Subject: AM2018/26 - 4 yearly review of Social, Community, Home Care and Disability Services Industry Award 2010—FWC Statement of 23 April 2019

Good morning FWC

Jobs Australia is supportive of the proposal to conduct a survey of the sector as part of the review of the SCHADS award.

We note the concern raised by ASU regarding the distribution of employers among the current parties.

Jobs Australia estimates its membership includes over a thousand employers across Australia who are covered by the SCHADS Award.

About a quarter are in the disability sector, but the remainder are spread across all types of other social and community services sub-sectors.

Inclusion of Jobs Australia members in this survey should help address the concern raised by ASU in this matter.

I am presently on leave and apologise for the delay in forwarding this correspondence to the FWC.

Please contact me should there be any queries at all.

Regards
