Subject: re: AM2014/286

Dear Associate to Vice-President Hatcher,

I refer to the Directions issued by the Full Bench on 31 March 2022 in matter AM2014/286 (Supported Employment Services Award), and in particular to paragraphs 2 and 6 of those Directions.

The parties referred to in paragraph 2 of the Directions intend to file evidence and a joint submission in this matter. However, unfortunately we have been unable to finalise the evidence of certain of our witnesses. We are of the view that it is preferable to file all of our evidence and a joint submission informed by that evidence together (as opposed to partially filing). As such, we seek a modest extension of time, such that the materials contemplated by paragraph 2 of the Directions would instead be due at 1600hrs on Friday 20 May 2022. We note that this would still leave a considerable period of time for the preparation of materials anticipated by paragraph 3 of the Directions.

Separately to this, it is my understanding (and I leave this to the AED to confirm) that the AED intends to file a submission and evidence relating to jurisdiction by 1600 today, as per the original programming.

Regards,

Sunil Kemppi
