Dear Ms Leggett,

Re: Application by United Voice and AEU (C2013/5139) – Equal Remuneration Case

We refer to the above matter and to the Pay Equity Unit research roundtable meeting to be held on 5 February 2014.

We advise that the Applicants nominate, on a provisional basis, the following occupations and/or industries as comparatives for the purpose of the Application:

1. aircraft maintenance engineers (licensed and unlicensed);
2. workers in the electrical supply and distribution industry;
3. workers in the electrical contracting industry;
4. workers falling within the classification set out in Manufacturing and Associated Industries and Occupations Award 2010;
5. general staff employed at a university or higher education facility;
6. primary school teachers in the private and public sector; and
7. staff employed by CSIRO.

We confirm that these comparatives have been provided on a provisional basis and that the Applicants reserve their rights to advise the abovementioned list pending the Full Bench's Decision on the legal and conceptual framework applying to equal remuneration order.

If you have any questions in relation to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact the writer.

Yours faithfully
