fair Work Commission (the Commission) helps registered organisations comply with the requirements of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act). The Registered Organisations Services Branch (ROSB) monitors their performance to inform priorities, services and other activities.

Below is a snapshot of compliance in the 2024–25 financial year. Registered organisations can use this data to understand their achievements and priorities and discover how they compare with other organisations during the 12-month period.

There are currently 91
registered organisations.

50 are employer organisations.
40 are employee organisations.
One is an enterprise association.

There are currently 267
reporting units.

There are 372 entities, which includes branches, divisions and national offices.

(Data in this section as at 30 September 2025).

2,112,797
members represented
(as at 31 December 2024).

2,987
documents were lodged with the ROSB.

Average timeframe to approve entry permits: 14 days

$1.8b in annual revenue reported.

Registered organisations control approximately $4b in assets.

100%
of annual returns were lodged on time.

160
election decisions.

20 days
On average, this is how long we took to issue an election decision.

85%
elections arranged within 4 weeks of lodgment.

99%
elections arranged within 8 weeks of lodgment.

75%

of financial reports were assessed as compliant for financial years ending in 2024.

99.7%

of Officer and Related Party (ORP) disclosure statements lodged on time.

34

education activities provided, including hosting four in-person events and two webinars.

96

total number of attendees recorded for our four in-person Registered Organisations Education and Support Program events.

24

registered organisations represented in the in-person events.

174

formal advice and assistances provided.

6

Governance to You packages delivered.

22

potential whistleblower disclosures were received.

1,561

courtesy letters were sent to registered organisations.

1,948

times episodes of our podcast RO pod: Talking about Governance of Registered Organisations were downloaded.

(30 September 2024 to 30 September 2025).

Most popular episode

Episode 57 – Developing an internal whistleblower policy

Connect with us to stay ahead of compliance:

Request a Governance to You visit

Subscribe to emails

