3 - PREVIOUS AWARDS SUPERSEDED

This award supersedes all previous awards, agreements and orders made under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904 relating to employment in the industry covered by this award, but no right, obligation or liability accrued or incurred under such previous awards or orders shall be hereby affected.

4 - THE INDUSTRY

This award relates to the industry of persons employed in any capacity whether permanent or casual in hotels, taverns, wine saloons, wine and spirit merchants retailing to the general public and other retail licensed establishments, in or in connection with accommodation, with the selling of drinks, preparing and serving food and drinks, cleaning and attending to the premises and all other services associated therewith.

5 - AREA OF AWARD

This award shall apply in the States of Victoria, Tasmania, New South Wales (excluding the County of Yancowinna and the Australian Capital Territory) and in the South-Eastern Division of Queensland. The South-Eastern Division of Queensland shall comprise the district with the following boundaries:

Commencing at Point Danger, and bounded thence by the southern boundary of the State westerly to 151 degrees of east longitude; thence by that degree of longitude bearing true north to 24 degrees 30 minutes of south latitude; thence by that parallel of latitude bearing true east to the sea coast; and thence by the sea coast southerly to the point of commencement and all islands comprised in any State or Federal electorate in the South-Eastern Division of Queensland.

6 - PARTIES COVERED BY AWARD

This award shall be binding on:

- (a) The Federated Liquor and Allied Industries Employees Union of Australia, its officers (both Federal and State) and its members; and
- (b)
 - (i) the Australian Hotels Association, its officers (both Federal and State) and its members; and
 - (ii) the employers specified in Schedule "A" of this award; and
 - (iii) the companies specified in Schedule "A" in respect of establishments coming within clause 4 which are owned or operated by the said companies; and
 - (iv) the Proprietary Limited Hotel Companies Association, its officers and its members; and
 - (v) the employers who employ at any establishment specified in Schedule "A" employees who come within clause 4 of this award and who perform work of any classification set out in clause 17 of this award.

7 - SUB-CONTRACTS

(a) No employer shall permit any of the classes of work covered by this award to be carried on by a contractor or other person except in accordance with the terms and conditions of this award as if the contractor or other person were himself an employer and bound by this award.

(b) No employer shall enter into any contract for the carrying on of any of the classes of work covered by this award by any contractor unless the contract contains a clause binding the contractor to pay the rates and observe the conditions set out in this award in respect of the work contracted for and unless a clause is inserted in any such contract to the effect that the employer can determine the contract if there is any breach of the conditions above referred.

8 - DEFINITIONS

(a) "Bar attendant" shall mean any person usually employed for more than two hours in any one day or night in supplying or dispensing or mixing of liquor in any portion of the licensed premises including sale of liquor from the bottle department. Each day shall stand alone.

(b) "Cellarman" shall mean in a hotel any person employed in charge of, or responsible for the contents of a cellar or liquor store.

(c) "Assistant cellarman" shall mean in a hotel any employee who is substantially engaged as an assistant to the cellarman.

(d) "First cook" shall be a qualified cook (as defined by this clause) who is the senior cook permanently employed in charge of a kitchen where other cooks are employed at the same time.

(e) "Qualified cook" shall mean a cook who has successfully completed and can produce appropriate documentary evidence to his or her employer to the effect that he or she has successfully completed an apprenticeship in cooking at any approved or recognised school or college or who has passed an appropriate trade test in cooking at a recognised school or college acceptable to the employer.

(f) "Breakfast cook" shall mean a cook (other than a First cook, Qualified cook or Cook employed alone) who is responsible for the preparing of breakfasts.

(g) "Other cook" shall mean a cook who under direction assists in cooking and preparing meals served in a hotel.

(h) "Cook employed alone" means a cook employed in a kitchen where no other cook is employed.

(i) "Snack bar attendant" means an employee serving and/or receiving money from the public for such snacks or meals in or adjacent to a bar in a hotel.

(j) "Spread of hours" means the period of time elapsing from the time an employee commences duty to the time the employee ceases duty within any period of 24 hours.

(k) "Double time" shall mean double the ordinary hourly rate prescribed for a weekly employee.

(l) "Union" for the purpose of this award shall mean the Federated Liquor and Allied Industries Employees Union of Australia and branches thereof.

(m) "Qualified waiter or waitress" shall mean a waiter or waitress who has completed a full apprenticeship course in waiting.

(n) "Qualified butcher" shall mean a butcher who has completed a trade test at a recognised school or college acceptable to the employer.

9 - WEEKLY EMPLOYEES

(a) Except as hereinafter provided all employees (other than casual employees) shall be engaged by the week and shall be paid weekly.

(b) Employees engaged by the week by an employer shall not be engaged for casual work in the hotel in which they are permanently employed.

10 - NOTICE OF DISMISSAL

(a) Except as hereinafter provided all employees (other than casual employees) shall be engaged by the week and shall be paid weekly. Two days' notice for which the employee concerned shall receive payment shall be given by the employer or the employee to terminate employment or in lieu of such notice two days' wages shall be paid by the employer or forfeited by the employee.

(b) An employer may dismiss an employee without notice:

- (i) for neglect of duty or misconduct; or
- (ii) inefficiency within the first seven days.

Wages must be paid to time of dismissal in each instance.

(c) Subject to clause 31, an employee who fails without sound reason to notify the employer within one hour of the rostered commencing time of his inability to attend for duty on any day may be dismissed without notice.

(d) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, an employee shall not be given notice or dismissed, except for misconduct, whilst legitimately absent from duty on accrued sick leave or annual leave.

11 - STANDING DOWN OF EMPLOYEES

An employer may deduct payment for any day or part of a day on which an employee cannot be usefully employed for the following reasons:

- (i) a strike or stop-work meeting;
- (ii) a breakdown of machinery;
- (iii) rationing of power or the lack of fuel or transport;
- (iv) the non-delivery of the raw material and finished products in the Liquor Trades Industry;
- (v) any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible, but shall not apply to slackness of trade.

In respect of (i) to (v) above:

- (1) No employee shall be deemed to be a casual employee only by reason of being given intermittent work in pursuance of this clause.

11 - Standing down of employees - contd

- (2) At least four hours' notice of such deduction shall be exhibited where all employees concerned shall be able to see it.
- (3) Service is not to be considered broken merely because employees have been temporarily stood down through no fault of their own.
- (4) Continuity of service is to be protected for the purpose of annual leave, holidays and sick pay, as provided by this award.
- (5) Employees allowed or required to commence work at the usual starting time on any day shall be paid for at least four hours, and where they are called upon to attend for duty twice on any one day they shall be paid not less than a full day's pay.

12 - HOURS OF WORK

(a) The hours of all employees engaged on weekly hiring other than part-time employees in the front-of-the-house shall be 40 per week, eight hours per day or shift to be worked within a spread of nine and a half hours per day from starting time inclusive of meal breaks. Each employee shall be entitled to two full days off each week.

(b) The hours of all employees engaged on weekly hiring other than part-time employees in the back-of-the-house shall be 40 per week to be worked in five days or shifts of eight hours each exclusive of meal intervals within a spread of twelve hours from commencing time other than in the metropolitan licensing area of Sydney and the metropolitan areas of Melbourne and Hobart where the spread of ordinary hours worked shall be within eleven provided that the spread of hours shall be thirteen where it has been agreed between the union and the A.H.A. that special circumstances warrant consideration in relation to remote and/or resort areas.

Each employee shall be entitled to two full days off each week.

13 - ROSTER

A roster for all employees engaged on weekly hire showing normal starting and finishing time and the surname and initials of each employee shall be prepared by the employer and shall be posted in a conspicuous place or places accessible to the employees concerned. The roster shall be alterable by mutual consent at any time or by amendment of the roster on seven days' notice. Where practicable two weeks' notice of rostered day or days off shall be given provided that the days off may be changed by mutual consent or through absence through sickness or other cause over which the employer has no control.

14 - DAY OFF COINCIDING WITH PUBLIC HOLIDAY

Where an employee's rostered day or days off coincide with a holiday prescribed in this award, the holiday shall not be a holiday for such employee and the holiday shall be substituted in one of the methods following:

14 - Day off coinciding with public holiday - contd

- (i) one day with pay added to the annual leave;
- (ii) payment of one day's pay shall be made to the employee on the next succeeding pay-day;
- (iii) such holiday may be allowed off with pay to the employee within 28 days after such holiday falls;
- (iv) one of the above methods must be mutually agreed upon by the employee and the employer, failing such agreement the provision prescribed in paragraph (i) hereof shall apply.

15 - MEAL PERIODS

Each employee shall be granted a meal interval of not less than 30 minutes to be commenced after completing one hour thirty minutes and not later than five hours of duty. Provided that where it is not possible to grant the meal interval on any day, the said meal interval shall be treated as time worked and paid at the rate for the day plus half time additional at the ordinary weekly rate until released for a meal. Provided further that where an employee is required to exceed five hours' work after the first meal interval, he shall be granted a further meal interval of twenty minutes to be treated as time worked.

16 - MINIMUM WAGE - ADULTS

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 17 of this award an adult employee, whose weekly wage rate payable pursuant to the said clause 17 for ordinary hours of work together with overaward payments is less than the undermentioned amount appropriate to his or her geographical location, shall be paid in addition an allowance of such amount as will bring his or her rate of pay for such hours to the said appropriate amount for that week.

	Per week
New South Wales	146.10
Victoria	144.80
Tasmania	145.80
Queensland	142.10

(b) Where such an employee has been absent from duty in a week in circumstances entitling the employer to deduct payment for the time of non-attendance he or she shall be paid for the ordinary hours worked during such week at the rate of the said appropriate amount per week.

(c) Where an allowance as prescribed by subclause (a) of this clause is payable to an employee, payments during paid leave and for holidays prescribed by clause 30 of this award shall be calculated at the rate of the said appropriate amount per week.

(d) Calculations for overtime, penalty rates, shift work and other payments under the award shall be made at the rate prescribed by clause 17 of this award for the classification in which the employee is employed.

Note: The purpose of fixing the minimum wage at the amounts above set out is to ensure to each adult worker a minimum wage for a week's work performed in ordinary hours. The fixation of the minimum wage at the amounts mentioned does not give any reason for any change in award rates of pay which are below or above the appropriate minimum wage.

17 - WAGE RATES - ADULTS

(a) An adult employee of a classification specified in the table hereunder (other than an apprentice or an employee in respect of whom a certificate under section 48 of the Act is in force) shall be paid not less than the rate per week assigned to that classification for the area in which such employee is working.

- (i) If required to direct more than two employees - $6.30 per week extra.
- (ii) If required to direct 6 to 10 employees - $8.50 per week extra.
- (iii) If required to direct 11 to 20 employees - $9.80 per week extra.
- (iv) If required to direct more than 20 employees - $16.40 per week extra.

In-charge rates are part of the weekly rate for all purposes.

Office employees - special allowances

- (c) (i) An office employee, irrespective of age, who is required to have shorthand experience shall, as part of the weekly wage for all purposes, be paid:

17 - Wage rates - adults (c)(i) - contd

- (1) with shorthand qualifications of 80 w.p.m. - $3.20 per week extra;
 - (2) with shorthand qualifications of 100 w.p.m. - $6.40 per week extra.
- (ii) A machine operator, comptometer operator, ledger posting machine operator and/or punch card tabulator operator, irrespective of age, with three months' experience as such shall, as part of the weekly wage for all purposes, be paid an allowance of $3.20 per week extra.

Waiters and waitress allowance

(d) A waiter and/or waitress who has completed an accepted course (other than a full apprenticeship) shall be paid an allowance of $5.00 additional. Such allowance shall be part of the weekly rate for all purposes.

Home deliveries

- (e) (i) An employee (other than a cellarman) who is required to and makes home deliveries shall be paid an additional 70 cents per hour or part of an hour above his ordinary wage rate up to two hours. Provided where he makes deliveries in excess of two hours on any one day he shall be paid for the day at cellarman's rates only and in such case shall not be paid the $1.40 herein provided.
- (ii) Where an employee classified as a cellarman is required to and makes home deliveries he shall be paid an additional 70 cents per hour or part of an hour above his ordinary wage rate with the maximum of $1.40 in any one day.

18 - JUNIOR EMPLOYEES

Junior employees (other than office juniors)

(a) The minimum rate of wages for junior employees shall be the undermentioned percentages of the rates prescribed for the appropriate adult classification for the work performed for the area in which such junior is working.

Age	Per cent
17 years of age and under	70
18 years of age	80
19 years of age	90
20 years of age	Full adult rate

Junior office employee

(b) The minimum rates of wages for junior office employees shall be the undermentioned percentages of rates prescribed for the office employee 1st year of adult service in the clerical industry for the area in which such junior is working.

18 - Junior employees (b) - contd

At 16 years of age	60
At 17 years of age	70
At 18 years of age	80
At 19 years of age	90
At 20 years of age	1st year adult service

(c) The percentages prescribed in subclauses (a) and (b) of this clause shall be calculated as follows:

The total wage shall be calculated to the nearest ten cents any broken part of ten cents in the result being less than five cents shall be disregarded - five cents and over shall go to the higher ten cents.

(d) Junior male or female employees, on reaching the age of eighteen years, may be employed in the bar or other places where liquor is sold. Provided that where such junior is employed in the front of the house, the adult award rate for the work being performed shall be paid.

Back-of-house

(e) Junior employees may be employed in the back of the house in the proportion not exceeding one junior to every three or fraction of three adults employed therein and paid the junior rates prescribed in this award.

Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in this award where junior employees are employed in excess of one to every three or fraction of three adults in the back of the house each such additional junior shall be paid the adult award rate for the work being performed. In deciding which junior or juniors shall be paid the adult rate, the length of service in the establishment shall apply.

(f) An employer may at any time demand the production of a birth certificate or other satisfactory proof for the purpose of ascertaining the correct age of a junior employee. If a birth certificate is required, the cost of it shall be borne by the employer.

19 - APPRENTICES

(a) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in this award (other than in Tasmania) any awards and/or regulations made by any State Apprenticeship Commission shall apply to any section of the trade to which such awards and/or regulations are expressed to apply; provided that any apprentice employed pursuant thereto shall be deemed to be a junior for the purpose of computing the proportion of juniors who may be employed under this award.

(b) Where a training school is established by any hotel, company or a group of hotels, the training is given to young men and women in all phases of hotel operation and management, and such school is approved by the State Apprenticeship Authority as being a proper school of training, the rates applicable under the awards and/or regulations made by any State Apprenticeship Commission or Authority shall be applicable to such approved school.

(c) Any person completing a full apprenticeship for cooking shall not be paid less than a qualified cook as defined in clause 8 and not less than the rate prescribed in classification 10 of clause 17 of this award. The provisions of clause 18 of this award shall not apply to an employee provided for in this subclause.

Tasmania

- (d) (i) In Tasmania where an employee is apprenticed in the cooking trade in accordance with the provision of any state law and/or regulations made by the Apprenticeship Commission of Tasmania such employee shall be paid the percentage of the wage prescribed for a Qualified cook in clause 17 of this award as follows:

	Per cent
First year	50
Second year	65
Third year	80
Fourth year	90

- (ii) In Tasmania where an employee is apprenticed in the waiting trade in accordance with the provision of any state law and/or regulation made by the Apprenticeship Commission of Tasmania, such employee shall be paid the percentage of the wage prescribed for a qualified waiter/waitress in clause 17 of this award as follows:

	Per cent
First six months	62
Second six months	76
Third six months	76
Fourth six months	90
Fifth six months	90

- (iii) Any person completing a full apprenticeship as a qualified cook or qualified waiter/waitress as defined in clause 8 shall be paid not less than the rate prescribed in classifications 10 and 5 respectively of clause 17 of this award. The provisions of clause 18 of this award shall not apply to an employee provided for in this subclause.
- (iv) All percentages in subclause 19(d) shall be calculated to the nearest ten cents any broken part of ten cents in the result being less than five cents shall be disregarded - five cents and over shall go to the higher ten cents.

20 - OVERTIME AND PENALTY RATES

Overtime

(a) An employer may require any weekly employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and such employee shall work overtime in accordance with such requirements. To ensure that weekly employees are not deprived of the opportunity to work reasonable overtime, an employer shall so far as is practicable offer such employee the opportunity to work any overtime that may be required to meet fluctuations in his trade or other special circumstances, in preference to engaging casuals to supplement his normal labour force.

20 - Overtime and penalty rates (a) - contd

All time worked in excess of the hours and/or outside the spread of hours or outside the rostered hours prescribed in clauses 12 and 13 of this award shall be overtime and shall be paid for at the following rates:

- (i) Monday to Friday inclusive time and a half for the first two hours and double time for all work thereafter.
- (ii) Between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday double time for all time worked.
- (iii) Between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday double time for all time worked.
- (iv) All work performed on an employee's rostered day off double time with a minimum payment of four hours at the rate of double time. The four hour minimum shall not apply where the overtime is continuous from the previous day's duty.
- (v) Overtime on any day shall stand alone.
- (vi) If an employee is so long on overtime duty that he has not had ten hours' interval before his next regular starting time, he shall be allowed at least ten consecutive hours' interval without deduction of pay or shall be paid at overtime rates for all time of duty until he has had at least ten hours' interval.

Week-end penalty rates

- (b) (i) For all ordinary time worked between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday time and a half rates shall be paid.
- (ii) For all ordinary time worked between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday in back-of-the-house time and three-quarters shall be paid.
- (iii) For all ordinary time worked in the front of the house on a Sunday double time shall be paid, with a minimum of eight hours at the rate of double time.

Other penalty

(c) A weekly employee who is required to work any of his or her ordinary hours outside the hours of 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Monday to Friday inclusive shall be paid 72 cents per hour, or any part of an hour, for such time worked outside the said hours, with a minimum payment of $1.08 for any one day.

Broken periods of work

(d) A weekly employee in the back-of-the-house who has a broken work day shall receive an additional allowance for a spread of hours as prescribed in subclause 12(b) as follows:

20 - Overtime and penalty rates (d) - contd

Where the spread of hours is:	But is under:	Rate per day
Under 10	-	nil
10	10-1/2	$0.60
10-1/2	11-1/2	$1.21
11-1/2	12-1/2	$1.81
12-1/2 or more	-	$2.40

21 - PENALTY RATES NOT CUMULATIVE

Except as provided in clause 15, where time worked is required to be paid for at more than the ordinary rate such time shall not be subject to more than one penalty, but shall be subject to that penalty which is to the employee's greatest advantage.

22 - HIGHER AND LOWER GRADE WORK

(a) Except for subclause (a) bar attendant clause 8 - definitions - of this award, an employee engaged for two or more hours of one day on duties carrying a higher rate than his ordinary classification shall be paid the higher rate for such day. If for less than two hours he shall be paid the higher rate for the time so worked.

(b) A higher paid employee shall, when necessary, temporarily relieve a lower paid employee without loss of pay.

23 - CASUAL WORK

(a) "Casual employee" in this industry shall mean and be deemed to be any employee engaged as such to work for a lesser period than a working week of 40 hours on the class of employment for which the casual is employed.

(b) A casual employee shall be paid per hour at the rate of one fortieth of the weekly rate prescribed for the class of work performed, plus the appropriate undermentioned addition to that rate:

- (i) 25 per cent for work on Monday to Friday inclusive provided that for such work performed before 7.00 a.m. and/or after 7.00 p.m. an additional 72 cents per hour or any part of an hour shall be paid with a minimum daily payment of $1.08 and a maximum daily payment of $2.16;
- (ii) 75 per cent for work on Saturday;
- (iii) 100 per cent for work on Sunday;
- (iv) 150 per cent for work on holidays prescribed in the award.

(c) Casual work may, by mutual consent, be paid for weekly or at the termination of each engagement.

(d) "Engagement" for the purposes of this clause shall be deemed to mean the period or periods for which the employer notifies the employee that he or she is so required to attend on any one day. Provided that each period of engagement shall stand alone and shall be treated as an engagement of not less than two hours and paid for as such.

23 - Casual work - contd

(e) All fares in excess of 50 cents reasonably incurred by a casual employee in travelling from his residence to the place of work for the purpose of doing the work and/or in excess of 50 cents reasonably incurred in travelling from such place to his residence after doing the work in due course shall be paid by the employer.

(f) Casual employees who have been regularly employed as such in an establishment shall not be re-employed as weekly employees in that same establishment for a lesser period than one month.

24 - PART-TIME EMPLOYEES

Adults may be employed as part-time employees in any classification in this award on the basis as follows:

(a) Not less than four hours and not longer than six hours per day, not more than five days each week, and not less than twenty hours each week, nor in excess of 30 hours per week.

All time worked in excess of six hours per day, five days per week and/or 30 hours per week shall be overtime and paid for at the rates prescribed for other weekly employees in clause 20 of this award.

(b) The hours of duty each day shall be worked continuously. Provided that an employee who is required to work longer than five hours shall be granted a meal break of not less and not more than 30 minutes. The meal break shall not be counted as time worked. Where such meal break is not granted in a period of not longer than five hours of duty the penalty prescribed in clause 15 of this award shall be paid.

(c) (i) A part-time employee shall be paid per hour at the rate of one fortieth of the weekly rate prescribed for the class of work performed, plus 10 per cent.

(ii) The additional 10 per cent shall be regarded also as ordinary wages for the payment of annual leave, sick leave, and work not performed on a holiday.

(iii) For all ordinary time before 7 a.m. and/or after 7 p.m. on Monday to Friday inclusive 72 cents per hour or any part of an hour shall be paid plus the ten per cent herein prescribed with a minimum daily payment of $1.08.

(iv) The said additional 10 per cent shall not apply in addition to the rates prescribed for work on Saturday, Sunday, holidays, overtime or where double-time is prescribed in the award.

(d) The provisions of this award in respect of annual leave, sick leave and holidays shall apply on a pro rata to part-time employees.

(e) The provisions of clause 13 Roster and subclauses (a), (b) and (c) of clause 20 (overtime and penalty rates) of this award shall apply to part-time employees.

25 - BOARD AND LODGING

(a) Where board and residence is made available to adult employees the employer shall have the right to deduct from the pay of the employee residing on the premises an amount of $71.80 per week.

Provided that where an adult employee is required to share a room for lodging, the amount to be deducted from the pay of such employee for board and lodging shall be $71.20 per week.

(b) Where lodgings only are made available to adult employees, the employer shall have the right to deduct from the pay of the employee residing on the premises the sum of $66.70 per week.

Provided that where an adult employee is required to share a room for lodging, the amount to be deducted from the pay of such employee for lodging shall be $66.35 per week.

(c) (i) In the case of employees who do not reside on the employer's premises a deduction at the rate of $2.02 for each meal supplied and consumed during the employee's spread of working hours may be deducted by the employer in the working week during which the meal is consumed.

(ii) The rates for each meal supplied shall be increased or decreased by one cent for every 50 cents per week alteration at the rate of classification 26 in subclause 17(a).

(d) Where necessary, lodging rooms shall be fitted with adequate heating and cooling appliances.

(e) The rates for board and lodging for adults shall be increased or decreased by 20 cents for every 50 cents per week alteration in the rate for the classification person not otherwise provided for.

(f) Junior employees receiving adult rates of pay prescribed in this award shall be subject to the deductions applicable to adults prescribed in this clause.

(g) Junior employees receiving junior rates of pay shall be subject to a deduction at the rate of 50 cents for each meal supplied and consumed during the employee's spread of working hours.

(h) Junior employees receiving junior rates of pay shall be subject to a deduction for board and lodging on a percentage basis of the amount prescribed in subclauses (a) and (b), the percentages to apply as follows:

	Per cent
At 15 years of age and under	45
At 16 years of age	55
At 17 years of age	70
At 18 years of age	80
At 19 years of age	90

26 - MEAL MONEY

An employee required to work overtime for more than two hours without being notified on the previous day or earlier that he or she will be so required to work shall either be supplied with a meal by the employer or paid $3.97 meal money.

If an employee pursuant to notice has provided a meal and is not required to work overtime or is required to work less than the amount advised, he or she shall be paid as above prescribed for the meal which he or she has provided but which is surplus.

The rates of meal money as above prescribed shall be increased by one cent for every 50 cents per week alteration at the rate of classification 26 in subclause 17(a).

27 - TIME AND WAGES BOOK OR SHEETS

- (a) (i) Time and wages book or sheets shall be provided and kept by each employer. Each employee shall on commencing work each day, enter his or her starting time; and on finishing work each day enter his or her finishing time.
- (ii) The employer shall keep such time and wages book or sheets available at all reasonable times and in a convenient place to which the employee shall have access for the purpose of making such entries. Such book or sheets may be inspected by the officials of the Federated Liquor and Allied Industries Employees Union of Australia at all reasonable hours.
- (iii) The employer shall keep a record of the time worked and the amount of wages and overtime paid each week, together with the date of payment. The employee shall each pay day be given: details of his gross pay, taxation deductions and net pay.
- (iv) On the time and wages book or sheets that the employee completes he must enter his name, and age (if under 21 years); on the same time record the employer must enter the employee's work classification, whether permanent full-time, part-time or casual as well as the rate per week and hourly rate of pay. Any alteration made to the employee's time record must be initialled by the employee concerned and employer representative.
- (v) When broken or ordinary shifts are worked the employee shall enter in the time and wages book or sheets the time he or she goes off for each meal or break and the time of restarting work after each meal or break and the finishing time.
- (b) Time and wages book or sheets must be kept at the place of employment for at least six years.
- (c) Notwithstanding subclause (b) of this clause the requirement to keep such records is to be phased in from 12 July 1982 to 12 July 1987.

28 - PAYMENT OF WAGES

(a) Except upon the termination of employment all wages including overtime shall be paid on any day other than Friday, Saturday or Sunday in each week. Notwithstanding the foregoing by agreement between the union, the employer and the employee in a week where a holiday occurs payment of wages may be made on Friday.

(b) Employees who are paid their wages at any time other than during their working time, shall, if kept waiting more than fifteen minutes, be paid overtime rates for all such waiting time.

(c) Employees whose rostered day off falls on pay day shall be paid their wages, if they so desire, before going off duty on the working day prior to their day off.

(d) When notice of termination of employment has been given by an employee or an employee's services have been terminated by an employer, payment of all wages and other monies due shall be made at the employee's normal place of employment prior to the employee leaving such place of employment. If an employee is kept waiting for more than fifteen minutes after termination of employment such employees shall be paid overtime rates for waiting time.

Provided where an employee is dismissed for misconduct such employee shall be paid within 24 hours from the time of dismissal.

For the purpose of this subclause, waiting time shall mean all time an employee is kept waiting on the premises of the employer on the day of termination of employment in excess of the waiting time specified herein. In the event of an employee not being paid on the day of termination of employment, such employee shall be paid at the rate of time and a half until payment is effected, with a minimum payment of two hours and a maximum of eight hours per day. The above eight hours shall refer to the period of shift normally worked by the employee.

(e) At the time of payment of wages each employee not in receipt of taxation deduction stamps shall be issued with a statement showing gross wage, taxation deduction, net wage, and date to which payment is made.

29 - ANNUAL LEAVE

(a) Employees on weekly hiring who have been in the service of an employer for at least twelve months shall be granted 28 days' annual leave to be paid at the current rates prescribed in clause 17 of this award plus 17-1/2 per cent of such current rates. The period of annual leave itself shall be regarded as service in the second and subsequent years of employment. The 17-1/2 per cent shall apply on each completed year of service, due on or after 1 May 1975.

(b) The said annual leave shall be exclusive of the holidays prescribed in the award and if any such holiday falls within an employee's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which, in the case of that employee, would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to the period of annual leave time equivalent to the ordinary working time which the employee would have worked if such day had not been a holiday, or payment for such day may be made in lieu thereof.

29 - Annual leave - contd

(c) Where a holiday falls as aforesaid and the employee fails, without a reasonable cause, proof whereof shall be upon him to attend for work at his ordinary starting time on the working day immediately following the last day of the period of his annual leave, he shall not be entitled to be paid for such holiday.

(d) Annual leave shall be taken within a period of four months after the date on which it becomes due.

(e) At least fourteen days' notice of the date annual leave shall commence shall be given to each employee by the employer in writing.

(f) The annual leave provided for by this clause shall be allowed and shall be taken and except in the case of pro rata leave, and except as provided for in subclause (b) of this clause, payment shall not be made or accepted in lieu thereof.

Pro rata leave

(g) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve monthly period an employee leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by the employer, the employee shall be paid pro rata leave at the rate of one-twelfth of four weeks at award rates of pay for each completed month of continuous service with the employer, the service being service in respect of which leave has not been granted in accordance with this clause.

Successor, assignee or transmittee

(h) Where the employer is a successor or assignee or transmittee of a business and an employee was in the employment of the employer's predecessor at the time when he became such successor assignee or transmittee, the employee in respect of the period during which he was in the service of the predecessor shall for the purpose of this clause be deemed to be in the service of the employer, and such successor, assignee or transmittee shall be liable to the said employee for all annual leave and proportionate annual leave liability of the employer's predecessor.

30 - HOLIDAYS

(a) Weekly employees shall be entitled to the following holidays without loss of pay:

New South Wales	Victoria	Tasmania	Queensland
New Year's Day	New Year's Day	New Year's Day	New Year's Day
Australia Day	Australia Day	Australia Day	Australia Day
Good Friday	Good Friday	Good Friday	Good Friday

Union Picnic Day	Union Picnic Day	Union Picnic Day	Exhibition Day
Christmas Day	Christmas Day	Christmas Day	Christmas Day
Boxing Day	Boxing Day	Boxing Day	Boxing Day

30 - Holidays (a) - contd

or such other day as is generally observed in the locality as a substitute for any of the said days respectively:

In Southern Tasmania Union Picnic Day shall be observed on Regatta Day. For the purpose of this subclause Southern Tasmania includes Oatlands and all towns south of Oatlands but excluding areas excluded in the State Proclamation regarding this day.

In Northern Tasmania Union Picnic Day shall be observed on Recreation Day which is the 1st Monday in November of each year. For the purpose of this subclause Northern Tasmania includes all towns north of Oatlands.

An employee in the employ of one employer shall not be entitled to receive in any one calendar year both days as Union Picnic Day Holidays, but shall only be entitled to one of them.

(b) Provided that when an employee is absent from his or her employment only on one working day or part of a day before or after a holiday, except on account of illness or other legitimate reason, he or she shall not suffer loss of payment for more than one day of the holidays.

(c) Subject to clause 14 of this award all time worked by a weekly employee on a holiday herein prescribed shall be paid for at the rate of double time and one half for the hours worked, with a minimum of four hours' additional pay. Alternatively, weekly employees who work on a prescribed holiday may, by agreement, perform such work at ordinary rates plus half-time additional in that week provided that equivalent paid time is added to the employee's annual leave or one day in lieu of such public holiday shall be allowed to the employee during the week in which such holiday falls. Provided that such holiday may be allowed to the employees within 28 days of such holiday falling due.

(d) Where in a State or Territory or locality within a State or Territory an additional public holiday (other than Easter Saturday) is proclaimed or gazetted by the authority of the Commonwealth Government or of a State or Territory Government and such proclaimed or gazetted holiday is to be observed generally by persons throughout the State or Territory or a locality thereof, other than by those covered by Federal awards, or when such a proclaimed or gazetted day is, by any required judicial or administrative order, to be so observed, then such day shall be deemed to be a holiday for the purposes of this award, for employees covered by this award who are employed in the State, Territory or locality in respect of which the holiday has been proclaimed or ordered as required. (The insertion of this provision shall not of itself prejudice the right of the union to make application for variation of this award in respect to Easter Saturday).

31 - SICK LEAVE

(a) An employee, other than a casual, after one month's service with his/her employer, who is absent from work on account of personal illness, or on account of injury by accident arising in the course of his/her employment, shall be entitled to leave of absence subject to the following conditions and limitations:

- (i) The employee shall not be entitled to be paid for any absence for any period for which he/she is entitled to workers' compensation.

31 - Sick leave (a) - contd

- (ii) The employee shall within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence inform the employer of his/her inability to attend for duty and state the nature of the injury or personal illness and the estimated duration of absence.
- (iii) A claim made for sick leave shall be supported by evidence satisfactory to the employer (or in the event of a dispute to a Board of Reference) that he/she was unable on account of injury or personal illness to attend for duty on the day for which leave is claimed.
- (iv) Subject to the provisions of subclause (c) of this clause he/she shall not be entitled to leave for each year of service in excess of 80 hours of working time.
- (v) An employee shall not be entitled to paid leave in excess of sixteen hours during the first three calendar months of his/her employment with an employer and a further sixteen hours during the second three calendar months of such employment. Provided that should his/her employment continue beyond six months he/she shall be paid for the leave for which he/she would otherwise have been entitled to be paid except for the limitations prescribed in this paragraph and for which payment has not previously been made.

(b) An employer taking over a business shall be responsible for all sick leave covered by the period of employment of each employee who was employed by an immediate predecessor in the business.

(c) Sick leave which has not been taken by an employee during the immediately preceding nine years together with the allowance of the then current year render an employee entitled to a maximum of 800 hours sick leave in any one year. Provided that prior to 1 May 1973 sick leave entitlements accrued due and not taken shall accumulate at the rate of 40 hours per year. Provided further sick leave entitlements falling due and not taken between 1 May 1973 and 7 February 1979 shall accumulate at the rate of 48 hours for the first year of service and 64 hours for each year thereafter.

32 - BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

An employee on weekly hiring shall be entitled to a maximum of two days' leave without loss of pay on each occasion and on production of satisfactory evidence of the death in Australia of the employee's husband, wife, father, mother, brother, sister, child, de facto husband or wife. Provided that in the case of a death of a father or mother outside Australia such leave as hereinbefore provided shall apply.

33 - ACCIDENT PAY

From the commencement of this award should an employee meet with an accident at his or her place of employment and is subject to and qualifies for compensation under the Workers Compensation Act or Ordinance presently in force in the States and areas covered by this award such employees shall have the amount received by way of compensation increased by the employer to the amount of the usual award weekly rate ruling at the time of such accident. The payment made by the employer shall be limited to a maximum period of 26 weeks.

33 - Accident pay - contd

For the purpose of this clause "place of employment" to a weekly employee shall include on the way to work and on the way home from work.

For the purpose of this clause a casual employee "place of employment" shall include travelling directly from or to their place of employment.

Casual employees make-up pay shall be based on the number of hours worked per week over the last month, with present employer, or if less than one month the average for time worked. The amount to be paid as the normal weekly rate of pay only (i.e. time and one-quarter).

34 - EMPLOYEE'S DUTIES

(a) Any bar attendant or cellarman shall not be required to scrub or wash floors or tables; such work shall be performed by the useful.

(b) A female shall not be required to do any cleaning work in a public convenience for males during any period such convenience is open and/or accessible to the public on any premises covered by this award.

35 - AGED AND INFIRM WORKERS

Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the wage rates prescribed by this award, may be employed at a lesser rate agreed upon by the employer, the employee and the union, and in default of such agreement as fixed by the Board of Reference or the Industrial Registrar or his Deputy.

36 - BREAKAGES

An employee shall not charge a sum against nor deduct any sum from the wages of an employee in respect of breakages of crockery or other utensils except in the case of wilful misconduct.

37 - TRAVELLING FACILITIES

(a) Where an employee is detained at work until it is too late to travel by the last ordinary train, tram, vessel or other regular conveyance to his or her usual place of residence the employer shall either provide proper conveyance or provide accommodation for the night free of charge.

(b) If an employee is required to start work before his ordinary commencing time and before the first ordinary means of conveyance (hereinbefore prescribed) is available to convey him or her from his or her usual place of residence, the employer shall provide a conveyance or pay the cost thereof.

(c) Where a weekly employee is engaged for work outside a distance of 50 miles from the place of engagement he shall be paid all fares actually and necessarily incurred in travelling from the place of engagement to the place of employment; provided that if the employee leaves his or her place of employment or is dismissed for misconduct within a period of three months of the date of engagement, the employer may recover from the employee the fare paid on engagement.

38 - DRESSING ROOMS, SHOWERS, ETC.

(a) An employer shall provide a separate dressing room each for male and female employees, adequately lighted and ventilated with suitable floor coverings and floor space to be sufficiently roomy to accommodate all employees likely to use it at the one time; a table and adequate seating accommodation for staff to partake of meals, and a lounge or settee and steel or vermin-proof lockers; adjacent thereto wash basins and showers with hot and cold water and toilets for staff use.

(b) An employer who is unable to provide the facilities herein required for a hotel built before 1 January 1968 may make application to a Board of Reference for exemption from this clause. The Board of Reference may grant such an exemption on such terms and conditions as to suitable alternative accommodation as it deems fit, provided that any exemption granted shall not continue after any substantial building alterations are made to the hotel on or after 1 January 1968.

(c) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to wine saloons.

(d) The provisions of this clause shall not apply in the South-Eastern Division of Queensland.

Subject to the conditions set out in the report of the Board of Reference in matter C No. 2178 of 1966, the Albion Hotel-Motel, Cootamundra, New South Wales, is exempted from the provisions of subclause (a) of this clause.

Subject to the conditions set out in the report of the Board of Reference in matter C No. 1817 of 1967, the Post Office Hotel, Tamworth, New South Wales is exempted from the provisions of subclause (a) of this clause.

39 - FIRST AID OUTFIT

Every employer shall provide for the use of his employees in some accessible place in his establishment a first aid ambulance chest. The chest shall contain a suitable dust-proof receptacle made of either metal or wood and shall be equipped and supplied with the following articles, namely:

Article	Quantities to be kept in ambulance chest in establishments in which -

40 - SPECIAL CLOTHING

(a) Where the employer requires any special clothing such as coats, dresses, caps, aprons, cuffs and any other articles of clothing to be worn by the employee they shall be purchased and laundered at the employer's expense. By agreement the employee may be required to wash and iron the special clothing and an agreed sum of money shall be paid to the employee each week by the employer provided that in the event of dispute the amount shall be determined by the Board of Reference.

(b) Where it is necessary that waterproof or other protective clothing such as waterproof boots, aprons, or gloves be worn by an employee, such clothing shall be supplied without cost to the employee and shall remain the property of the employer. Provided that in the event of dispute, the necessity for the provision of protective clothing shall be determined by the Board of Reference.

41 - UNIFORM, TOOLS AND GEAR

(a) All aprons, towels, tools, ropes, brushes, knives, choppers, implements, utensils and materials shall be supplied by the employer without cost to the employee.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (a) of this clause where a cook employed on a weekly basis is required to provide his own tools an allowance of $4.00 per week shall be paid.

42 - POSTING OF AWARD

This award shall be exhibited by each employer on his premises in a place accessible to all employees.

43 - UNION OFFICIALS

The Secretary and accredited officials of the union shall have the right to enter the premises of an employer respondent at a time reasonably convenient to the employer for the purposes of interviewing members but such official shall obtain the permission of the employer before entering either the cellar or the back of the house.

44 - PREFERENCE OF EMPLOYMENT

Preference shall be given to all members of the union who apply for employment under this award, and retention in employment under this award in the event of retrenchment. Such preference shall be given in the following manner:

- (i) Where a member of the union applies for employment and is willing and able to perform work under this award in respect of which work the employer intends to engage a new employee, the employer shall engage such member of the union.
- (ii) Where the employer is aware that a member of the union is willing and able to continue to perform work under this award in respect of which work the employer intends to reduce the number of his existing employees by retrenchment, the employer shall retain in employment such member of the union in preference to persons who are not members of the union. Such preference shall be given subject to the following conditions:
 - (1) Nothing in this clause shall require an employee to engage or retain in employment any particular person who is, in the opinion of the employer, not able to perform the work efficiently.
 - (2) Nothing in this clause shall affect the right which an employer may have to dismiss summarily for misconduct or neglect of duty.

45 - DISPUTES

In the event of any matters arising which are likely to be the subject of a dispute between employers and employees covered by this award and/or their representatives the following procedure shall be adopted:

- (i) A joint discussion shall be held between representatives of the Australian Hotels Association and the Federated Liquor and Allied Industries Employees Union of Australia; or
- (ii) A joint discussion between representatives of the Federal Executive of the Australian Hotels Association and the Federal Executive of the Federated Liquor and Allied Industries Employees Union of Australia.
- (iii) If the matters are not finalised they shall be referred to either a Board of Reference or the Australian Conciliation and Arbitration Commission.

46 - BOARDS OF REFERENCE

(a) For the purpose of this award Boards of Reference are hereby constituted. They shall consist of one representative to be nominated by the union and one to be nominated by the respondent and one representative to be nominated by the Commission who shall be the Chairman.

(b) The functions of a Board of Reference shall be to settle disputes arising from this award and other matters specifically referred to it under the award or by the Commission.

(c) The Board shall meet as and when required and shall sit at such times and places as the Board may from time to time determine.

(d) The Board shall make its own rules of procedure and shall keep records of all matters referred for settlement and of the decisions thereon.

(e) Decisions of the Board may be reviewed and altered by the Commission on application of any party to this award. Provided that notice of application to review is given within seven days of the decision of the Board and an application is lodged with the Industrial Registrar for such review within 21 days. When an application is made to review a decision such decision shall not come into effect until the matter has been dealt with by the Commission.

(f) In the event of members of the Board failing to reach a unanimous decision in respect of any matter, the decision of the Chairman shall be the decision of the Board.

47 - STOP-WORK MEETING

One official stop-work meeting per year shall be allowed without loss of ordinary pay provided the conditions are observed as follows:

(a) At least fourteen days' notice of such meeting is given to each employer.

47 - Stop-work meeting - contd

(b) The period of the meeting shall be three hours as a maximum, the employees returning to duty by noon.

(c) Payment to be made for the period that the employee was rostered for duty.

(d) Such stop-work meetings to be held on weekdays, other than Thursday or Friday.

(e) Payment of wages shall be made only upon the employer being in receipt of satisfactory evidence of the employees attendance at the meeting.

48 - RESERVED MATTERS

Nothing in this award shall preclude the union from:

(a) Applying to vary clause 29 to extend the payment of annual leave loading on pro rata annual leave.

(b) Applying to extend the respyendency to the award to the reserved employers specified in Schedule "B".

49 - DURATION OF AWARD

This award shall operate from the beginning of the first pay period to commence on or after 1 September 1983 and shall remain in force until 31 October 1983.

50 - SEXUAL HARRASSMENT

(a) All employees are to be allowed to work in an environment free of sexual harassment.

(b) An employer shall not dismiss an employee on the grounds of refusal to dress in a manner which would cause that employee embarrassment.
