- 1.4 Schedule G—Definitions sets out definitions that apply in this award.
- 1.5 Neither the making of this award nor the operation of any transitional arrangements is intended to result in a reduction in the take-home pay of employees covered by the award. On application by or on behalf of an employee who suffers a reduction in take-home pay as a result of the making of this award or the operation of any transitional arrangements, the Fair Work Commission may make any order it considers appropriate to remedy the situation.

2. The National Employment Standards and this award

- 2.2 Where this award refers to a condition of employment provided for in the NES, the NES definition applies.
- 2.3 The employer must ensure that copies of the award and the NES are available to all employees to whom they apply, either on a notice board which is conveniently located at or near the workplace or through accessible electronic means.

3. Coverage

- 3.1 This industry award covers employers in the labour market assistance industry throughout Australia and their employees in the classifications listed in Schedule A—Classification Definitions to the exclusion of any other modern award.
- 3.2 The labour market assistance industry means the provision of work placement, job searching, personal support, vocational training and related services in the welfare sector, delivered by arrangement or contract with federal and state governments, to assist persons seeking employment
- 3.3 The award does not cover employers and employees covered by the Supported Employment Services Award 2015.
- 3.4 This award covers any employer which supplies labour on an on-hire basis in the industry set out in clauses 3.1 and 3.2 in respect of on-hire employees in classifications covered by this award, and those on-hire employees, while engaged in the performance of work for a business in that industry. This subclause operates subject to the exclusions from coverage in this award.

- 3.5 This award covers employers which provide group training services for trainees engaged in the industry and/or parts of industry set out at clauses 3.1 and 3.2 and those trainees engaged by a group training service hosted by a company to perform work at a location where the activities described herein are being performed. This clause operates subject to the exclusions from coverage in this award.
- 3.6 This award does not cover:
- (a) employees excluded from award coverage by the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (the Act);
 - (b) employees who are covered by a modern enterprise award or an enterprise instrument (within the meaning of the Fair Work (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Act 2009 (Cth)), or employers in relation to those employees; or
 - (c) employees who are covered by a state reference public sector modern award or a state reference public sector transitional award (within the meaning of the Fair Work (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Act 2009 (Cth)), or employers in relation to those employees.
- 3.7 Where an employer is covered by more than one award, an employee of that employer is covered by the award classification which is most appropriate to the work performed by the employee and to the environment in which the employee normally performs the work.

The note below has been added and is not included in the current award. Parties are asked to confirm whether this note should remain in the award.

NOTE: Where there is no classification for a particular employee in this award it is possible that the employer and that employee are covered by an award with occupational coverage.

4. Award flexibility

- 4.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this award, an employer and an individual employee may agree to vary the application of certain terms of this award to meet the genuine individual needs of the employer and the individual employee. The terms the employer and the individual employee may agree to vary the application of, are those concerning:
- (a) arrangements for when work is performed;
 - (b) overtime rates;
 - (c) penalty rates;
 - (d) allowances; and
 - (e) leave loading.

- 4.2 The employer and the individual employee must have genuinely made the agreement without coercion or duress. An agreement under this clause can only be entered into after the individual employee has commenced employment with the employer.
- 4.3 The agreement between the employer and the individual employee must:
- (a) be confined to a variation in the application of one or more of the terms listed in clause 4.1; and
 - (b) result in the employee being better off overall at the time the agreement is made than the employee would have been if no individual flexibility agreement had been agreed to.
- 4.4 The agreement between the employer and the individual employee must also:
- (a) be in writing, name the parties to the agreement and be signed by the employer and the individual employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, the employee's parent or guardian;
 - (b) state each term of this award that the employer and the individual employee have agreed to vary;

 - (d) detail how the agreement results in the individual employee being better off overall in relation to the individual employee's terms and conditions of employment; and
 - (e) state the date the agreement commences to operate.
- 4.5 The employer must give the individual employee a copy of the agreement and keep the agreement as a time and wages record.
- 4.6 Except as provided in clause 4.4(a) the agreement must not require the approval or consent of a person other than the employer and the individual employee.
- 4.7 An employer seeking to enter into an agreement must provide a written proposal to the employee. Where the employee's understanding of written English is limited the employer must take measures, including translation into an appropriate language, to ensure the employee understands the proposal.
- 4.8 The agreement may be terminated:
- (a) by the employer or the individual employee giving 13 weeks' notice of termination, in writing, to the other party and the agreement ceasing to operate at the end of the notice period; or
 - (b) at any time, by written agreement between the employer and the individual employee.

NOTE: If any of the requirements of s.144\(4\), which are reflected in the requirements of this clause, are not met then the agreement may be terminated by either the employee or the employer, giving written notice of not more than 28 days (see s.145 of the Act).

- 4.9 The notice provisions in clause 4.8(a) only apply to an agreement entered into from the first full pay period commencing on or after 4 December 2013. An agreement entered into before that date may be terminated in accordance with clause 4.8(a), subject to four weeks' notice of termination.
- 4.10 The right to make an agreement pursuant to this clause is in addition to, and is not intended to otherwise affect, any provision for an agreement between an employer and an individual employee contained in any other term of this award.

5. Facilitative provisions

- 5.1 A facilitative provision provides that the standard approach in an award provision may be departed from by agreement between an employer and an individual employee, or an employer and the majority of employees in the enterprise or part of the enterprise concerned.

6.4 Part-time employment

Part-time employment provisions may be affected by AM2014/196

- (c) By mutual agreement between the employer and employee, a part-time employee may be paid a loading of 25% on their hourly rate and not have an entitlement to annual leave, personal/carer's leave or payment for public holidays. Such agreement will not alter the employee's status as a part-time employee.

6.5 Casual employees

Casual employment provisions may be affected by AM2014/197

- (a) A casual employee means an employee who is engaged intermittently by the hour for work of an unexpected or casual nature and does not include an employee who could properly be engaged as a full-time, part-time or sessional employee.
- (b) An employee engaged as a casual employee will be engaged for a minimum period of two consecutive hours per engagement.

(c) Casual loading

For each hour worked during the spread of ordinary hours in clause 8.2 a casual employee must be paid:

- (i) the minimum hourly rate; and
- (ii) a loading of 25% of the minimum hourly rate, for the classification in which they are employed.

- (d) Where a casual employee is employed outside of the ordinary spread of hours provided in clause 8—Ordinary hours of work, the hourly rate (exclusive of the 25% loading) will be increased by the penalty rates provided in clause 14—Overtime.

6.6 Sessional employees

- (b) A sessional employee will be engaged for a minimum of two consecutive hours in any one day.

- (ii) paying the employee one hour's preparation/associated non-teaching/training tasks for every three hours' teaching up to a maximum of five additional hours per week.

- (e) An employer who employs a sessional employee under the terms of clause 6.6(d)(i) will not be obliged to pay the preparation loading in respect of any period involving staff training or staff meetings.

- (f) Upon engagement, in addition to the requirements specified for contracts of employment provided in clause 6.1 of this award, the employer will provide written advice to the employee setting out the particular arrangements for preparation and associated non-teaching/training tasks which will apply in respect of the employee.

(g) Cancellation provisions

If a training course is cancelled and the employer no longer requires the services of a sessional employee engaged for the course, the employer will provide the sessional employee with two weeks' notice of termination or payment instead of notice equivalent to two weeks' pay (inclusive of preparation loading or preparation time).

- (b) The terms and conditions of such a package must not, when viewed objectively, be less favourable than the entitlements otherwise available under this award.

Part 3—Hours of Work

8. Ordinary hours of work

8.1 Ordinary hours of work

The ordinary hours of work will be no more than an average of 38 hours per week to be worked over 152 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 28 days and not exceeding 10 hours in any one day.

8.2 Spread of hours

Except in relation to an employee engaged and paid to work their ordinary hours in accordance with clause 15—Penalty rates for ordinary hours of work, ordinary hours are worked between 6.00 am and 8.00 pm, Monday to Friday.

8.3 Flexible hours—accrued days off option

(a) Accrued days/time off

An employer may offer and an employee may agree to work their ordinary hours, in accordance with the following arrangements:

- (i) Within each workplace there will be a written roster which provides full-time employees with at least two weeks' notice of the accrued days/time off in accordance with the working hours arrangements under this option.

Note to parties: this award doesn't state what "this option" is. AP772299CRV had arrangements for accrued days off (in clause 17.2.1 of the pre-reform award), but these provisions have not been included in the modern award. Should the options for how an employee may work ordinary hours be included in this award?

- (ii) Except in unforeseen circumstances, in any workplace where more than one employee is employed, accrued days/time off will be rostered in such a manner that the service will not be closed on any weekday on which the service would normally be open.
- (iii) Accrued days/time off will be taken in accordance with the roster. However, on the initiative of either the employer or the employee, and by agreement between the employer and the employee, or in exceptional or emergency situations, such time off may be deferred, in which case it must be taken off as soon as possible thereafter.
- (iv) Where possible, an accrued day off will be taken in conjunction with normal weekend days off.

(b) Accrued days off falling on public holidays

Where an employee's accrued day off falls on a public holiday, another day will be determined by mutual agreement of the employee and the employer to be taken instead. This must be taken within the same or next four weekly work cycle.

8.4 Hours of work—flexible working hours option

(a) Flexible working hours option—limitations

Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 8—Ordinary hours of work, an employer may offer and an employee may agree to accept to work flexible working hours (flexitime). Such agreement will be recorded and signed by the employee and employer and filed with the relevant wage and time records.

(b) Definitions

- (i) Flexible working hours (flexitime) means a system which allows employees to set their own patterns of attendance at work subject to the provisions of this award and the requirements of the workplace.
- (ii) Standard day means seven hours and 36 minutes per day worked in a continuous shift at any time within a designated 12 hour spread of hours between 6.00 am and 8.00 pm Monday to Friday.
- (iii) Bandwidth means the spread of any time on any day within which an employee may work as part of a flexible working hours arrangement subject to this award, and unless otherwise agreed in a workplace, will commence at 8.00 am and will conclude at 6.00 pm, Monday to Friday.

- (iv) Core time means the period during the day when all employees will perform ordinary duty unless absent upon approved leave or core time leave. Unless otherwise agreed in a workplace, core time will be between the hours of 9.30 am and 12 noon and between 2.00 pm and 4.30 pm.
- (v) Core time leave means any approved absence during core time other than approved leave.
- (vi) Approved leave means any leave of absence other than core time approved by the employer.
- (vii) Flex credit means the accumulated amount of time worked by an employee in excess of the standard days in the settlement period, including any carry-over, provided that any such time worked as overtime will not be taken into account.
- (viii) Flex debit means the difference between the sum of the standard days in a settlement period and the aggregate amount of time worked by an employee where the total time worked is less than the sum of the standard days in the settlement period after any necessary adjustment has been made for an absence of approved paid leave and includes any carry over.

Parties are asked to comment on whether the reference to “approved paid leave” in clause 8.4(b)(viii) should instead be to “approved leave” to be consistent with the defined term “approved leave” above?

- (ix) Carry over means the aggregate of flex credit or flex debit which an employee has accumulated during a settlement period which, subject to this award, the employee may carry over to the next settlement period.
- (x) Settlement period means the ordinary working days over which calculations are made to determine flex credit or flex debit carry over and will be a fixed period of 10 working days aligned with the fortnightly pay period operating in the workplace.
- (c) Under flexitime, the times of commencement and cessation of duty will be subject to agreement between the employer and the employee.
- (d) An employee’s attendance outside the hours of a standard day will be subject to the availability of work and the approval, which may be general or specific, of the employer.
- (e) Where it is reasonable to do so because an employee has failed to comply with the provisions of flexitime, an employer may for a specified period require that an employee will revert to working an average 38 hour week prescribed in clause 8.1.

8.5 Nothing in this clause prevents other mutually agreed methods of working flexible hours from applying in accordance with clause 8.1.

9. Breaks

9.1 Unpaid meal breaks

An employee will not work more than five hours without being entitled to an unpaid meal break of between 30 and 60 minutes.

9.2 Paid rest breaks

12.1 For the purpose of this clause, the following definitions will apply:

- (a) Accident pay means a weekly payment made to an employee by the employer that is the difference between the weekly amount of compensation paid, or required to be paid to an employee pursuant to the applicable workers' compensation legislation and the employee's ordinary rate of pay (not including over award payments, shift loadings or overtime).
- (b) Injury will be given the same meaning and application as applying under the applicable workers' compensation legislation covering the employer.

12.3 Calculation of the period of accident pay

- (a) The 39 week period commences from the first day of incapacity for work, which may be subsequent to the date of injury. In the event of more than one absence arising from one injury, such absences are to be cumulative in the assessment of the 39 week period.

- (e) Industrial diseases contracted by a gradual process or injuries subject to recurrence, aggravation or acceleration shall not be subject to the accident pay unless the employee has been employed with the employer at the time of the incapacity for a minimum period of one month.
- (f) Where an employee receives a weekly payment under this section and subsequently such payment is reduced pursuant to the applicable workers' compensation legislation, such reduction will not render the employer liable to increase the amount of accident pay in respect of that injury.

12.5 Return to work

If an employee entitled to accident pay under this clause returns to work on reduced hours or modified duties, the amount of accident pay due will be reduced by any amounts paid for the performance of such work.

12.6 Redemptions

In the event that an employee receives a lump sum payment in lieu of weekly payments under the applicable workers compensation legislation, the liability of the employer to pay accident pay as herein provided will cease from the date the employee receives that payment.

12.7 Casual employees

For a casual employee, the weekly payment referred to in clause 18.1(a) will be calculated using the employee's average weekly ordinary hours with the employer over the previous 12 months or, if the employee has been employed for less than 12 months by the employer, the employee's average weekly ordinary hours over the period of employment with the employer. The weekly payment will include casual loading but will not include over award payments.

12.8 Other

This clause does not operate to diminish an employee's entitlement to compensation payments under the applicable workers' compensation legislation.

13. Superannuation

13.1 Superannuation legislation

- (a) Superannuation legislation, including the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cth) and the Superannuation (Resolution of Complaints) Act 1993 (Cth), deals with the superannuation rights and obligations of employers and employees. Under superannuation legislation individual employees generally have the opportunity to choose their own superannuation fund. If an employee does not choose a superannuation fund, any superannuation fund nominated in the award covering the employee applies.

- (b) The rights and obligations in these clauses supplement those in superannuation legislation.

13.2 Employer contributions

An employer must make such superannuation contributions to a superannuation fund for the benefit of an employee as will avoid the employer being required to pay the superannuation guarantee charge under superannuation legislation with respect to that employee.

13.3 Voluntary employee contributions

- (a) Subject to the governing rules of the relevant superannuation fund, an employee may, in writing, authorise their employer to pay on behalf of the employee a specified amount from the post-taxation wages of the employee into the same superannuation fund as the employer makes the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 13.2.
- (b) An employee may adjust the amount the employee has authorised their employer to pay from the wages of the employee from the first of the month following the giving of three months' written notice to their employer.
- (c) The employer must pay the amount authorised under clauses 13.3(a) or (b) no later than 28 days after the end of the month in which the deduction authorised under clauses 13.3(a) or (b) was made.

13.4 Superannuation fund

Unless, to comply with superannuation legislation, the employer is required to make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 13.2 to another superannuation fund that is chosen by the employee, the employer must make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 13.2 and pay the amount authorised under clauses 13.3(a) or (b) to one of the following superannuation funds or its successor:

- (a) any superannuation fund to which the employer was making superannuation contributions for the benefit of its employees before 12 September 2008, provided the superannuation fund is an eligible choice fund and is a fund that offers a MySuper product or is an exempt public sector superannuation scheme; or
- (b) a superannuation fund or scheme which the employee is a defined benefit member of.

13.5 Absence from work

Subject to the governing rules of the relevant superannuation fund, the employer must also make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 13.2 and pay the amount authorised under clauses 13.3(a) or (b):

- (a) Paid leave—while the employee is on any paid leave;

- (b) Work-related injury or illness—for the period of absence from work (subject to a maximum of 52 weeks) of the employee due to work-related injury or work-related illness provided that:
 - (i) the employee is receiving workers compensation payments or is receiving regular payments directly from the employer in accordance with the statutory requirements; and
 - (ii) the employee remains employed by the employer.

Part 5—Penalties and Overtime

A full-time employee will be entitled to overtime where the employee works more than 152 hours in any 28 day period or where the employee works outside of the spread of ordinary hours provided for in clause 8.2.

- (c) Part-time employees

- (i) A part-time employee will be entitled to overtime where they work in excess of their prescribed hours of duty.
- (ii) Overtime will not be paid where the employer and employee have agreed to a temporary variation of working hours in which case overtime will apply for work in excess of the mutually agreed varied working hours.
- (iii) A part-time employee will be entitled to overtime if they work in excess of 38 hours in any one week or greater than 10 hours in any one day.

Clause 14.1(c)(iii) has been amended to correct a typographical error. It now reflects the provisions of AP772299CRV and reads “38 hours in any one week or greater than 10 hours in any one day” rather than “on greater than 10 hours in any one day” (emphasis added). Parties are invited to comment on this amendment.

- (d) Casual employees

A casual employee will be entitled to overtime if they work in excess of 38 hours in any one week or more than 10 hours in any one day.

14.2 Overtime rates

- (a) Monday to Saturday

An employee who is required to work overtime Monday to Saturday will be paid at the rate of 150% of the minimum hourly rate for the first two hours-and 200% of the minimum hourly rate after two hours.

- (i) 250% of the minimum hourly rate for work performed during ordinary hours of work; and/or

14.3 Time off instead of paid overtime

This provision may be affected by AM2014/300 – see draft determination

- (a) Where there is agreement between the employer and employee, time off instead of paid overtime may be taken at the appropriate penalty equivalent.
- (b) Such agreement may be discontinued by mutual consent of both parties or at the request of one party.
- (c) By mutual agreement, where an employee has accumulated time off instead of paid overtime the employee may take the time off in conjunction with annual leave. In such circumstances the time off instead of paid overtime will not attract the annual leave loading.
- (d) If accumulated time off instead of paid overtime has not been taken within two pay periods and there is no agreement in accordance with clause 14.3(a), payment for the overtime worked will be made in the next pay period, unless otherwise agreed between the employer and the employee.
- (e) Time off instead of paid overtime will be calculated by converting to time the amount of overtime worked together with the amount in time of the applicable overtime penalty.
- (f) No employee will be entitled to paid overtime or to time off instead of paid overtime for a meal break not taken by the employee unless the employee was the only staff member on duty at the workplace at that time.

14.4 Rest period after overtime

- (a) When overtime is worked it will, wherever reasonably practicable, be arranged so that employees have at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between work on successive shifts.
- (b) An employee who, because of overtime worked after the end of their rostered ordinary hours, does not receive 10 hours off work between the end of the overtime and the start of their next rostered period of ordinary hours, must:

- (i) be released from work, after the end of the overtime, until they have had at least 10 consecutive hours off work without loss of pay for ordinary hours; or
- (ii) if instructed by the employer to resume work, be paid at 200% of the minimum hourly rate until they are released from work for 10 consecutive hours, without loss of pay for ordinary hours.

14.5 Recall to work overtime

- (a) An employee recalled to work overtime after leaving the employer's business premises (whether notified before or after leaving the premises) will be paid for a minimum of four hours' work at the appropriate rate for each time they are recalled or be granted equivalent time off instead of payment for overtime in accordance with clause 14.3.
- (b) Except in the case of unforeseen circumstances, the employee will not be required to work the full four hours if the job they were recalled to perform is completed within a shorter period.

15. Penalty rates

15.1 An employee will receive the following payment for working any of their ordinary hours outside the normal spread of hours provided in clause 8.2:

- (a) 120% of the minimum hourly rate for work performed between 8.00 pm and midnight Monday to Friday inclusive;
- (b) 135% of the minimum hourly rate for work performed between the hours of midnight and 6.00 am from Sunday to Friday inclusive;
- (c) 175% of the minimum hourly rate for work performed between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday; and
- (d) 200% of the minimum hourly rate for work performed between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday.

15.2 An employee will be rostered so as to provide two consecutive days off in any seven day period.

15.3 An employee required to work on Sunday as part of their ordinary hours of duty will be provided with a minimum of two hours ordinary time on each occasion so engaged.

15.4 By mutual agreement, employees who work on Sunday may take the equivalent time off instead of payment of the loading.

15.5 The loadings payable in clause 15.1 will be in substitution of and not cumulative on overtime and time off instead of paid overtime as provided for in clauses 14.2 and 14.3.

- (b) An employer and an individual employee may agree to substitute a public holiday specified in the NES for the National Aboriginal and Islander Day of Celebration (NAIDOC), without loss of pay, on the day it is celebrated in the state in which the employee is employed. - 21.4 Approval of all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander ceremonial leave will be subject to the employer's convenience and will not unreasonably affect the operation of the work concerned but will not be unreasonably withheld.

22. Termination of employment

- 22.1 Notice of termination is provided for in the NES.

22.2 Notice of termination by an employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of an employer except that there is no requirement on the employee to give additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned. If an employee fails to give the required notice the employer may withhold from any monies due to the employee on termination under this award or the NES, an amount not exceeding the amount the employee would have been paid under this award in respect of the period of notice required by this clause less any period of notice actually given by the employee.

23.3 Employee leaving during notice period

An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to payment instead of notice.

23.4 Job search entitlement

- (a) An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (b) If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee must, at the request of the employer, produce proof of attendance at an interview or they will not be entitled to payment for the time absent. 24.2 Consultation about changes to rosters or hours of work

- (a) Where an employer proposes to change an employee's regular roster or ordinary hours of work, the employer must consult with the employee or employees affected and their representatives, if any, about the proposed change.

- 25.2 If a dispute about a matter arising under this award or a dispute in relation to the NES is unable to be resolved at the workplace, and all appropriate steps under clause 25.1 have been taken, a party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the Fair Work Commission.
