ACT PUBLIC SERVICE ACT FIRE AND RESCUE ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT 2011-2013

State and Territory government administration

COMMISSIONER DEEGAN CANBERRA, 4 OCTOBER 2012

Application for approval of the ACT Public Service ACT Fire and Rescue Enterprise Agreement 2011-2013.

[1] An application has been made for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the ACT Public Service ACT Fire and Rescue Enterprise Agreement 2011-2013 (the Agreement). The application was made pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (the Act) by the ACT Government as represented by the Justice and Community Safety Directorate. The Agreement is a single-enterprise agreement.

[2] I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss.186, 187 and 188 of the Act, as are relevant to this application for approval, have been met.

[3] The United Firefighters’ Union of Australia being a bargaining representative for the Agreement has given notice under s.183 of the Act that they want the Agreement to cover them. In accordance with s.201(2) of the Act, I note that the Agreement covers the organisation.

[4] The Agreement is approved and, in accordance with s.54 of the Act, will operate from 11 October 2012. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 30 June 2013.

OPERATION OF THE AGREEMENT

Section A - Technical Matters

1. Title
1.1 This Agreement made under Section 172(2)(a) of the Fair Work Act 2009 (FW Act) will be known as the ACT Public Service ACT Fire & Rescue Enterprise Agreement 2011 - 2013.

2. Application and coverage
2.1 This Agreement applies to and covers:
(a) the Head of Service of the ACT Public Service on behalf of the Australian Capital Territory;
(b) all employees of the ACT Fire & Rescue who are employed in classifications contained in Annex A of this Agreement.

3. This Agreement covers
3.1 The United Firefighters Union of Australia, ACT Branch (UFU), subject to FWA noting in its decision to approve this Agreement that it covers this union.

4. Commencement and Duration
4.1 This Agreement will commence operation seven days after it is approved by FWA.
4.2 The nominal expiry date of this Agreement will be 30 June 2013.

5. Operation of Agreement
5.1 This Agreement is comprehensive and provides the terms and conditions of employment of the employees covered by this Agreement other than terms and conditions applying under other applicable legislation.
5.2 This includes:
(a) Fair Work Act 2009 (Cwth) (FW Act);
(b) Public Sector Management Act 1994 (ACT) (PSM Act);
(c) Public Sector Management Standards (PSM Standards);
(d) Work Safety Act 2008 (ACT); and
(e) Holidays Act 1958 (ACT) (Holidays Act).
(f) Territory Records Act 2002 (ACT) (RR Act; and
(g) Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988 (Cwth) (SRC Act).

5.3 This Agreement constitutes a closed agreement in settlement of all claims for its duration. Therefore during the life of this Agreement, there will be no further claims that affect the provisions of this Agreement, except where this is consistent with the terms of this Agreement.

5.4 This Agreement prevails over ACT legislation including the Emergencies Act 2004, the PSM Act 1994 and the PSM Standards and relevant policy statements and guidelines to the extent of any inconsistency.

5.5 To maintain the integrity of the agreement, the Employer and the UFU, agree to consult when an event occurs that makes a clause of this Agreement unenforceable or undermines the operation of a clause in this Agreement or otherwise changes the intent of this agreement.
6. Agreement Availability
6.1 Copies of this Agreement will be made available, in paper or electronic form, to employees covered by this Agreement.

7. Authority of the Head of Service
7.1 The Head of Service may in writing delegate any power or function that the Head of Service has under this Agreement to another person or position within the ACT Public Service, subject to directions, except for this power of delegation.

7.2 This does not limit the power of the Head of Service to authorise a person to act for and on the Head of Service’s behalf.

7.3 Only Directors-General may, in writing, sub-delegate a power or function delegated to them by the Head of Service.

7.4 To avoid doubt, in this agreement reference to the employer or the Head of Service may be taken to mean delegate where the Head of Service has delegated the particular power or function under clause 7.1.

8. Variation to Agreement
8.1 This Agreement may be varied in accordance with the FW Act.

9. Termination of Agreement
The Directorate and the union(s) covered by this Agreement agree that the maintenance of, and adherence to, agreed terms and conditions of employment is a key component of good workplace relations and a dispute free workplace. They therefore agree that they will not exercise their right to terminate this Agreement under section 225 of the FW Act.

10. Application of the PSM Act and PSM Standards
10.1 The following parts of the PSM Act, as numbered at the commencement of this agreement, will not apply to the Fire & Rescue and to the employees of the ACT Fire & Rescue:

Part 5 Employment in the Service

(a) Division 5.3 Appointment of Officers
(b) Division 5.4 Engagement of Executives
(c) Division 5.5 Promotions and Transfers of Officers
(d) Division 5.6 Temporary Performance of Duties excluding sections 99 (Definitions) and 100 (Directions to act);
(e) Division 5.8 Miscellaneous; excluding the following sections:

i. 117 – Reappointment of retired officers
ii. 118 - Reappointment of unsuccessful election candidates;
iii. 119 - Unattached officers; and
iv. 120 - Arrangements with other governments and bodies for provision or services by employees to the Territory);
v. 121 – Arrangements with other governments for provision of services by officers and employees of service.
10.2 Only the following parts of the Public Sector Management Standards, as numbered at the date of effect of this agreement as per clause 4, will apply to ACT Fire & Rescue and to the employees of ACT Fire & Rescue:

(a) Chapter 2 Ethics
(b) Chapter 3 Employment in the ACT Public Service
   i Sections 65-75
(c) Chapter 4 Conditions of employment and attendance

10.3 For the purposes of clause 9:
(a) references in the PSM Act and the Standards to officers will be read as employees of ACT Fire & Rescue.
WORKING IN ACT FIRE & RESCUE

Section B - Employment

11. Principles
11.1 Under the Emergencies Act 2004, the Chief Officer is responsible for the general management and control of ACT Fire & Rescue and matters relating to the professional and technical expertise of ACT Fire & Rescue.

12. Types of Employment
12.1 A person will be engaged under the PSM Act in one of the following categories:

(a) Permanent employment on a full-time basis, including appointment with or without probation.
(b) Employees may convert to part time employment, subject to the conditions in Section J.

13. Appointments
13.1 The employer will, in writing, appoint such officers and firefighters as the employer thinks necessary for the efficient operation of the Brigade subject to clause 145.

14. Notice of Engagement
14.1 At the time of appointment or engagement the employer will inform each person in writing of the terms of their employment, including:

(a) The type of employment;
(b) Whether a probationary period applies and the expected duration of the period;
(c) The ordinary weekly hours;
(d) The ordinary weekly hours before overtime is payable; and
(e) A list of the main instruments governing the terms and conditions of their employment.

15. Notice of Termination
15.1 Where a person’s employment is terminated at the initiative of the employer, written notice of termination will be provided in accordance with the FW Act.

15.2 Where an employee terminates their employment they will provide written notice at least two weeks prior to the proposed date of termination.

15.3 The period of notice required in 15.2 may be reduced on written agreement between the employee and the employer.
Section C - Probation

16. Appointment on Probation

16.1 A person appointed to ACT fire and rescue as an FB1 will be on probation for the period of their initial training and a further period of three months after successful completion of their initial training.

16.2 A person appointed to other FB levels (lateral appointment) will be on probation for the term of their induction training and a further period of three months after successful completion of their induction training.

16.3 The employer will inform the person in writing of the period of probation at the time of the offer of employment.

16.4 The employer will inform the person in writing of the criteria and objectives to be met for successful completion of the probation period.

16.5 Probation is a supportive process for the new employee during which mutual evaluation and decisions about long term suitability can be made.

16.6 Before the end of the probation period, the employer will:

(a) where the employee’s conduct and service have been satisfactory, confirm the appointment in writing; or
(b) in any other case, terminate in writing the appointment, or extend the probation for a period, not exceeding 3 months, which the employer deems reasonable.

16.7 Where the employer extends the probation period, the employer may confirm or terminate the employment of the probationer at any time during that further period.

16.8 Where the employment of a probationer is terminated, the employer will provide the probationer with written reasons for the termination.

16.9 During recruit and induction training all employees will be subject to regular assessment and evaluation. Unsatisfactory progress may result in the termination of employment.

16.10 A decision by the employer to terminate the employment of a probationer is excluded from the Internal Review Procedures and Appeal Mechanisms of this Agreement.

16.11 An employee on probation may seek a review of their probation Section Q of this Agreement, Internal Review Procedures, except in relation to a decision to terminate their employment.
Section D - Selection and Advancement

17. Selection methods for new employees
17.1 The Employer will appoint by:

(a) Lateral recruitment of firefighters from recognised urban fire and rescue services; and/or,
(b) Community Based Recruitment.

18. Common principles for the recruitment.
18.1 The common principles for all recruitment processes are to select employees who are medically, physically and psychologically resilient and capable of safely and effectively performing duties as operational firefighters.

18.2 Persons appointed to ACT Fire & Rescue should possess the literacy, numeracy, cognitive and communication abilities to operate safely and effectively as a member of a firefighting team in operational situations.

18.3 Applicants will undergo employment history and criminal history checks.

18.4 In order to achieve the principles at 18.1, 18.2 and 18.3, employees will be assessed for suitability in those qualities.

18.5 The common features of all recruitment processes for appointment to ACT Fire & Rescue are:

(a) Publicly advertised process;
(b) Selection process agreed between the UFU and employer prior to advertising;
(c) Selection criteria agreed between the employer and the UFU prior to advertising; and
(d) Assessments to determine suitability for appointment.

18.6 The employer and the UFU will consult and agree to a standardised system of selecting persons for appointment to the brigade.

19. Lateral recruitment process
19.1 Lateral recruitment will include the following components:

(a) Testing of applicants against core competencies;
(b) Lateral appointments will be given comprehensive induction training to ensure familiarity with all Brigade equipment, policies, practices and operating procedures prior to commencement of operational duties.

19.2 Successful lateral applicants may be appointed as firefighters up to and including FB5 subject to recognition of qualifications and experience.

19.3 Decisions relating to the advancement of employees under clause 19.2 may be reviewed in accordance with Section R- Internal Review Procedures.

20. Community recruitment process
20.1 Community based recruitment will include the following components:

(a) Team dynamics evaluation;
(b) Assessments of suitability for employment
(c) Behavioural interviewing.

20.2 Successful community applicants will be appointed on probation as firefighters and undertake recruit training that includes, but is not limited to, the learning outcomes of the competencies for FB 1 at Annex E.

21. Procedure for advancement within Firefighter ranks (FB 1-5)

21.1 Eligibility for advancement is on the basis of:

(a) Successful completion of the relevant period of service shown at Annex A;
(b) Assessment of competency in the skills for the classification; and
(c) Completion of relevant qualifications shown at Annex E

22. Promotion to and within Officer Classifications FB 6 to FB 8.

22.1 Eligibility for promotion to FB 6 and above is subject to:

(a) Completion of the relevant period of service shown at Annex A; and
(b) Completion of the qualifications for the classification at Annex E; and
(c) Satisfying any criteria determined under clause 27, and
(d) Merit as determined by a Selection Committee, and
(e) A vacancy at the classification applied for within the merit life span.

22.2 Where training courses are required for promotion to the next rank, entry to the training course is based on eligibility, completion of relevant pre-requisite learning and merit as decided by a Selection Committee.

22.3 A promotion under this clause:

(a) Will be notified in the Gazette by the Head of Service; and
(b) If made on the recommendations of a Joint Selection Committee is not subject to appeal; and
(c) Takes effect on the date of its notification in the Gazette.

23. Selection Committees for promotion.

23.1 A selection committee will be formed to select employees for promotion to the classifications of FB 6, FB 7 and FB 8. The will determine whether the selection committee will be:

(a) A Selection Advisory Committee (SAC) in which case the promotion(s) are subject to appeal under section S of this Agreement; or
(b) A Joint Selection Committee (JSC) in which case the promotion(s) are not subject to appeal.

23.2 A selection committee will only be convened as prescribed in this agreement.

23.3 A selection committee must make a recommendation based on the principles of merit as set out in the PSM Act and PSM Standards.
23.4 Unless otherwise agreed by the Employer and the UFU or the UFU fails to provide a nominee, a JSC will be used for all selection processes leading to promotion; participation in this process will not be unreasonably withheld.

23.5 A selection committee’s deliberations will be independent of any outside influence.

23.6 Where a dispute regarding any nominee for a JSC or SAC arises the parties will resolve the dispute using the dispute resolution procedure in this agreement.

24. Operation of Selection Advisory Committees (SAC).

24.1 A Selection Advisory Committee (SAC) will be nominated by the employer and normally comprise three members.

24.2 An SAC may be convened to select employees to relieve in a higher position at FB 7 and FB 8 where a merit list from a JSC does not exist.

24.3 An SAC will be chaired by the representative nominated as the Chairperson by the employer. The Chair will be at least one substantive classification above that of the vacancy.

24.4 There will be at least two other panel members on the Committee, preferably at the same or higher substantive level as the vacancy, except where specific technical skills are required on the Committee. One panel member will be external to ACT Fire & Rescue.

24.5 SAC panel members will have an appropriate level of knowledge of the job content and/or skill and experience requirements of the position.

24.6 SAC panel members must avoid any potential conflict of interest by declaring any knowledge they have of particular candidates that might have an influence on their selection decision.

24.7 An SAC may be used for selecting employees for permanent promotion where the parties agree or where the UFU does not provide a nominee for a JSC.

25. Operation of Joint Selection Committee (JSC).

25.1 A JSC will normally comprise of, but not be limited to, people with the appropriate skills and experience that are:

   (a) An independent person agreed between the employer and union;
   (b) A nominee of the employer; and
   (c) A nominee of the UFU.

25.2 A joint selection committee will:

   (a) Assess the claims of the applicants for promotion in a manner the JSC considers necessary to establish their suitability; and
   (b) Rank the applicants for promotion according to merit, with the most suitable being ranked first.

25.3 The JSC will conduct its proceedings in accordance with the principles of confidentiality, natural justice and procedural fairness. The committee’s proceedings will be conducted efficiently and with as little formality as possible, consistent with a fair and proper consideration of the claims of each applicant.
25.4 Where a panel member becomes unavailable before a committee completes its deliberations, the committee will be reconstituted by the remaining panel members and another member nominated in accordance with clause 25.1.

25.5 If the panel cannot reach consensus on the advice to be given to the employer in respect of a promotion:

(a) If the majority of panel members concur, that advice is to be taken to be the advice of the committee; and

(b) In any other case the advice of the convenor is to be taken to be the advice of the committee.

25.6 A re-constituted committee may consider any relevant information from the earlier committee’s deliberations.

26. Lifespan of Merit Process

26.1 A selection committee’s recommendations may be used for appointments, promotions, higher duties and transfers to a position or positions at the same classification with the same selection criteria for up to 24 months from the date the selection committee makes a recommendation to the employer.

26.2 The maximum number of employees ranked as suitable for promotion at any time will be:

(a) 10 FB 5 employees merit ranked for promotion to FB 6;
(b) 5 FB 6 employees merit ranked for promotion to FB 7; and
(c) 2 FB 7 employees merit ranked for promotion to FB 8.

26.3 The employer will conduct a merit selection process at least every 24 months to establish merit lists for the permanent and temporary filling of vacancies at FB6 to FB 8.

27. Conditions relating to promotion to officer classifications.

27.1 The Employer will not promote an employee under clause 18 unless:

(a) An invitation for employees to apply for promotion to that rank has been published;
(b) The promotion is made within 24 months of the employer receiving the advice of the Selection Committee; and
(c) The employee has been found suitable and ranked as part of a merit selection process;
(d) The employee is qualified for the classification in accordance with Annex E.

28. Notices Relating to Appointments and Promotions

28.1 The Chief Officer may, in writing, declare:

(a) The manner of determining the order in which successful applicants will be appointed as employees of the Brigade; or
(b) The academic or other qualifications that are relevant for appointment as a employee of the Brigade; or
(c) The academic or other qualifications that are relevant for promotion or acting appointment to a specified rank; or
(d) Such other matters with respect to appointments or promotions as the Chief Officer considers desirable.
Note: in relation to (c) and (d) above, the Chief Officer will have regard to the agreed qualifications at Annex E.

29. Relieving in a Higher Position

29.1 Opportunities to relieve in a higher position at FB 6, FB 7 and FB 8 exist for operational and development purposes. Eligible employees may be selected to relieve temporarily in a position at a classification one level higher than their substantive classification.

General conditions

29.2 An employee relieving in a higher classification will be paid a higher duties allowance for the entire period that they relieve at the higher classification.

29.3 Higher duties allowance will be paid while an employee is on leave and on Public Holidays or accrued days off, provided the employee would have continued to perform higher duties for that period.

29.4 Relieving opportunities are available to employees currently ranked by a merit selection process described in clause 23 and who have completed, or are completing, the qualifications for the higher classification at Annex E.

29.5 A merit process and any required training will be conducted regularly to ensure there are employees eligible to relieve in a higher position.

29.6 All employees eligible under clause 29.4 to relieve at FB 7 and FB 8 will be invited to express interest in filling short term vacancies (up to one month). Selections to fill vacancies will be made from the expressions of interest received.

29.7 If no expressions of interest are received, or during the EOI process, the employer may direct an eligible employee to fill the short term vacancy.

29.8 Temporary vacancies of longer than one month will be allocated in the order of the merit list from the selection committee.

29.9 Where there are no employees suitable for promotion to the next classification an SAC may be convened to select employees for further development through training, education and relieving opportunities.

29.10 Employees relieving in a higher classification will only do overtime shifts on the 10/14 roster at their substantive classification.

Additional conditions relating to FB 5

29.11 Qualified and eligible FB5 employees may relieve in a higher position subject to the following criteria:

(a) The relieving duties are for the purpose of personal or recreation leave and do not exceed four consecutive shifts in duration;

(b) The relieving position is on the Senior Firefighter’s platoon;

(c) The eligible employee may not relieve in a higher position for more than ten shifts in any year or 20 shifts in a merit lifespan (24 months); and
(d) Relieving in a higher position will not create any overtime at firefighter classifications at the time it is approved.

An FB 5 may not relieve at FB 6 for any other purpose than specified above.
Section E - Hours of Work

30. Ordinary Hours of Work
30.1 The ordinary hours of work under this agreement are 38 hours per week.

31. Rostered shiftwork staff
31.1 Employees on the 10/14 roster will work an average of 42 hours per week over an eight week cycle.

(a) The 42 hours are comprised of 38 ordinary hours plus two additional overtime hours and two accumulated recreation leave hours.

(b) The 42 hours per week as detailed in the roster at clause 144 consist of consecutive shifts over an eight week cycle on the basis of:

i. Two day shifts 0800 hours to 1800 hours;
ii. Two night shifts 1800 hours to 0800 hours

(c) The shifts will be worked by four platoons known as “A”, “B”, “C” and “D” Platoons.

32. Employees on day work
32.1 Employees on day work will work 320 hours over an eight week cycle.

(a) The 40 hours per week are comprised of 38 hours plus two additional overtime hours.

(b) The ordinary hours of duty of probationary firefighters during the period of initial training will be 38 hours per week, attendance will be determined by training requirements.

(c) Employees on day work at FB 6 or below will have the option to work either a four day week, comprising 10 hours work per day, or a five day week with flextime, comprising 8 hours work per day.

32.2 Employees on day work at FB7 and FB8 will attend on the basis of operational requirements.

32.3 One month’s notice will be given to the employer by an employee wishing to change from a five day week to a four day week. All flextime must be exhausted prior to commencement on a four day week.

32.4 The normal bandwidth of working hours for employees on day work is 0700 to 1900 Monday to Friday.

32.5 Attendance in summer may need to coincide with fire readiness standards and on high fire warning days employees may be called to work at different hours

32.6 The bandwidth may be altered due to operational circumstances or where an employee or employees can demonstrate to the employers satisfaction that operational readiness will not be adversely effected by a different attendance pattern.

32.7 Each working day will not exceed 10 hours unless exceptional circumstances exist and the employees supervisor is notified prior to working additional hours.

32.8 Hours of attendance must be recorded.
32.9 All overtime worked must be approved in advance by the employer.

33. Movement between identified working arrangements
   33.1 Movement between identified working arrangements will be by agreement between the employer and the employee. Where agreement cannot be reached, the minimum notice period to be supplied to the employee will be two weeks.

34. Meal breaks
   34.1 Meal breaks for employees on day work will be as agreed between the supervisor and the employees.

35. Exchange of shift
   35.1 Employees may exchange shifts with suitably qualified personnel at or within their classification range subject to written approval by the relevant supervisor.

   35.2 Where an exchange of shift is approved and the employee is subsequently moved so that the skill sets are not appropriate it is the responsibility of the supervisor to make appropriate arrangements so that the district skills mix is balanced.

   35.3 Where an employee has an exchange of shift approved and the replacement employee takes personal leave or fails to present for duty leave is deducted from the employee that agreed to attend for duty for the shift.

   35.4 All employees may exchange shifts with the approval of the employer.
PAY AND CLASSIFICATIONS

Section F - Rates of Pay

36. Pay Increases
36.1 Employees will be paid in accordance with their classification and rates of pay set out in Annex A to this Agreement.

36.2 Pay increases for all classifications set out in Annex A of this Agreement, will apply as follows:

(a) 3.5 per cent effective from 1 July 2011 paid as soon as reasonably possible, but no later than the second pay day following the commencement of this Agreement and;

(b) 3.5 per cent from 1 July 2012.

37. Separated employees
37.1 A person who was an employee of the Directorate on 1 July 2011 and who separated from the ACTPS before the commencement of this Agreement will be paid any difference between the rate of pay under clause 36 of this Agreement and the rate which the former employee was paid in the same classification on separation. Any monies paid to the employee by the Directorate on separation will be adjusted in the same manner as the rate of pay.

38. Payment of Salary
38.1 Employees will be paid fortnightly in arrears and by electronic funds transfer into a financial institution account of their choice.

38.2 An employee on part time work arrangements will be paid pro-rata based on their agreed ordinary hours.

39. Overtime
39.1 An employee may be directed or requested to work reasonable additional hours for duty at any required time, subject to the payment for overtime in accordance with the conditions set out in this clause, and the reasonable additional hours provision of s.62.(3) of the FW Act.

39.2 All time worked by a rostered shiftworker in excess of a rostered shift or for more than four shifts in any continuous seven day period will be overtime and will be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first three hours and double time thereafter.

39.3 All time worked by an employee on day work in excess of the ordinary hours will be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first three hours and double time thereafter except:

(a) on Sundays where an employee will be paid at the rate of double time and

(b) on public holidays at the rate of double time and a half.

To remove doubt, employees on day work who observe a public holiday and then accept an overtime shift on that public holiday, will receive time and a half in addition to the single time they have been paid for that day. Where such an overtime shift exceeds the normal working hours of the employee then double time and a half will be paid for that period in excess of their normal working hours.
39.4 Employees working under the agreed flexitime arrangements will be paid overtime in accordance with those arrangements.

39.5 When it is necessary for an employee to clean themself on return to their station after an incident, the cleaning time reasonably taken beyond the end of that shift will be paid as overtime, provided the employee informs the person in charge of the station of their condition immediately on their return to the station.

39.6 Overtime payments will not be rounded.

39.7 The filling of temporary vacancies will be in accordance with clause 143.

40. Recall to duty

40.1 An employee recalled to duty after having completed their shift and left the workplace, will be paid a minimum of four hours at the appropriate overtime rate. The employee will not be required to work the full four hours if the job the employee was recalled to perform is completed within a shorter period.

40.2 These provisions will not apply in cases where the recall is continuous with, or is within two hours of, the commencement or cessation of ordinary working time.

40.3 Any additional recalls which commence within four hours from the commencement of duty under 40.1 will be deemed to be included in the first recall.

41. Time off in lieu of overtime

41.1 Employees may, with the agreement of their manager prior to overtime being worked, take time off in lieu for any overtime worked provided that the time accrues at the rate at which overtime would normally be payable.

42. Overtime Meal Allowance

42.1 An employee who works overtime is entitled to payment of overtime meal allowance where:

   (a) Overtime is worked after the end of ordinary rostered shift to the end of or beyond a meal period, and any subsequent meal period, and the employee did not have a break for a meal during the overtime; or

   (b) Overtime is worked after the completion of the employee's ordinary rostered shift, and overtime continues after the employee takes a break for a meal after ordinary duty, and the employee is not entitled to payment for that break; or

   (c) Overtime is worked before the commencement of ordinary rostered shift, and the overtime commences before a meal period, and the employee takes an unpaid break for a meal before the commencement of ordinary duty, or

   (d) Overtime is worked on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday, in addition to the employee's normal weekly hours of duty, which extends beyond a meal period and the employee takes an unpaid meal break during the overtime.

43. Meal Periods

43.1 For the purposes of clause 42, a meal period will mean the following periods:

   (a) 7.00 a.m. to 9.00 a.m;
(b) 12 noon to 2.00 p.m;
(c) 6.00 p.m. to 7.00 p.m; and
(d) midnight to 1.00 a.m.

44. Rate Of Payment For Meal Allowance
44.1 The rate of payment of overtime meal allowance will be $23.92 and will be in addition to payment of overtime.

44.2 The rate described in clause 44.1 will be varied annually by advice from ACT Chief Minister and Cabinet Directorate.

44.3 Where a 3 course meal is obtainable by the employee at a canteen, cafeteria or dining room conducted, controlled, or assisted by the employer, the amount of meal allowance will be the maximum amount for which a 3 course meal is obtainable at the canteen, cafeteria or dining-room. The rate payable under this paragraph is in substitution for the rate at 44.1.

44.4 An employee who is required to perform any of the duties specified in 42.1 (b) or (d) will not be paid a meal allowance unless the officer authorizing the duty is satisfied that the employee cannot reasonably be expected to return to the employee’s home or lodgings for a meal between the time at which the employee ceases duty before the meal and the time at which the employee is required to commence duty after the meal.

45. Rest Relief After Overtime
45.1 Unless the employer directs an employee to report for duty earlier, the employee must have a continuous period of eight hours, plus reasonable travelling time, off duty between ceasing overtime duty following normal duty one day, and commencing their next ordinary rostered shift.

45.2 An employee is entitled to be absent from duty, without loss of salary, until the employee has been off duty for a continuous period of eight hours plus reasonable travel time.

45.3 If an employee is required by the Employer to resume or continue ordinary work time without having had 8 consecutive hours off duty, plus reasonable travelling time, the employee must:

(a) Be paid at 200% of the ordinary rate of pay rate until they are released from duty for that period; and
(b) The employee will then be entitled to be absent until they have had 8 consecutive hours off duty plus reasonable travelling time, without loss of pay for any ordinary working time occurring during that absence.
(c) In this clause, reasonable travelling time is considered to be 1 hour in total.
Section G - Pay Related Matters

46. Salary Sacrifice Arrangements

   46.1 Voluntary access to salary sacrifice arrangements will be made available to employees in accordance with policies and guidelines issued by the Commissioner for Public Administration from time to time.

   46.2 The employee will meet all costs incurred as a result of remuneration packaging under these provisions.

   46.3 The employee's salary for superannuation purposes and severance and termination payments will be the gross salary that the employee would receive if not taking part in flexible remuneration packaging.

   46.4 Changes to flexible remuneration packaging arrangements, including taxation changes, will not be a cause for further claims against the employer.

   46.5 The Employer will continue to provide appropriate information to employees concerning flexible remuneration packaging.

47. Special Employment Arrangements

   47.1 The Employer and the UFU recognise that in some special circumstances it may be necessary for the Agency to determine that an employee or group of employees who are bound by this Agreement and who occupy certain positions should have special employment arrangements that may differ from some of the terms and conditions under this Agreement as specified in Annex B to this Agreement.

   47.2 The agreed Framework under which Special Employment Arrangements may apply in the Agency during the life of this Agreement, which is set out in Annex B to this Agreement.

48. Supported Wage System

   48.1 Eligible employees are to be paid the percentage of salary that corresponds to their assessed productive capacity and the class of work which the person is performing, provided that the minimum amount payable is not to be less than 10% of the weekly salary of an FB1.

   48.2 Assessment of productive capacity shall be by a representative of the Employer and a representative nominated by the employee or an accredited assessor, in consultation with the employee. The assessment will be recorded in an assessment instrument. The Employer will lodge agreed assessment instruments with the Industrial Registrar. Reviews of assessment of an employee's productive capacity will be conducted annually or earlier on reasonable request consistent with the supported wage system.

49. Salary Overpayments

   49.1 A salary overpayment is defined as any payment in respect of salary, allowance or leave, whether the overpayment is by accident or otherwise, to which the employee is not entitled.

   49.2 In the event that an employee has received a salary overpayment, the Employer will recover the overpayment in accordance with this clause.

   49.3 Where a salary overpayment has occurred, the Employer will advise the employee in writing, as soon as practicable, of the:
Section G – Pay Related Matters

(a) pay period(s) in which the overpayment occurred;
(b) nature of the overpayment;
(c) gross and net components of the overpayment;
(d) process for recovery of the overpayment; and
(e) proposed recovery rate.

49.4 The Employer and the employee will agree on a reasonable recovery rate having regard for all of the circumstances prior to any recovery being made. Where agreement cannot be reached clause 49.6 will apply.

49.5 Any such agreement may include recovery by the Employer:

(a) as a lump sum; or
(b) by payroll deduction from salary.

49.6 Where the Employer and the employee cannot agree on a reasonable recovery rate, the overpayment will be recovered at the rate of up to 10% of the employee’s gross fortnightly salary, or such other rate determined by the Employer having regard for all of the circumstances.

49.7 Despite clauses 49.4 and 49.6, the recovery period will not usually exceed 26 pay periods.

49.8 Any outstanding money owing to the Employer when an employee ceases employment is to be recovered by deduction from any final entitlements payable to the employee. If a debt still exists further debt recovery action is to be taken by the Employer unless the Employer:

(a) directs the recovery be waived, in part or in full, based on evidence provided by the employee of exceptional circumstances, or that such recovery would cause undue hardship; or
(b) determines that an overpayment is not recoverable.

49.9 Where the Employer determines that an overpayment is not recoverable, the provisions of the relevant Directorate General’s Financial Instructions, relating to the waiver and write off of monies, will apply.

50. Salary Underpayments

50.1 The Employer commits to paying employees their ordinary fortnightly salary on the appropriate payday. The Employer also commits to paying shift penalties, overtime payments and higher duties allowance within 2 pay periods of the appropriate authorisation having been received by the relevant corporate payroll area.

50.2 Where the Employer agrees that an employee has been underpaid on their base rate of salary, and the employee requests, an offline payment for the amount owing will be made to the employee within 3 working days of the Employer receiving the request.

50.3 Where a shift penalty, overtime payment or higher duties allowance is not made within 2 pay periods of the appropriate authorisation having been received by the relevant corporate area, and the employee requests, an offline payment for the amount owing will be made to the employee within 3 working days of the Employer receiving the request.
Section H - Allowances

51. Adjustment of Allowances
51.1 Expense, disability and skill related allowances provided for in this Agreement are set out in Annex C.

51.2 Subject to clause 51.3 the rates for all allowances provided for in this Agreement will be adjusted by the rate of increases in pay in accordance with clause 36.2.

51.3 The rates for Motor Vehicle Allowance and the Overtime Meal Allowance will be adjusted annually in accordance with advice from Chief Minister and Cabinet Directorate.

51.4 Employees working part-time will receive disability and skill related allowances at a pro rata rate.

51.5 Employees working part-time who satisfy the requirements for payment of an expense-related allowance will receive the full amount of allowance or payment prescribed in Annex C.

52. Oncall Allowance
52.1 The Employer may direct employees in nominated positions or roles to be contactable and available to perform extra duty outside of their ordinary hours of duty subject to payment for being restricted or on call. In exceptional circumstances any employee may be directed to be on call.

52.2 Payment under this clause will be subject to the following:

(a) The Employer gives prior written direction to the employee; or

(b) Where the circumstances did not permit prior direction, subsequent written approval is made by the Employer.

52.3 The provisions of clause 40 will not apply where an employee is recalled to duty whilst restricted.

52.4 An employee who is required to remain contactable and available to perform extra duty outside their ordinary hours of duty will be paid an allowance of:

(a) 10 per cent of the employee's hourly rate for each hour restricted between normal rostered shifts or hours of work;

(b) 15 per cent of the employee's hourly rate for each hour restricted outside their normal roster block (days off);

(c) 20 per cent of the employee's hourly rate for each hour restricted on public holidays.

52.5 For the purposes of this clause, payment of the allowance at 49.4 to employees at or above FB5 will be capped at the relevant percentage of the hourly rate of an FB5.

52.6 An employee's salary for the purposes of calculation of payment under this clause will be the fortnightly composite wage as prescribed in Annex A to this Agreement, and include higher duties allowance and any other allowances in the nature of salary.

52.7 The hourly rate of payment will be ascertained by applying the following formula:

\text{Composite Wage} \\
\text{(plus allowances in the nature of salary)} \\
\times \% \text{ prescribed in clause 52.4}
The allowance at clause 52.2 is payable for each hour or part thereof an employee is restricted outside their ordinary hours of duty.

Payments will be made in addition to ordinary salary but will not count as salary for leave, superannuation or other related purposes.

No payment will be made under this clause for any period in which the employee does not remain contactable or hold themselves at the required degree of readiness to perform extra duty.

Where an employee who has been restricted in accordance with this clause is required to perform duty, but is not required to be recalled to the workplace, payment in accordance with the relevant overtime provisions will be made subject to a minimum payment of one hour.

Where an employee who has been restricted outside their normal hours is recalled to duty at the workplace, payment in accordance with the relevant overtime provisions will be made and will be subject to a minimum payment of three hours.

An employee performing duty or recalled to duty whilst in any restriction situation specified in this clause will not be required to work the full period of the minimum payment if the job the employee was undertaking is completed in a shorter period.

The minimum payment provisions will not apply where the recall is continuous with ordinary duty or another recall, or occurs prior to the expiration of a reasonable travelling time for the employee to return to their place of residence. For the purpose of this clause, reasonable travelling time to or from the employee’s place of residence will mean 30 minutes.

In the event of subsequent duty or recalls, this clause will not act to provide more hours than the hours which would have applied had the employee remained on duty from the commencement of the first duty to expiration of the second or subsequent duty.

A recall to duty on a public holiday or accrued day off will be paid at one and a half times ordinary rate for any period during the normal hours of duty for that day.

The restriction allowance is not payable for any period of time where overtime payments are made.

The Employer and the UFU will develop agreed administrative guidelines to assist in the implementation of this clause.

Rest relief for Restricted Situations

Where an employee in a restricted situation under clause 52 is recalled to duty, the employee must, other than in exceptional circumstances, be given a genuine opportunity to have eight continuous hours sleep in the 24 hour period where there is a recall to duty.

In addition to the eight hours rest relief, the employee must be allowed reasonable time to travel to and from the employee’s place of work.

If an employee is required by the Employer to resume or continue ordinary work time without having the rest relief as set out in clause 53.1, plus reasonable travelling time, the employee must:

(a) be paid at 200% of the employee’s ordinary hourly rate of pay until the employee is released from duty for that period; and

(b) the employee will then be entitled to be absent until the employee has had eight consecutive hours off duty plus reasonable travelling time, without loss of pay for any ordinary working time occurring during that absence.

53.4 The Employer and the UFU acknowledge the need for appropriate roster management processes to enable the effective implementation of clause 53.1.

54. Travel and Transport Costs

54.1 Employees are entitled to an allowance at the rate in Annex C when they are required to travel to a station other than their permanent station.

54.2 Under clause 54.1 the time spent travelling under this clause is not regarded as time worked.

54.3 Employees who, on completion of any 10/14 shift are required to continue duty (e.g. late fire call or other emergency) and due to the time of day/night are required to change their mode of transport home, will be provided with a taxi voucher or driven home by the Employer, subject to a maximum distance of 50 kilometres. Alternative transport or taxi voucher will be provided within 30 minutes of notifying the District Officer (FB 7).

54.4 If alternative transport cannot be provided overtime will be paid for the time reasonably taken to reach the employee’s residence subject to a limit of 1 hour.

54.5 An employee who reports for duty and is subsequently directed to another station for duty:

(a) will not be entitled to the full allowance as provided for in clause 54.1, but will be paid 50% of the allowance set out in Annex C where they are not required to return to their permanent station at the end of their shift when performing ordinary duty; and

(b) either reimbursement of actual fares paid to travel, or the appropriate motor vehicle costs payable to ACT public sector employees, whichever applies, when performing ordinary or overtime duty.

54.7 A relieving employee will be regarded, for this clause, to be stationed at the station nearest to the employee’s home.
WORK-LIFE BALANCE
Section I - Recognition of Work and Life Responsibilities

55. Work-Life Balance
55.1 The Employer is committed to maintaining a healthy and safe work environment, supporting the health and wellbeing of its employees and assisting employees in balancing their work and personal roles and responsibilities.

55.2 This Agreement contains a range of provisions reflecting this commitment, in particular:

(a) opportunities for employees to balance their work and life responsibilities
(b) provisions for enhanced leave entitlements
(c) flexible working arrangements

55.3 The Employer will continue to provide employees with access to independent, professional counselling through an employee assistance program to support them in addressing work and personal issues.

55.4 The Employer is committed to continuing to provide other forms of personal support to employees, such as arranging influenza and hepatitis vaccinations, nutrition and diet programs, eye sight testing and the purchase of spectacles, and arranging quit smoking programs in accordance with Agency policies and programs.

56. Employees with Caring Responsibilities
56.1 Carers are employees who provide, in addition to their normal family responsibilities, care and support on a regular basis to other family members or other persons who are sick or ageing, have an injury, have physical or mental illness or a disability.

56.2 Family members may include children, brothers or sisters, domestic partner, parents, grandparents and close relatives. In some cases, employees may be responsible for providing care to a neighbour or a friend who has no one to assist with day-to-day care.

56.3 The Employer recognises that carer responsibilities vary considerably, depending on the level of care and assistance required and may be suddenly imposed, or may increase gradually. It is also recognised that, generally, employees are able to provide care and assistance outside normal working hours. However, there are times they are required to provide more support or assistance because of illness, injury or disability.

56.4 To assist employees in balancing their work and carer responsibilities flexible working and leave arrangements are provided in this Agreement, which are subject to operational requirements of the organisation and are at the discretion of the Employer. Examples of these flexible arrangements include, but are not limited to:

(a) Flexible starting and finishing times;
(b) Ability to take a few hours off work, and make it up later;
(c) Access to breast feeding facilities;
Section I– Recognition of Work and Life Responsibilities

(d) Access to personal leave for caring purposes for members of immediate family or household;
(e) Home based work on a short or long term basis;
(f) Part-time work and Job sharing;
(g) Annual leave;
(h) Long service leave;
(i) Leave without pay; and
(j) Leave not provided for elsewhere.

56.5 Access to the leave entitlements listed in clause 56.4 are as provided for in this Agreement.

57. Management of Excessive Hours

57.1 The Employer and UFU recognise the importance of employees balancing work and personal life. The appropriate balance is a critical element in developing and maintaining healthy and productive workplaces. While it is acknowledged that peak workload periods may necessitate some extra hours being worked by some employees, this should be regarded as the exception rather than the rule.

57.2 The employer and employees have a responsibility to minimise the extent to which excessive hours are worked. In the circumstances where work pressures result in the employee being required to work, or is likely to work, excessive hours over a significant period, the employer and employee together must review workloads and priorities and determine appropriate strategies to address the situation. In doing so, the employer will consider and implement one or more of the following strategies to reduce the amount of excessive hours being accumulated:

(a) Review of workloads and priorities;
(b) Re-allocation of resources;
(c) Consideration of appropriate arrangements for time off in lieu or other recompense; and
(d) Review staffing levels and/or classifications within the work group.

57.3 The Employer will consult with the UFU through the FBCC about the development and implementation of appropriate strategies to deal with issues associated with both paid and unpaid overtime.
Section J - Flexible Working Arrangements

58. Regular Part Time Employment

58.1 Employees may apply to work on a part time roster. The following arrangements will apply:

(a) Attendance will occur within the 10/14 roster with a regular attendance pattern throughout the year;
(b) Approval for access to part time working arrangements will be contingent on sufficient operational staffing in full time equivalents as per clause 145. Part time employees will be allocated to the relief roster;
(c) To be considered for part time work arrangements employees must have a minimum of 3 years operational experience in the Brigade and be at a classification of FB 4 or higher.
(d) Appropriate skill mix must be maintained on all platoons;
(e) Movement to part time work arrangements is voluntary;
(f) Employees on part time work arrangements accrue time at classification on a pro-rata basis;
(g) If an employee on part time work arrangements is promoted to or within officer classifications (FB6-FB8) the employee must revert to full time employment for a period of not less than two years;
(h) For safety reasons no part trained or part year persons will be employed under this agreement;
(i) All part time work arrangements will be reviewed annually.

58.2 To ensure maintenance of their core and specialist skills, part time employees will be required to attend mandatory and specialist training regardless of their normal pattern of work. These hours of attendance will be paid as per clause 58.5.

58.3 Consideration for part time employment will take account of operational requirements, be within the approved part time roster at clause 145 and will depend on the number of employees seeking to work part time.

58.4 The Employer and UFU may agree to vary these arrangements through the FBCC.

58.5 Part time employees may be offered additional hours by the employer. Additional hours will be paid at standard rates of pay for their substantive classification until they exceed 38 hours in one week. Hours worked in excess of 38 will be paid as overtime under clause 39.

59. Conversion to part-time Employment

59.1 Subject to clause 58, a person may convert to part time employment at an agreed number of regular hours per week. A part time employee will work less than the ordinary weekly hours of work for a full time employee, and will receive, on a proportionate basis, equivalent pay and conditions to those of a full-time employee. Expense related allowances, will be paid in accordance with the relevant clauses of this Agreement.

59.2 If an employee changes ordinary weekly hours of duty, the employee’s personal leave will be adjusted in accordance with the following formula:

\text{New working hours} \times \text{personal leave credit} \div \text{Old working hours}

59.3 Proposals for part-time employment may be initiated by the Employer for operational reasons, or by an employee for personal reasons.
59.4 The Employer will have regard to both the employee’s personal reasons supporting the proposal, and to the operational requirements.

59.5 The written agreement of a full-time employee will be obtained before the employee converts to part-time, or varies part time hours.

59.6 No pressure will be exerted on full-time employees to convert to part-time employment or to transfer to another position to make way for part-time employment.

60. Variation to Part-time Hours

Proposals for a part-time employment arrangement to be varied may be initiated by the Employer for operational reasons or by an employee for personal reasons.

60.1 The employee may revert to full time employment at any time, subject to a one month notice period.

60.2 The Employer may cancel part time work arrangements for operational reasons at any time subject to a one month notice period.

60.3 No pressure will be exerted on an employee to vary their part-time employment or to transfer to another part-time position.

60.4 The pattern of attendance (days, hours, start and finish times) for part-time work will be agreed in writing between the employee and the employer.

61. Job Sharing

61.1 Job sharing is only available to employees at or above FB4.

61.2 Employees working in a job sharing arrangement share one full-time position with each working part-time on a regular, continuing basis. Job sharing arrangements may be introduced by agreement between the Employer and the employees involved, subject to operational requirements.

61.3 An employee must request in writing permission to work in a job sharing arrangement. The Employer will agree to reasonable requests for regular job sharing arrangements, subject to operational requirements.

61.4 The pattern of hours for a job sharing arrangement will be agreed between the employees and the Employer. However, any attendance at an office-based worksite will be for no less than three consecutive hours and any attendance on 10/14 roster will be for a complete shift as described in clause 28.1 (b).

61.5 The employee who is in a job sharing arrangement may revert to full-time employment before the expiry of the agreed period of job sharing if all parties to the arrangement agree. In the event that either employee ceases to participate in the job sharing arrangement, the arrangement will terminate.

62. Permanent Part-Time Employment Following Maternity Leave, Primary Caregiver Leave or Parental Leave

62.1 Subject to this clause, the Employer will approve an application by an employee employed on a full time basis who returns to work after leave following the birth or adoption of a child, to work on a part-time basis for a period of up to three years from the birth or adoption of the child.
62.2 The Employer will facilitate part time working arrangements for employees under this clause in non-rostered shiftwork roles.

62.3 Either the employee who accesses paid Primary Care Giver Leave under clause 74 or the mother who is entitled to and accesses paid maternity leave under clause 73 will be entitled to access permanent part-time employment as provided in clause 62.1.

62.4 The maximum aggregate period of part-time employment that may be approved for an officer under clause 62.1 is seven years.

63. Individual Flexibility Arrangements

63.1 The Agency and an individual employee may agree to vary the application of certain provisions of this Agreement to meet the genuine needs of the Agency and the individual employee (an individual flexibility arrangement).

63.2 The provisions that the Agency and the individual employee may agree to vary are:

(a) Scheduling of meetings (clause 68.1)

63.3 The Agency must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:

(a) are about matters that would be permitted if the arrangement were an enterprise agreement;
(b) does not include a term that would be an unlawful term if the arrangement were an enterprise agreement; and
(c) will result in the employee being better off overall than the employee would have been if no individual flexibility arrangement were agreed to.

63.4 The Agency must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:

(a) identifies the clause of this Agreement that the Agency and the employee have agreed to vary;
(b) sets out details of how the arrangement will vary the effect of the clause;
(c) includes details of how the employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment as a result of the arrangement; and
(d) states the day the arrangement commences.

63.5 An individual flexibility arrangement made under this clause must be genuinely agreed to by the Agency and the individual employee.

63.6 Except as provided in paragraph H3.7 (b), an individual flexibility arrangement made under this clause must not include a provision that requires the individual flexibility arrangement to be approved, or consented to, by another person.

63.7 The Agency must ensure that an individual flexibility arrangement made under this clause must be in writing and signed:

(a) in all cases - by the employee and the Employer; and
(b) if the employee is under eighteen – by a parent or guardian of the employee.
63.8 The Agency must give the employee a copy of an individual flexibility arrangement made under this clause within fourteen days after it is agreed to.

63.9 The Employer or the employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:

(a) by giving written notice of no more than twenty eight days to the other party to the arrangement; or
(b) if the Head of Service and the employee agree in writing – at any time.

The right to make an individual flexibility arrangement under this clause is in addition to, and is not intended to otherwise affect, the right of the Agency and an individual employee to make an agreement under any other provision of this Agreement.
Section K - Employee Support

64. Employee Assistance Program
64.1 The Employer will provide employees and their immediate families with access to an independent, confidential and professional counselling service at no cost to the employee.

65. Scheduling of Meetings
65.1 To assist employees to meet their personal responsibilities, where possible, all meetings are to be scheduled at times that take into account those responsibilities.

66. Family Care Costs
66.1 Where an employee is directed to work outside their regular pattern of work, the Employer will authorise reimbursement to the employee by receipt for some or all of the costs of additional family care arrangements.

67. Nursing Mothers
67.1 Employees who are breastfeeding will be provided with the facilities and support necessary to enable them to combine a continuation of such breastfeeding with their employment.

67.2 Where practicable the Employer will establish and maintain a room for nursing mothers. Where there is no room available an appropriate space may be used.

67.3 Up to one hour paid lactation breaks per day/shift will be available for nursing mothers.
Section L - Leave

68. Personal Leave

68.1 Paid personal leave is available to an employee when the employee is absent due to any of the following:

(a) Absence due to personal illness or injury (sick leave);
(b) Absence where an employee is required to care for a member of the employee’s immediate family or household who is sick (carer's leave); or because of bereavement on the death of an immediate family member or household member (bereavement leave); and
(c) Leave in special circumstances.

68.2 The entitlements and eligibility requirements for personal leave in the Public Sector Management Standards will apply except where varied under this clause.

68.3 The provisions for war service sick leave, as set out in the PSM Standards, will continue to apply.

Personal leave – Entitlement and Accrual

68.4 The amount of personal leave to which an employee is entitled is as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>On commencement</th>
<th>144 hours</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>On the completion of twelve months service and each subsequent year</td>
<td>144 hours</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

68.5 Employees who convert to part-time employment will receive personal leave on a pro rata basis based on the employee’s prescribed weekly hours of duty on his/her accrual date.

68.6 On appointment under the PSM Act, employees will have any personal leave credit, with an organisation that is recognised for prior service purposes, added to their personal leave credit. In order to be recognised for personal leave purposes the previous service must have terminated no more than two months prior to the appointment. On the employee’s normal accrual date, the employee will then receive personal leave in accordance with clause 68.4.

68.7 Personal leave is cumulative.

Absences which do not count for service totalling more than 30 calendar days defer the next accrual by 1 day for each day’s absence.

68.8 If previous service with an approved organisation is recognised as service which counts towards the accrual of personal leave under the mobility provisions of the PSM Standards, the date on which personal leave accrues can be varied to reflect a previous accrual date.

Any personal leave taken must be deducted from the employee’s credit.

Granting of Personal Leave

68.9 The Employer may grant personal leave with pay, subject to available credits, for a period of absence when the employee applies for personal leave due to personal illness or injury or for the care of a member of the employee’s immediate family or household who is sick and, subject to clause 68.16, produces a medical certificate.
68.10 When taking personal leave the employee must notify Comcen at the earliest opportunity prior to scheduled commencement of duty, unless he or she has good reason for not doing so.

68.11 Personal leave must not be granted where the absence is associated with the misconduct of the employee, or where there is not sufficient cause. In cases of misconduct or insufficient cause, the Employer may determine that the absence does not count as service for any purpose.

68.12 An employee cannot access paid personal leave while on paid maternity leave or primary care giver’s leave, but can apply for personal leave during unpaid maternity leave or parental leave.

Documentary Evidence

68.13 The Employer may, with reasonable cause, request a medical certificate for any absence at the time of notification of the absence.

68.14 The notification must include:
(a) the reason for the absence; and
(b) how long the employee expects to be away from work.

68.15 The employee must, if required by the employer, establish by the production of a medical certificate or statutory declaration that the employee was unable to work because of injury or personal illness.

68.16 The Employer will accept medical evidence in accordance with section 352 of the FW Act and Division 5 Part 3.01 Temporary Absence – illness or injury, of the Fair Work Regulations 2009

68.17 If documentary evidence is not produced when an employee applies for leave for personal illness or injury, or for the care of a member of the employee’s immediate family or household who is sick, the employer may grant personal leave up to 3 consecutive shifts with pay, to a maximum of 7 shifts in any accrual year. Absences in excess of 3 consecutive shifts, or 7 shifts in any accrual year are unauthorised and will be without pay.

68.18 Where there is a pattern of systematic and regular use of personal leave that is not supported by medical evidence, the employer may request medical evidence for future absences that fall in accordance with that pattern.

68.19 In addition to the provisions contained in sections 405, 406 and 484 of the Public Sector Management Standards, the Employer may refer an employee for a medical examination by a nominated medical practitioner at any time. This may be for reasons including but not limited to:
(a) Where the Employer, is concerned for the wellbeing of an employee and considers that the health of the employee is affecting their ability to adequately perform their duties; or
(b) Where the Employer considers the documentary evidence supplied for absences due to personal illness or injury is inadequate.

Arrangements Where an Employee Has Exhausted Their Personal Leave Credit

68.20 Despite clause 68.21, the Employer may allow an employee, in the first 10 years of service, when the employee provides documentary evidence that the employee has a personal illness or injury, to anticipate one year’s personal leave accrual where all full pay credits are exhausted.
68.21 The Employer may, where such treatment is justified, grant an employee who has completed 10 years of service an additional period of personal leave to cover periods of personal illness or injury. Such leave will be at half pay and will only be granted where all full pay credit has been exhausted.

68.22 Where paid credits have been exhausted, the Employer may approve personal leave without pay for personal illness or injury or for the care of a member of the employee’s immediate family or household who is sick. Unpaid personal leave will count as service for all purposes.

68.23 If an ill employee exhausts their paid personal leave entitlement and produces documentary evidence of continuing personal illness or injury, the employee may apply to the Employer for approval to take recreation leave or long service leave. If approved, this leave will not break the continuity of the 52 weeks under clause 68.24.

Maximum Period of Absence on Personal Leave

68.24 The maximum continuous period for which paid leave for personal illness or injury may be granted is 52 weeks. The maximum continuous period for which paid and unpaid leave for personal illness or injury may be granted is 78 weeks. Subject to the production of satisfactory documentary evidence, further absence beyond the 78 weeks due to personal illness or injury must be granted as leave without pay not to count as service for any purpose.

68.25 There is no restriction on the amount of personal leave up to the available credit able to be used and approved in relation to the care of a member of an employee’s immediate family or household who is sick.

Personal Leave in Extraordinary Circumstances

68.26 Subject to clause 68.27 and 68.28, the Employer may approve personal leave other than for personal illness, or the care of a member of the immediate family or household who is sick, in special circumstances. Special circumstances cover extraordinary or unforeseen circumstances where it is essential that the employee have leave from the workplace. In these special circumstances, reasonable evidence may be required by the manager.

68.27 While personal leave in special circumstances does not require documentary evidence, such leave may require a form of reasonable evidence provided to the Employer when requesting this leave.

68.28 A maximum of 4 shifts leave in special circumstances may be approved within an accrual year. These 4 shifts are in addition to the 7 shifts personal leave without documentary evidence that may be granted under clause 68.16 Any paid leave in special circumstances granted under this clause will be deducted from the employee’s personal leave credit.

68.29 Where an employee who is eligible for sick leave produces medical evidence to the effect that he/she has been incapacitated for a period of:

(a) one day or more whilst on recreation or annual leave; or
(b) one day or more whilst on long service leave, the employer will re-credit the employee with an equivalent period of recreation or long service leave as the case may be.

68.30 Where payment has been made for sick leave under 68.4 to an employee whose sick leave entitlement previously had been exhausted or whose sick leave has not been established the employer may deduct the amount overpaid from the salary of the employee.
69. Make up pay

69.1 When incapacity from work is due to a cause that would entitle an employee to payment of workers’ compensation, the employer will pay the difference between the amount of the workers’ compensation payment and full pay. The provisions of the clause will not affect the employee’s entitlement to sick leave arising from ordinary illness.

69.2 The term full pay, for the purpose of this clause, will mean the amount an employee would have normally earned, including rostered average overtime, had he/she been on duty.

70. Bereavement Leave

70.1 Bereavement leave with pay applies from the first day of service and counts as service for all purposes.

70.2 Employees are entitled to up to three shifts leave (non-cumulative) on each occasion of a death of a member of the employee’s immediate family or household; and on the death of an employee’s parent, parent of domestic partner, foster parent, step-parent, step sibling, guardian or foster child.

70.3 Proof of bereavement and relationship must be provided if requested.

70.4 Bereavement leave granted of at least one day whilst on another type of leave will result in the re-crediting of that leave.

70.5 Further paid or unpaid bereavement leave, in addition to clause 70.2, may be granted if considered appropriate by the Employer.

71. Annual Leave

Entitlement to Annual Leave

71.1 Employees working rostered shift work are entitled to 392 hours leave annually for each full year worked. This leave includes 90 hours time off in lieu (TOIL) in line with clause 31. Where less than a full year is worked, employees are entitled to leave on a pro-rata basis.

71.2 365 hours of this leave will be taken as rostered annual leave. The remaining leave is available as discretionary recreation leave on application from the employee.

71.3 Access to discretionary recreation leave will be subject to available staffing and operational requirements at the time of application.

71.4 Employees on day work are entitled to 216 hours leave annually for each full year worked. Where less than a full year is worked, employees are entitled to leave on a pro-rata basis.

71.5 Recreation leave may also be granted for periods up to four hours.

71.6 The Employer will, if the requirements of the Brigade so permit, allow each employee to take their recreation leave at a time convenient to that employee.

71.7 Employees on part time work arrangements will accrue a pro-rata credit based on the number of part-time hours worked.
71.8 Unauthorized absence will not contribute to the annual leave credit.

Cashing out of Annual Leave
71.9 An employee may cash out leave credits where that credit has exceeded 384 hours subject to the following:
   (a) the employee providing the Employer with a written election to do so;
   (b) the Employer authorising the election; and
   (c) the employee having a minimum balance of 384 hours combined annual/recreation leave after cashing out excess leave credits.

71.10 An employee may only cash out leave in accordance with clause 71.9 once during each twelve-month period.

Payment on Separation
71.11 Employees will receive payment in lieu of any unused leave entitlement on separation from the ACT Public Service

72. Long Service Leave
72.1 The eligibility requirements and entitlements for long service leave under the PSM Act and PSM Standards apply subject to the provisions of this clause.

72.2 The Employer may grant long service leave to an employee to the extent of that employee’s pro-rata long service leave credits after seven years eligible service.

Entitlement to long service leave
72.3 All employees will accrue 3 calendar months long service leave at full pay after the completion of 10 years service.

72.4 Any employee employed by the ACT Fire Brigade between 25 November 1974 and 26 May 1978 will accrue 15 calendar days long service per year for each year’s service after 10 years service.

72.5 Any employee employed by the ACT Fire Brigade between 25 November 1974 and 26 May 1978 who was immediately prior to their appointment employed by the NSW Board of Fire Commissioners will have their service with the NSW Board of Fire Commissioners counted as service for the determination of long service.

72.6 All other employees will accrue 9 calendar days long service leave for each years service after 10 years service

72.7 The Agency and employees recognise and accept their mutual responsibility to encourage utilisation of long service leave.

72.8 Long service leave may be taken on double, full or half pay when approved by the employer and subject to operational requirements, with credits to be deducted on the same basis.

Proportional leave on retirement/death/termination
72.9 Where the services of an employee with at least one year service and less than ten years service are terminated by the employer for any reason or by reason of the death of the employee, the employee will be entitled to payment to the extent of their pro-rata entitlement
72.10 In the event of the death of an employee, the monetary value of long service leave due to him/her will be paid to such of his/her dependants as the employer determines.

72.11 Employees who choose to resign from the Brigade will receive payment in lieu of any pro-rata long service leave entitlements they may have after 7 years eligible service.

72.12 In the event of the termination of the employment of the employee, otherwise than by his/her death, where an entitlement exists the monetary value of long service leave, if any, due to him/her will be paid to the employee.

Granting of long service leave

72.13 Long service leave may be taken for any period up to the accrued credit providing the minimum period that may be taken is 5 calendar days.

72.14 Subject to clause 72.15, long service leave may be granted as such leave becomes due or at any time thereafter; provided that if so required notice in writing of the intention to take such leave will be given to the Employer by the employee concerned at least 30 days before the date on which the employee desires that such leave should commence.

72.15 The employer will grant long service leave to up to 2 firefighters and one officer per platoon or up to 2 employees among those on day work for a concurrent period. Subject to this requirement, any approval of applications by an employee to take long service leave will be at the discretion of the employer.

72.16 If the employer does not approve an application by an employee for long service leave, the employer will consult with the employee to determine a mutually convenient alternative time (or times) for the employee to take the leave.

73. Paid Maternity Leave

73.1 The eligibility requirements and entitlements for maternity leave under the PSM Act and Standards apply subject to the provisions of this clause.

73.2 Where sections 168 and 170 of the PSM Act apply, employees are entitled to 18 weeks paid maternity leave.

73.3 Employees may spread the payments for the 18 week paid maternity leave absence over a 36 week period at half pay. The additional period of paid maternity leave will count as service for all purposes.

73.4 The Employer may approve, subject to a medical certificate, an employee taking paid maternity leave in a non-continuous manner, provided any other form of paid leave will not be approved until the employee has used all of their paid maternity leave entitlement.

73.5 The entitlement to 18 weeks paid maternity leave, or to 36 weeks paid maternity leave at half pay, may be taken in any combination subject to the requirements in section 173 of the PSM Act on the production of a medical certificate on the fitness for duty.

73.6 Entitlements under this clause do not extend the maximum period of paid and unpaid maternity leave available.
74. Paid Primary Care Giver Leave

74.1 Where an employee, other than an employee entitled to paid maternity leave under clause 73, demonstrates that they are the primary care giver of a new born or adopted child, then, subject to clause 74.4, the provisions of clause 73 will apply.

Example 1: The primary care giver may be the father of the child.
Example 2: The primary care giver may be the domestic partner of the mother.

74.2 The granting of leave under this clause is subject to the employee providing the appropriate evidence concerning the reasons for and circumstances under which the leave application is made, which may include, where relevant:

(a) A medical certificate relating to the expected date of birth of a child; or
(b) Documents from an adoption authority concerning the proposed adoption of a child; and
(c) Details of leave being taken by the employee’s domestic partner.

74.3 For the purposes of this clause a newborn is considered to be a baby of up to 14 weeks old. For an adopted child, primary care giver leave may commence from the date the employee assumes responsibility for the child but not after 14 weeks of the adoption. In extenuating circumstances, the Employer may approve paid primary care giver leave when a newborn is more than 14 weeks old.

74.4 The total combined entitlement under this clause and clause 73 and equivalent clauses in any other ACTPS collective agreement is 18 weeks of paid leave in relation to each particular birth or adoption, which may be taken in any combination by the primary care giver provided that the mother and the other employee entitled to primary care giver leave do not take these forms of paid leave concurrently.

74.5 This clause is subject to the requirements of section 173 of the PSM Act on the production of a medical certificate on the fitness for duty of the mother where these requirements are relevant.

74.6 Entitlements under this clause do not extend the maximum period of parental leave available.

75. Paid Bonding Leave

75.1 An employee is entitled to paid bonding leave for as many shifts as are required to provide 14 consecutive calendar days for bonding purposes, at the time of the birth or adoption of a child by the domestic partner.

75.2 An employee is also entitled to take as many shifts on personal leave as are required to give an additional 7 consecutive calendar days leave for bonding purposes.

75.3 The maximum combined entitlement for bonding leave is 21 consecutive calendar days from the birth date or adoption of a child by the domestic partner.

75.4 Where an employee’s domestic partner is also an employee, this leave may be taken concurrently with the domestic partner receiving paid maternity or paid primary care giver’s leave.

76. Unpaid Parental Leave

76.1 In addition to the provisions for paid maternity leave and paid primary care giver’s leave as set out in clauses 73 and 74, employees are entitled to unpaid Parental Leave. This clause should be read in conjunction with the PSM Standards.

76.2 Parental leave is without pay and does not count as service.
76.3 An employee will, on application, be granted unpaid leave for a period of up to three years following the birth or adoption of a child. This will include any period of paid or unpaid maternity leave.

76.4 An application by an employee for unpaid leave under 76.1 in addition to paid or unpaid maternity leave will only be approved where the employee agrees to be placed on the Employer’s unattached list.

76.5 Either parent may be granted unpaid parental leave if both are employees in the Agency but the leave may not be taken concurrently.

76.6 The maximum aggregate unpaid parental leave that may be approved for an employee under this clause is seven years.

Use of other forms of leave whilst on unpaid Parental Leave
76.7 An employee on unpaid parental leave may access annual leave and long service leave on full or half pay.

77. Returning to work after a period of parental leave
77.1 An employee will notify of their intention to return to work after a period of parental leave at least four weeks prior to the expiration of the leave.

77.2 An employee will be entitled to the position which they held immediately before proceeding on parental leave. In the case of an employee transferred to a safe job pursuant to clause 109, the employee will be entitled to return to the position they held immediately before such transfer.

77.3 Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the employee will be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of their former position.

78. Leave For Service With Other Agencies
78.1 The Employer may make an employee available to an organisation of a State or the Northern Territory or other government agency.

78.2 Where, under clause 78.1 the Employer makes an employee available, the Employer may grant the employee leave of absence for the period for which the employee is so made available on such terms and conditions as the Employer approves.

78.3 An employee will not be made available under clause 78.1 for a continuous period exceeding 3 years.

78.4 A period during which an employee is absent on leave granted under clause 78.2 forms part of the employee's period of service as an employee.

79. Other Leave
79.1 Other leave may be approved by the Employer, with or without pay, depending on the purpose of the leave.

79.2 Other leave provisions are set out in Annex D to this Agreement.
80. Public Holidays

80.1 Employees on Day Work to observe the following public holidays without loss of pay:

The days observed as New Year’s Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Sovereign’s Birthday, Eight Hours Day (Labour Day), Christmas Day and Boxing Day and any other day which may be declared a Public Holiday in the Australian Capital Territory under the ACT Holidays Act.

80.2 Employees on 10/14 Roster In the case of a special public holiday gazetted for the ACT an employee will be credited with ten hours recreation leave if rostered on leave or on day shift, or fourteen hours leave if rostered on a night shift (referred to in clause 31.1) commencing on the day of the public holiday.

80.3 Christmas Close Down provisions in the PSMA Standards will not apply.
PART 5 - PERFORMANCE CULTURE

Section M – Learning and Development

81. Commitment to a Performance Culture
81.1 The Employer and the UFU are committed to developing a performance culture that promotes an ethical working environment that is respected by managers and employees. This commitment recognises and rewards employees for their contribution towards the achievement of the Employer's objectives but does not permit the inclusion of performance pay.

82. Purpose and Principle Objectives
82.1 The purpose of performance management is to emphasise the relationship between corporate, team and individual responsibilities and performance and to align individual, team and organisational objectives and results.

83. Performance Management Schemes
83.1 The Employer and UFU agree to implement a performance management scheme. Implementation of the scheme will commence by the application of the scheme to employees at FB 7 and FB 8 and then progressively through to FB 2. The scheme will be monitored by the FBCC.

83.2 The Employer and UFU will jointly review any proposed agency performance management scheme and its application within the Brigade. Where necessary, the scheme may be modified to reflect any specialist requirements of the Brigade.

83.3 All employees, except those on probation, will participate in the Performance Feedback and/or Personal Development Scheme introduced by the Employer. The Employer will consult with employees and the UFU on any proposed performance management scheme.

83.4 Processes will be implemented to ensure all employees have regular opportunities to discuss their career aspirations, plans and training needs with their supervisor.

83.5 The performance management scheme must be applied in accordance with the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness and in a manner that promotes the values and general principles of the Brigade and the Employer.

83.6 The Employer and the UFU will consult on any proposed changes to performance management schemes in the Brigade.

84. Reward and Recognition
84.1 The Employer is committed to achieving an environment where employees feel valued for the contribution they make to achieving organisational goals. The most effective form of recognition is timely and appropriate feedback.

84.2 The Employer and UFU will consult on effective ways of recognising and rewarding the achievement of individuals and work groups. Any outcomes of this consultation will only be implemented following agreement between the Employer and UFU.

85. Learning and Development Arrangements
85.1 The Employer and UFU are committed to quality learning and development for employees as provided for in the ACTFB and ACTPS Learning and Development Framework.

85.2 To effectively implement this Framework, the following arrangements will apply:
(a) Employees will be consulted through the FBCC on the development and finalisation of the ACTFB Learning and Development Plans, as required under the Learning and Development Framework;
(b) The Employer and the UFU will agree annually on the key Learning and Development priorities required under the Framework and an equitable use of resources to address these priorities; and
(c) The Employer and the UFU will agree on learning and development strategies appropriate for the different categories of employees within the Brigade
(d) Employees may participate in other Directorate learning and development programs.

85.3 For the purposes of this clause, resources include but are not limited to:
(a) Employees;
(b) Time;
(c) Funding (where required); and
(d) Equipment.

86. Attendance at Courses and Seminars
86.1 For the purpose of assisting employees in giving effect to this Agreement, leave will be granted to employees to attend short training courses or seminars on the following conditions:
(a) that operating requirements permit the grant of leave;
(b) that the scope, content and level of the short courses are such as to contribute to a better understanding of human resource management issues that may arise under this Agreement;
(c) leave granted under this clause will be with full pay, not including shift and penalty payments or overtime; and
(d) each employee will not be granted more than 15 days/shifts leave in any calendar year.

86.2 If the employee has applied for leave under clause 86.1 and the application was rejected because of operational requirements, approval of any subsequent application for leave by the employee under clause 86.1 will not be withheld unreasonably, provided that the employee gives the employer at least 14 days notice in writing.

86.3 Leave granted for this purpose will count as service for all purposes.
Section N - Managing Under Performance

87. Objectives and Application

87.1 Under this Section, procedures are established for managing under-performance by an employee.

87.2 This Section applies to all employees other than an employee on probation.

87.3 In this Section employee means an employee, other than an employee on probation who has been engaged for a continuous unbroken period of two years or more.

87.4 The objectives of these procedures are to provide advice and support to an employee whose performance is below standard and to provide a fair, prompt and transparent framework for action to be taken where an employee continues to perform below expected standard.

87.5 Concerns about unsatisfactory work performance should be raised by the manager with the employee at the time the concerns arise. The manager should offer advice and support to the employee to overcome these concerns. The manager should inform the employee that the following procedures might be invoked if the work performance continues to be unsatisfactory.

87.6 These procedures must be applied in accordance with the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness and in a manner that promotes the values and general principles of the ACTPS.

87.7 Unless specifically referred to in this Section, the procedures outlined in this Section apply to the exclusion of provisions contained in sections 139 to 147 of the PSM Act and any inefficiency procedures contained in the PSM Standards.

87.8 This Section sets out the manner in which decisions and actions taken in relation to the management of under-performing employees may be reviewed. These procedures will apply to the exclusion of the rights of appeal and review under Part 11 of the PSM Act and the internal review procedures (Section Q) of this Agreement.

87.9 In order to ensure that these procedures operate in a fair and transparent manner, the manager will be responsible for making written or audio records of all relevant discussions under these procedures. The employee should be given the opportunity to comment on any records before signing them.

87.10 The Employer must adhere to record keeping and record disposal requirements of the Territory Records Act 2002 and the associated Territory Administrative Records Disposal Schedule.

Step One: Action Plan

87.11 Where a manager considers that an employee’s work performance is not satisfactory and the manager has previously discussed concerns about the employee’s performance with the employee and the problem continues or recurs, the manager will inform the employee in writing of this assessment and the reasons for it. The employee will be invited by the manager to provide the manager with written comments on this advice, including any reasons that may have contributed to the recent standard of work performance of the employee.

87.12 After taking into account the comments from the employee, the manager must prepare an action plan designed to improve the work performance of the employee.

87.13 This action plan will be developed by the manager in consultation with the employee.
87.14 The manager will invite the employee to have an employee representative to be present at discussions on developing the action plan and allow reasonable opportunity for this to be arranged.

87.15 The action plan will:
(a) Identify the expected standard of work required of the employee on an on-going basis;
(b) Develop training and development strategies that the employee should undertake, if relevant;
(c) Outline the potential implications if the employee does not meet the expected standard; and
(d) Specify an assessment process and period for the action plan (the action plan period), which should not normally be less than one month and should not exceed three months.

87.16 Any current performance agreement for the employee will be suspended during the period of the action plan. Any incremental advancement for the employee will be suspended during the action plan period.

Step Two: Regular Assessment
87.17 During the action plan period, the manager will make regular written assessments (desirably every fortnight) of the employees work performance under the action plan. The employee will be given an opportunity to provide written comments on these assessments.

87.18 If at the end of the action plan period, the manager considers that further time is needed for a fair assessment to be made, then the manager may extend the action plan period by up to a further three months. The manager will inform the employee in writing of this decision before the end of the action plan period.

Step Three: Final Assessment/Report
87.19 If at the end of the action plan period, the manager assesses the work performance of the employee as satisfactory, no further action will be taken under these procedures. The manager will inform the employee in writing of this conclusion.

87.20 If at the end of the action plan period, the manager assesses the work performance of the employee as not satisfactory, the manager will provide an assessment report to the Employer.

Step Four: Under-Performance Action
87.21 The Employer will advise the employee in writing:
(a) Of the assessment and reasons for the manager's assessment;
(b) Of the action or actions (under-performance action) proposed to be taken;
(c) That the employee is invited to respond in writing to the proposed action within a specified period (not to be less than 24 hours or more than 7 days); and
(d) Explaining the appeal mechanisms available under the Agreement.

87.22 The Employer may take one or more of the following actions under these procedures:
(a) Transfer to other duties (at or below current salary);
(b) Deferral of Increment
(c) Reduction in incremental point;
(d) Temporary or permanent reduction in classification and salary; and
(e) Termination of employment.

87.23 At any time after 7 days from the date the Employer informed the employee under clause 87.21, the Employer may, after taking into consideration any written comments from the employee, take any of the under-performance actions outlined in the information provided to the employee under clause 87.21. The Employer will inform the employee in writing of this decision.

87.24 At any time in these procedures, the employee may elect to be retired on the grounds of inefficiency.

88. Appeal Rights

88.1 The employee has the right under Section R to appeal any under-performance action taken under this Section, except action to terminate the employees employment.

88.2 The employee may have an entitlement to bring an action under Chapter 3 Part 3-2 or Chapter 6 Part 6-4 of the FW Act in respect of any termination of employment under this Agreement. This will be the sole right of review of such an action.
Section O - Misconduct and Discipline

Note: To the extent of any inconsistency, the provisions of Section O prevail over the PSM Act. If any agreement provisions contradict the PSM, the relevant parts of this agreement prevail.

89. Objectives and Application
89.1 This Section establishes procedures for managing misconduct or alleged misconduct by an employee.

89.2 This Section does not apply to employees on probation.

89.3 The objective of these procedures is to encourage the practical and expeditious resolution of misconduct issues in the workplace.

89.4 These procedures must be applied in accordance with the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness and in a manner that promotes the values and general principles of the ACTPS.

89.5 These procedures apply to the exclusion of provisions contained in Part 9 of the PSM Act (other than section 218 and section 220) and Part 6.3 of the ACT Public Sector Management Standards, except where any of these provisions are specifically provided for in this Section.

90. Allegations of Misconduct
90.1 In cases where misconduct is alleged, the employer will gather sufficient information in a timely manner to determine whether the seriousness of the matter warrants investigation by the Employer under clause 92. The employee will be informed of the allegations unless the employer considers it inappropriate to do so.

90.2 For purposes of this Section, misconduct consists of any of the following:
(a) The employee fails to meet the obligations set out in section 9 of the PSM Act (this may include bullying and harassment or discrimination);
(b) The employee engages in conduct that has, or is likely to, bring the Employer or ACTPS into disrepute;
(c) The employee returns to duty after a period of unauthorised absence and does not offer a satisfactory reason on return to work;
(d) The employee is convicted of a criminal offence or where a court finds that an employee has committed an offence but a conviction is not recorded, taking into account the circumstances and seriousness of the offence, the duties of the employee and the interests of the ACTPS and/or of the Employer;
(e) The employee fails to notify the Employer of criminal charges in accordance with clause 96.

90.3 In cases where serious misconduct is alleged, the Employer may inform the employee and may immediately transfer the employee to other duties, re-allocate duties away from the employee or suspend the employee in accordance with Clause 95 while the alleged misconduct is investigated.

90.4 In deciding whether misconduct is or might be serious misconduct for the purposes of clause 90.3 the Employer will have regard to the kinds of conduct described as ‘serious misconduct’ in Regulation 1.07 of the Fair Work Regulations.
91. Determination of misconduct/allegations
91.1 If, after considering the gathered information, the employer is of the opinion that the alleged misconduct has not occurred or is not sufficiently serious to warrant an investigation, the employer will inform the employee/s concerned that no discipline action will be taken and an investigation is not necessary.

91.2 If, after considering the gathered information, the employer is of the opinion that the allegation of misconduct has occurred but the matter is likely to be resolved informally, the employer will discuss the particular behaviour with the employee as soon as possible. The discussion will set out clear expectations of future behaviour. The employer will retain a record of the discussion e.g. diary entry. The employer may also choose to organise mediation between relevant persons.

91.3 If, after considering the gathered information, the Employer is of the opinion that the alleged misconduct requires an investigation it will be dealt with in accordance with clause 92.

92. Investigations
92.1 Upon becoming aware of possible instances of misconduct that cannot be addressed at clause 91, the Employer will:
   (a) Inform the employee in writing of the nature of the alleged misconduct and the possible implications of the misconduct including the discipline actions available;
   (b) Inform the Human Resources manager in the Directorate;
   (c) Give the employee a reasonable opportunity to respond to allegations, in writing and/or at a scheduled interview, before forming a conclusion;
   (d) Provide the employee with at least 24 hours written notice prior to the conducting an interview;
   (e) Advise the employee they may have an employee representative present during the interview to support the employee and will allow reasonable opportunity for this to be arranged;
   (f) Provide a record of the interview to the employee to correct any inaccuracies and provide comments before signing the record. If the employee elects not to sign the record, then details of the offer will be noted.

92.2 The Employer should as soon as practicable take any further steps they consider necessary to establish the facts of the allegations.

92.3 The Employer will make a determination on the balance of probabilities as to whether misconduct has occurred.

92.4 If the Employer determines that the allegations are unsubstantiated they will notify the employee of this finding in writing and advise that no discipline - action will be taken under these procedures.

92.5 Subject to clause 89.4, in cases where serious misconduct is found to have occurred, the Employer may immediately terminate the employee’s employment without giving the employee 8 days within which to respond to the proposed discipline action under clause 93.3(d).

93. Discipline Action
93.1 Where, as a result of an investigation, the Employer considers discipline action is appropriate, one or more of the following actions may be taken:
   (a) Counselling of the employee;
   (b) A written admonishment;
   (c) A first or final written warning;
(d) A financial penalty;
(e) Transfer to other duties (at or below current salary);
(f) Deferral of advancement or promotion to the next rank
(g) A temporary or permanent reduction in classification/salary; or
(h) Termination of employment.

93.2 Discipline action taken under these procedures must be proportionate to the degree of misconduct concerned. In determining the appropriate discipline action to be taken, the following factors must be considered:
(a) The nature and seriousness of the misconduct;
(b) The degree of relevance to the employee's duties or to the reputation of the Employer;
(c) The circumstances of the misconduct;
(d) Any mitigating factors; and
(e) The previous employment history and the general conduct of the employee.

93.3 Before taking disciplinary action, the Employer will advise the employee in writing of:

(a) The decision as to whether the misconduct has been found to have occurred;
(b) The reasons for arriving at this decision;
(c) The discipline action(s) proposed;
(d) The period during which the employee has to respond to the proposed discipline action (a minimum of 8 days); and
(e) The appeal mechanisms available under this Agreement.

93.4 After considering the employee’s response to the proposed action, or if the employee has not responded at any time during the period outlined in (d), the Employer may take disciplinary action. The Employer will inform the employee in writing of:

(a) their final decision regarding discipline action to be taken;
(b) the date of effect and/or, if relevant, the cessation of the action;
(c) the appeal mechanisms that are available under this Agreement.

94. Counselling

94.1 In cases where the Employer considers counselling to be the appropriate discipline action, the Employer will create a formal record of the counselling or action plan which will include details about the ways in which the employee’s conduct needs to change or improve and the time frames within which these changes or improvements must occur.

94.2 A record will be made and provided to the employee. The employee will be given an opportunity to correct any inaccuracies and provide comments before signing the record. If the employee elects not to sign the record, then details of the offer will be clearly noted.

94.3 The Employer will invite the employee to have an employee representative present at the counselling - and will allow reasonable opportunity for this to be arranged.
94.4 Where the Employer considers that the employee’s conduct has not improved following counselling given in accordance with clause 94.1, one or more of the discipline actions set out in clause 93.1 may be taken in relation to the employee, subject the requirements of clause 89.4.

95. Suspension

95.1 Subject to these procedures, the Employer may suspend an employee with pay or without pay where the Employer is satisfied that it is in the public interest, the interests of the ACTPS or the interests of the Employer that the employee be suspended while the alleged misconduct is investigated.

95.2 The employer will not normally suspend an employee without first informing the employee of the reasons for the proposed suspension and giving the employee the opportunity to be heard. However, the Employer may suspend an employee first and then give the employee the reasons for the suspension and an opportunity to be heard, where, in the Employer’s opinion, this is appropriate in the circumstances.

95.3 In circumstances where an employee is suspended without pay:

(a) The suspension will not be for more than 30 days, unless exceptional circumstances apply;
(b) The employee may apply to the Employer for permission to seek alternate employment outside the ACTPS for the period of the suspension or until the permission is revoked;
(c) In cases of demonstrated hardship, the employee may access accrued long service leave and/or recreation leave;
(d) The employee may apply to the Employer for the suspension to be with pay on the grounds of demonstrated hardship.

95.4 The suspension will be reviewed every 30 days unless exceptional circumstances apply.

95.5 An employee suspended without pay and who is later acquitted of the criminal offence, or found not to have been guilty of the misconduct:

(a) is entitled to be repaid the amount by which the employee's salary was reduced; and
(b) is entitled to be credited with the period of long service or recreation leave that was taken.

95.6 Where an employee is suspended and later found guilty of a criminal offence (whether or not a conviction is recorded), or is found guilty of misconduct and is dismissed because of the offence or misconduct, a period of suspension under this clause does not count as service for any purpose, unless the Employer determines otherwise.

96. Criminal Charges

96.1 An employee must advise the Employer in writing of any criminal charges laid against the employee, where the employee has reasonable grounds for believing that the interests of the Agency or of the ACTPS may be adversely affected, taking into account:

(a) The circumstances and seriousness of the alleged criminal offence;
(b) The employee’s obligations under section 9 of the PSM Act;
(c) The effective management of the employee’s work area;
(d) The integrity and good reputation of the ACTPS and the Directorate; and
(e) The relevance of the offence to the employee’s duties.

96.2 Where criminal charges are laid against an employee and the interests of the Agency or of the ACTPS may be adversely affected, the Employer may suspend the employee in accordance with the suspension arrangements under clause 95.

96.3 If an employee is convicted of a criminal offence, or a court finds that an employee has committed such an offence but a conviction is not recorded, the employee will provide a written statement regarding the circumstances of the offence to the Employer within 7 calendar days of the conviction or the finding.

96.4 Where an employee is convicted of a criminal offence, or a court finds that an employee has committed such an offence but a conviction is not recorded, and the conviction or finding has adversely affected the interests of the Employer or the ACTPS, the Employer may take discipline action against the employee in accordance with clause 93.

97. Right of Appeal

97.1 An employee has the right under Section R appeal against any discipline action taken under this Section, and against any decision taken under this Section to suspend the employee without pay, except action to terminate the employee's employment.

97.2 An employee may have an entitlement to bring an action under Chapter 3 Part 3-2 or Chapter 6 Part 6-4 of the FW Act in respect of any decision under this section to terminate the employee's employment. This will be the sole right of review of such a decision.

97.3 The appeal procedures under this Section apply to the exclusion of the rights of appeal and review under the PSM Act and the internal review procedures contained in Section Q of this Agreement.
WORKING RELATIONSHIPS

Section P - Communication and Consultation

98. Consultation
98.1 The Employer and the UFU are committed to effective consultation and employee participation in decisions that affect an employee’s employment. This is essential to the successful management of change.

98.2 Where there are proposals by the Employer to introduce changes in the organisation or to existing work practices, or trial(s) referred to in this Agreement, or implement new policy or make changes to existing policies, the Employer will consult with affected employees and the UFU.

98.3 This will involve the Employer providing relevant information to assist the employees and the UFU to understand the reasons for the proposed changes and their likely impact so that the employees and the employee representative(s) are able to meaningfully contribute to the decision making process.

98.4 The Employer will develop, in consultation with the UFU, a policy for internal communication processes, including a framework for responding to correspondence.

98.5 For the purpose of providing effective consultation:

(a) adequate time will be provided to employees and employee representatives to consult with the Employer; and for the UFU to consult with affected employees.

(b) the Employer and UFU agree to the establishment of consultative arrangements. These arrangements will include the following:

(ii) Continuation of the ACT Fire & Rescue Consultative Committee (FBCC). This Committee will:

- monitor the operation of this Agreement;
- discuss and develop policy to support this Agreement;
- meet at least quarterly;
- consist of the elected employee representatives and management representatives;
- have terms of reference agreed by the members of the FBCC;
- nominate representatives to participate in the Agency Consultative Committee(s);
- have arrangements for the timely provision of minutes from each meeting; and

(ii) the establishment, where so agreed, of additional levels of consultation such as a Workplace Consultative Committee (WCC). Where established, a WCC will:

- operate at the local level to deal with workplace specific issues, before they may be raised with the FBCC
- have membership agreed by the Employer and UFU and will include at least one employee representative;

(c) existing local consultative arrangements will remain in place until they are replaced by the new consultative arrangements.
99. Dispute Avoidance/Settlement Procedures

99.1 It is in the interests of all employees, the Employer and the UFU that the integrity of the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement are maintained. The objective of these procedures is the prevention and resolution of disputes about matters arising under this Agreement, including disputes about the interpretation or implementation of the Agreement, and the application of the National Employment Standards.

99.2 For the purposes of this clause, except where the contrary intention appears, the term parties refers to ‘parties to the dispute’.

99.3 The parties to the Agreement agree to take reasonable internal steps to prevent disputes and explore all avenues to seek resolution of disputes.

99.4 Pre-dispute work arrangements and patterns will apply during the dispute resolution process unless there is reasonable concern by the employee about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety. In these circumstances, employees will not work in an unsafe environment but, where appropriate, may accept reassignment to alternative suitable work consistent with their classification levels in the meantime.

99.5 A party may be assisted at any stage of the process by a representative of their choice (including an employee representative), and all relevant persons will deal with any such representative in good faith. This assistance includes notifying or advising any person or body of the existence of a dispute and speaking on behalf of the employee(s).

Resolution Process

99.6 In the event there is a dispute about matters arising under this Agreement, including a dispute about the interpretation or implementation of the Agreement the following steps will be applied.

Step 1: A dispute about the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement is identified by an employee or employees and notified to the manager.

Step 2: This step will commence within 7 working days of notification of the dispute or a longer timeframe agreed to by the parties if operational circumstances preclude commencement of this step. Where appropriate, the relevant employee(s) or their representative will discuss the matter with management. Should the dispute not be resolved, it will proceed to the next appropriate management level for resolution.

In instances where the dispute remains unresolved, the appropriate level of management and employee(s) or their representative(s) will be notified and a conference will be arranged and a course of action for resolution will be discussed.

Step 3: If the parties have not been able to resolve the dispute, the dispute may be referred by either party, or their representative, to FWA for mediation and/or conciliation and, if these processes fail, arbitration.

Role and Powers of FWA

99.7 For any dispute that is referred to FWA consistent with Step 3 of clause 99.6, FWA has the role and powers set out in clauses 99.8 to 99.16.
99.8 For the purposes of the FW Act, the parties agree that FWA may give all such directions and do all such things as are necessary for the just resolution or determination of the dispute, subject to Chapter 5 Part 5-1 Division 3 of the FW Act. This may include, but is not limited to:

(a) inform itself in any manner that it thinks appropriate;
(b) taking verbal or written evidence on oath or affirmation, in chief and by cross examination;
(c) conducting a hearing, including a private hearing;
(d) holding a ballot of affected employees where in the opinion of the FWA such ballot may assist in the resolution of the dispute;
(e) meeting with any party separately during a conciliation but with the knowledge of the other party;
(f) summoning to appear before the FWA any party to the dispute, witnesses or persons whose presence the FWA believes would help in the resolution of the dispute;
(g) requesting the attendance before the FWA of any witness or person whose presence the FWA believes would assist in the resolution of the dispute;
(h) receiving documents and other material related to the dispute and compelling the production of documents and other material that relate to the dispute in hard or electronic form;
(i) determining the dispute in the absence of any party or person who has been notified of the dispute or who has been summoned to appear;
(j) convening a compulsory conference;
(k) giving directions in the course of or for the purpose of procedural matters relating to the dispute;
(l) making recommendations to the parties for the resolution of the dispute;
(m) deciding when conciliating is ended and arbitration is to begin;
(n) making interim decisions; and
(o) making final decisions.

99.9 To avoid doubt, the FWA does not have the power to:

(a) make an award in relation to the matter in dispute;
(b) make an order in relation to the matter in dispute; or
(c) appoint a board of reference.

99.10 In exercising any of the functions or powers set out above, the FWA will:

(a) apply the rules of natural justice, and ensure that the parties to a dispute have a reasonable opportunity to be heard;
(b) have regard to the FWA established principles for dealing with disputes and precedent decisions, including any precedent decisions in relation to the interpretation and application of this Agreement; and
(c) act according to equity and good conscience, and consider the merits of the case without regard to technicalities and legal form.

99.11 The FWA may dismiss or refrain from hearing a matter or part of a matter, which in the view of the FWA is vexatious.
99.12 A person may be assisted and represented at any stage in the dispute process on the same basis as applies to representation before FWA under section 596 of the FW Act.

99.13 All persons involved in the mediation or conciliation or arbitration shall participate in good faith.

99.14 To assist in the decision making process, the proceedings before the FWA may be recorded and transcribed in FWA.

99.15 Any decision or direction the FWA makes in relation to the dispute will be in writing and will be accepted by all affected persons, and the parties agree to comply with any decision or direction, be it final or procedural. Where relevant, a decision will be accepted as settlement of the dispute and will be complied with, subject to any right of appeal or review, which might exist.

99.16 The parties agree that any decision which alters the rights or responsibilities of the Employer, employees or UFU are enforceable in a Court of competent jurisdiction.

99.17 Notwithstanding the above, the parties may agree to submit the dispute to a body or person other than FWA. To avoid doubt, an attempt to reach such an agreement is not a condition precedent to referring the dispute to FWA. Where the parties agree to submit the dispute to another body or person, the parties agree that:

(a) all of the above provisions apply, unless the parties agree otherwise;
(b) references to FWA in the above provisions will be read as a reference to the agreed body or person; and
(c) all obligations and requirements on the parties and other relevant persons in the above provisions shall be complied with.

Appeal of Decision or Direction

99.18 A Party to a dispute may apply to a Full Bench to appeal a decision of FWA determining the dispute within 21 days of FWA making that decision.

99.19 Where a party to a dispute has applied to appeal a decision or direction of the FWA pursuant to clause 99.18, a Full Bench or Presidential Member may, on such terms as the Full Bench or Presidential Member consider appropriate, direct that the operation of the whole or a part of the decision or direction concerned be stayed pending the determination of the appeal or until further decision or direction of the Full Bench or Presidential Member.

99.20 The Full Bench or Presidential Member will determine the appeal by conducting a review of the evidence of material before FWA at first instance, and the reasons for the decision or direction given by FWA at first instance. The Full Bench or Presidential Member may, with the agreement of the parties to the dispute, receive further evidence. The determination of an appeal may not proceed by way of a new hearing (hearing de novo).

99.21 On hearing of the appeal, the Full Bench may do one or more of the following:

(a) confirm, quash or vary the decision or direction concerned; or
(b) direct the member of FWA, whose decision or direction is under appeal, or another member of FWA, to take further action to deal with the subject matter of the decision or direction in accordance with the directions of the Full Bench.
Section P – Communication and Consultation

99.22 In dealing with the appeal the Full Bench may exercise the functions in clause 99.8, other than subclauses (c), (e) and (j). The parties to the dispute agree that clauses 99.8 to 99.16 apply.

Note - reference to subclause (c) needs to be limited to private hearings only.

99.23 The terms of clause 99.15 will apply to decisions or directions made by the Presidential Member or Full Bench.

100. Freedom of Association
100.1 The Employer recognises that employees are free to choose whether or not to join a union. Irrespective of that choice, employees will not be disadvantaged or discriminated against in respect of the employees’ employment under this Agreement. The Agency recognises that employees who choose to be members of a union have the right to choose to have their industrial interests represented by the union.

100.2 Employees in negotiations of any kind are entitled to negotiate collectively where they so choose.

100.3 Employees engaging in negotiations of any kind are entitled to be represented by a representative of their choice. The ACT Government will deal with any such representative in good faith.

101. Co-Operation and Facilities for Employee Representatives
101.1 For the purpose of ensuring that an employee representative, who is an employee of the Employer, can effectively fulfil their role under this Agreement, the Employer and UFU agree to the provisions in this clause.

101.2 Reasonable access to Agency facilities, including the internal courier service, access to the ACT Government communication systems, telephone, facsimile, photocopying, access to meeting rooms and storage space, will be provided to employee representatives to assist them to fulfil their obligations, duties and responsibilities having regard to the Employer's statutory, operational requirements and resource issues.

101.3 In addition to the Agency facilities outlined in clause 101.2, where available, an employee representatives who is an employee of the, will be able to establish designated Outlook public folders which will provide a collaborative electronic workspace to improve the flow of information.

101.4 The use of Agency facilities will be in accordance with published government policies and for matters other than for industrial action.

101.5 Employee representatives, who are employees of the Employer, will be provided with adequate paid time, as required by the responsibilities of the position, to undertake their duties to represent employees during normal working hours. While these duties would normally be expected to be performed within the workplace, on occasions the employee representative may be required to conduct these duties external to the workplace.

102. Work Organisation
102.1 The employee agrees to carry out all lawful and reasonable directions of the employer according to the requirements of the work and the employee’s skill, experience and competence, in accordance with this Agreement, and without deskilling the employee.
102.2 The employee will not, unless this is done in the course of the employee’s duties or as required by law or by the employer, use or disclose to any person any confidential information about the employer’s business that becomes known to the employee during their employment.

102.3 The Employer will not reveal to any person any medical, financial or personal details of the employee that the employer may have obtained, except with the permission of the employee or where the employer is under a legal obligation to do so.

103. Right of Existing and New Employees to Representation in the Workplace

103.1 The Employer acknowledges the rights of its employees to be represented and to meet with their representatives in the workplace. The Employer recognises the legitimate right of the union(s) to represent its employees who are members, or eligible to become members of the union(s).

103.2 The FW Act prescribes the purpose and manner under which the union(s) may exercise right of entry in the workplace. The Employer will grant the union(s) access in accordance with the FW Act.

103.3 In addition, the Employer will:
   (a) allow union officials and employees, who are permit holders, to enter workplaces for normal union business or to represent employees, to meet with management or members and to distribute or post material, provided that work is not disrupted;
   (b) allow the union(s) to meet with new employees who are members, or who are eligible to become members, of the union(s), at a time during normal working hours which the union(s) and the Employer agree upon, and of which the Employer will advise the employees;
   (c) provide all new employees with some form of induction program, including an induction package containing information about the union(s) which the union(s) has given the Employer; and
   (d) invite the union(s) to attend any face to face induction of new employees, the details of which the Employer will advise to the union(s) contract officer or other nominated person with reasonable notice. Such attendance will be included as an integral part of the induction process and be for the purpose of delivering an information presentation including recruitment information to new employees.

103.4 For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in clause 103.3 should be taken as conferring a right of entry that is contrary to, or for which there is otherwise, a right of entry under the FW Act.

104. Co-operation and Facilities for Unions and Other Employee Representatives.

104.1 For the purpose of ensuring that union(s) and other employee representatives who are employees of the Brigade can effectively fulfil their employee representative role under this Agreement, the following provisions will apply.

104.2 Reasonable access to Brigade facilities, including the internal courier service, access to the ACT Government communication systems, telephone, facsimile, photocopying, access to meeting rooms and storage space, will be provided to union(s) and other employee representatives to assist them to fulfil their representative obligations, duties and responsibilities having regard to the Employer’s statutory, operational requirements and resources.

104.3 In addition to the Brigade facilities outlined in subclause 104.2, where available, a union or employee representative who is an employee of the Brigade will be able to establish designated Outlook public folders which will provide a collaborative electronic workspace to improve the flow of information.

104.4 The use of Brigade facilities will be in accordance with published whole-of-government policies and for matters other than for industrial action.

104.5 A union or other employee representative who is an employee of the Brigade will be provided with adequate paid time, as required by the responsibilities of the position, to undertake duties to represent employees during normal working hours. While these duties would normally be expected to be performed within the workplace, on occasions the union or employee representative may be required to conduct these duties external to the workplace.

105. Attendance at Industrial Relations Courses and Seminars

105.1 For the purpose of assisting employees in gaining a better understanding of industrial relations issues relating to this Agreement, leave will be granted to employees to attend recognised short training courses or seminars on the following conditions:

(a) that operating requirements permit the grant of leave;
(b) that the scope, content and level of the short courses contribute to the better understanding of industrial relations issues;
(c) leave granted under this clause will be with full pay, not including shift and penalty payments or overtime; and
(d) each employee will not be granted more than fifteen days/shifts leave in any calendar year.

105.2 If the employee has applied for leave under subclause 105.1 and the application was rejected because of operational requirements, approval of any subsequent application for leave by the employee under subclause 105.1 will not be withheld unreasonably, provided that the employee gives the manager/supervisor at least fourteen days/shifts notice in writing.

105.3 The Employer will accept any short course conducted or accredited by a relevant employee organisation (for example, the Australian Council of Trade Unions or the ACT Trades and Labour Council) as a course to which subclause 105.1 applies.

105.4 Leave granted for this purpose will count as service for all purposes.

106. Diversity in the Workplace

106.1 The Employer recognises and encourages the contribution that people with diverse backgrounds, experiences and skills can make to the workplace. The Employer aims to ensure that this diversity is used in appropriate employee contribution to effective decision making and delivery of client service.

106.2 The Employer will work with employees to prevent and eliminate discrimination on the basis of race, colour, sex, sexual preference, age, physical or mental disability, marital status, family responsibilities, pregnancy, religion, political opinion, national extraction or social origin. Bullying and harassment and discrimination of any kind will not be tolerated. Accordingly, if the Employer is made aware of instances, or reported instances, of bullying and harassment or discrimination, the Employer will investigate the concerns as soon as possible.

106.3 The investigation referred to in clause 106.2 will be carried out in accordance with the processes described in Section O Misconduct and Discipline.

107. Occupational Health and Safety

107.1 The Employer and UFU are committed to promoting, achieving and maintaining the highest levels of health and safety for all Brigade employees.

107.2 The Employer will take all reasonable steps and precautions to provide a healthy, safe and secure workplace for the employee.

107.3 The Employer and the employee will act in a manner that is consistent with the Work Safety Act 2008.

107.4 For the purposes of workplace health and safety and the safety of firefighters, an operational pumper will be staffed by a pumper crew, unless for maintenance purposes.
107.5 To maintain employee safety and effective service to the community, only fully equipped recall pumpers will be used to respond to incidents. For the purpose of this clause, fully equipped means in accordance with Brigade policy.

108. Alcohol and Other Drugs in the Workplace
108.1 Where a manager has concerns that an employee may be affected by alcohol and/or other drugs, they may direct the employee to be relieved from duty on personal leave. Arrangements may be implemented in relation to the whole of government drug and alcohol policy.

109. Transfer to a safe job
109.1 The Employer is committed to facilitating safe working arrangements for expectant mothers. Where an employee is pregnant and, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue at her present work, the employee will, if the employer deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of maternity leave.

109.2 If the transfer to a safe job is not practicable, the employee may elect, or the employer may require the employee to commence parental leave for such period as is certified necessary by a registered medical practitioner.

110. Privatisation
110.1 In order to promote job security of employees, it is agreed that the privatisation of a government entity may only occur where:
   (a) The entity does not perform a role central to the functions of government; and
   (b) Disadvantaged groups would not be negatively affected by the privatisation; and
   (c) A social impact statement has been completed which indicates that there is a demonstrated public benefit from the sale.

110.2 In the event that privatisation of the Agency or a service or services currently supplied by an Agency is under consideration, consultation will occur on the implications for employees and the Employer from these proposals.

110.3 Where such privatisation is under consideration, the Employer will provide the necessary reasonable resources to develop an in-house bid and this bid will be prepared either off-site or on-site as determined by the Employer and subject to consideration on equal terms to any other bid. An independent probity auditor will be appointed by the Employer to oversee the assessment of the in-house bid.

111. Superannuation
111.1 The Government will, through the Chief Minister and Cabinet Directorate, consult with unions and employees on changes to superannuation legislation that may be proposed by the Commonwealth.
Section Q  - Internal Review Procedures

112. Objectives and Application

112.1 Under this section, procedures are established for employees to seek a review of management actions that affect them.

112.2 These procedures must be applied in accordance with the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness and in a manner that promotes the values and general principles of the ACTPS.

112.3 These procedures apply to all employees covered by this Agreement.

112.4 The provisions of this section will apply to the exclusion of the grievance and promotion/temporary performance appeal provisions contained in the PSM Act.

112.5 For the purposes of this section, an action includes a decision and a refusal or failure to make a decision.

113. Decisions and Actions Excluded

113.1 The following decisions and actions are excluded from the rights of an employee to seek a review under procedures set out in this section (note this does not preclude the right to seek review under other processes):

(a) actions regarding the policy, strategy, nature, scope, resourcing or direction of the ACTPS and agencies (see Section P of this Agreement for consultation on these actions);
(b) actions arising under Commonwealth or ACT legislation that concern domestic or international security matters;
(c) actions regarding superannuation (see relevant superannuation legislation for complaints and appeals, in particular the Superannuation Industry Superannuation Supervision Act 1993 and the Superannuation (Resolution of Complaints) Act 1993);
(d) actions regarding workers’ compensation (see the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988 for reviews and appeals);
(e) decisions to terminate the appointment of an officer on probation;
(f) decisions on classification of an office;
(g) actions arising from the discipline procedures of this Agreement (for appeals about decisions to take discipline action see subclause 119.2 of this Agreement);
(h) actions arising from the under-performance procedures of this Agreement (see subclause 119.2 of this Agreement for appeals on these decisions);
(i) actions regarding the setting of rates of pay or conditions of employment under an award or agreement made under the FW Act, or under the PSM Act or Standards;
(j) decisions that another employee perform the duties of a higher office for periods up to and including six months (see the PSM Act);
(k) decisions that another employee perform the duties of a higher classification (with a pay less than that of a Senior Officer Grade C or equivalent classification) for periods greater than six months if the vacancy was advertised (see subclause 119.2 of this Agreement for appeals on these decisions);
(l) decisions to promote or appoint an employee or to engage an employee on a temporary contract (see subclause 119.2 of this Agreement for appeals on promotion or appointment decisions);
(m) decisions to transfer or promote another employee to an advertised vacancy where the officer or employee was not an applicant (see the PSM Act);
(n) decisions to transfer an employee within the Agency (see the PSM Act).
Employees may seek a review under this section of the processes leading to decisions under (k), (l) and (n).

Initiating a Review

Unless it would not be appropriate, an employee should first discuss their concerns about an action or decision with the relevant manager/supervisor with a view to resolving the matter within the workplace before initiating a review under these procedures.

An employee, or the employee’s union or other employee representative, has the right to apply for a review of any action or decision in relation to the employee’s employment, unless the action or decision is specifically excluded under this section.

An employee, or the employee’s union or other employee representative, may initiate a review under this section by making an application to the Employer that:

(a) is in writing; and
(b) identifies the action which the employee seeks a review of, and the effect on the employee of that action; and
(c) describes the outcome sought.

Employer Powers and Responsibilities

Where appropriate, and agreed by the employee who made the application under clause 114, or the employee’s union or other employee representative, the Employer must consider mediation as an option before arranging for a full investigation under subclause 115.3. The mediator will be agreed between the employee and the Employer.

In the event that mediation does take place and that it resolves the issues raised in the application, then no further action is required under these procedures. In that event a formal written statement that the issue has been resolved must be signed by the employee and the Employer.

Subject to subclauses 115.1 and 115.2, the Employer must arrange for an application made under clause 114 to be investigated by an independent person (the nominee) who may be:

(a) a suitably skilled Directorate employee whose classification is Senior Officer Grade C or equivalent or higher who was not involved in the original action and who is agreed by the employee or the employee’s union or other employee representative, such agreement not to be withheld unreasonably;
(b) a person agreed by the Brigade Consultative Committee nominated from a panel of providers approved by the Commissioner for Public Administration; or
(c) a suitably skilled employee whose classification is Senior Officer Grade C or equivalent or higher from another ACTPS Directorate and who is agreed by the employee or the employee’s union or other employee representative, such agreement not to be withheld unreasonably.

The Employer may determine the process under which an application is reviewed, subject to the principles set out in subclause 115.5.

The nominee must have due regard to the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness and act with as little formality and as quickly as practicable consistent with a fair and proper consideration of the issues. This includes but is not limited to:

(a) fully informing the employee of all relevant issues and providing access to all relevant documents; and
(b) providing reasonable opportunity for the employee to respond; and
(c) advising the employee of the employee’s rights to representation.

The nominee may recommend to the Employer that an application should not be considered on any of the following grounds:

(a) the application concerns a decision or action that is excluded under subclause 113.1; or
(b) a period of twenty-eight days has elapsed since the employee was advised of the decision except where extenuating circumstances exist; or
(c) the employee has made an application regarding the decision to a court or tribunal, or where the nominee believes it is more appropriate that such an application be made; or
(d) the nominee believes on reasonable grounds that the application:
   i. is frivolous or vexatious; or
   ii. is misconceived or lacks substance; or
   iii. should not be heard for some other compelling reason.

115.7 The Employer must either confirm a recommendation made by the nominee under subclause 115.6 that an application should not be considered or arrange for another nominee to consider the application.

115.8 The Employer will inform the employee in writing, within fourteen days of the date of any decision under subclause 115.7, including, the reasons for any decision not to consider the application.

116. Procedures where the Subject of the Application is not an Action of the Employer

116.1 If the nominee does not make a recommendation under subclause 115.6, then that person must investigate the application. The nominee will then, subject to subclause 117.1, make a written report to the Employer containing recommendations on whether the action that led to the application should be confirmed or varied or that other action be taken. A copy of this report will be provided at the same time to the applicant.

116.2 Where the Employer under subclause 115.7 refers an application for review to another nominee, that nominee must investigate the application. That nominee will then, subject to subclause 117.1, make a written report to the Employer containing recommendations on whether the action that led to the application should be confirmed or varied or that other action be taken. A copy of this report will be provided to the applicant at the same time.

116.3 The applicant may respond to any aspects of the report. Such a response must be in writing and be provided to the Employer within seven days of the applicant receiving the report.

116.4 The Employer, after considering the report from the nominee and any response by the applicant to the report of the nominee, may:
   (a) confirm the original action;
   (b) vary the original action; or
   (c) take any other action the Employer believes is reasonable.

116.5 The Employer will inform the applicant in writing, within fourteen days, of any action under subclause 116.4, including the reasons for the action.

117. Procedures where the Subject of the Application is an Action of the Employer

117.1 Where the subject of the application is an action of the Employer, the written report of the nominee under subclauses 116.1 or 116.2 will be made to the Commissioner for Public Administration. A copy of this report will be provided to the applicant at the same time.

117.2 The Commissioner for Public Administration may, after considering the report from a nominee, recommend to the Employer that:
   (a) the original action be confirmed; or
   (b) the original action be varied; or
   (c) other action be taken.

117.3 The Employer, after considering the report from the Commissioner for Public Administration, may:
   (a) accept any or all of the report’s recommendation(s) and take such action as necessary to implement the recommendation(s); or
   (b) not accept the report’s recommendation(s) and confirm the original action.

117.4 If the Employer does not accept any one of the recommendation(s) of the Commissioner for Public Administration under subclause 117.2, the Employer will:
   (a) provide written reasons to the Commissioner for Public Administration for not accepting the recommendation(s); and
(b) provide the applicant, within fourteen days, with written reasons for not accepting the recommendation(s).

117.5 If the Employer does not accept any one of the recommendation(s) of the Commissioner for Public Administration under subclause 117.2, the Commissioner may report on this outcome in the Commissioner’s State of the Service Report.

118. Right of External Review

118.1 The employee, or the employee’s union or other employee representative, may seek a review of a decision of the Employer under subclause 116.4 or subclause 117.3 by an external tribunal or body, including FWA.

118.2 FWA will be empowered to resolve the matter in accordance with the powers and functions set out in clause 99.7 of this Agreement. The decision of FWA will be binding, subject to any rights of appeal against the decision to a Full Bench in accordance with clause 99.18.
Section R - Appeal Mechanism

119. Objective and Application

119.1 This section sets out an appeal mechanism for an employee where the employee is not satisfied with the outcome of decisions described in the following clause.

119.2 This appeal mechanism will apply to:
(a) decisions about promotion or temporary performance (for periods in excess of six months) affecting the employee where the employee was an applicant for the position, except decisions made on the unanimous recommendation of a joint selection committee;
(b) decisions to take discipline action under Section O of this Agreement, except a decision to terminate the person's employment or a decision to suspend an employee with pay;
(c) decisions arising from under-performance action under section G of this Agreement, except a decision to terminate the person's employment;
(d) decisions taken in relation to an employee’s eligibility for benefits under clauses 131, 132 and the amount of such benefits, the amount payable by way of income maintenance under clause 135, and the giving of a notice of involuntary redundancy or notice of reduction in classification under clauses 133 and 134;
(e) an appeal by any suitably qualified officer against the process for positions at or below ASO6 (or equivalent). (Those above ASO6 may apply for an internal review of the process);
(f) any other decision that is subject to appeal under the PSM Act.

119.3 For purposes of paragraph (a), an appeal may only be made in relation to promotions or higher duties decisions where the pay applicable is any classification with a maximum pay that is less than the minimum pay of a classification equivalent to a Senior Officer Grade C.

119.4 An employee may have an entitlement to bring an action under the FWA in respect of any termination of employment under this Agreement. This will be the sole right of review of such an action.

119.5 This section will apply to the exclusion of the grievance and promotion/temporary performance appeal provisions contained in the PSM Act.

120. Initiating an Appeal

120.1 An employee, or the employee’s union or other employee representative, may initiate an appeal under these procedures by making an application to the convenor of Appeal Panels that:
(a) is in writing; and
(b) describes the action taken or to be taken, the reasons for the application and the outcome sought; and
(c) is received by the convenor of Appeal Panels within seven days of being notified of the decision to take the action and, in the case of promotion, within fourteen days of being notified of the decision.

121. Composition of the Appeal Panel

121.1 The Employer will nominate a person, or position, to be the convenor of the Appeal Panel, who may be from the Agency or from another ACTPS Agency.

121.2 Where an application is received by the convenor of the Appeal Panel within the timeframe set out in subclause 120.1 the convenor of Appeal Panels will set up an Appeal Panel.
121.3 The Appeal Panel will comprise a nominee of the Agency, a nominee of the employee and a chairperson, where:
   (a) the chairperson is chosen from a panel of providers approved by the Commissioner for Public Administration (in consultation with the Brigade Consultative Committee), or, in the case of an appeal relating to a promotion decision, an agreed person; and
   (b) a chairperson from the panel of providers is so chosen on a rotational basis, unless there is an identified conflict of interest, in which case the next person on the panel of providers would be chosen.

121.4 The convenor may only be a member of an Appeal Panel with the agreement of the applicant.

121.5 A person is not eligible to be a member of an Appeal Panel if that person was involved in the decision that is the subject of the application.

122. General Powers and Role of the Appeal Panel
122.1 In considering an application, the Appeal Panel must act in accordance with the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness. Proceedings of the Appeal Panel are to be conducted with as little formality and as quickly as practicable consistent with a fair and proper consideration of the issues.

122.2 The applicant may be represented by a union or other employee representative, or, with the consent of the Appeal Panel, by a legally qualified person.

122.3 The Appeal Panel will have the discretion to decide not to investigate the application, or, if it has commenced investigating the application, to decide not to proceed further if, in the opinion of the Panel:
   (a) the application is frivolous or vexatious, or not made in good faith; or
   (b) the employee making the appeal may apply to another person or authority about the application who may more appropriately deal with the action; or
   (c) an investigation or further investigation of the application is not warranted.

123. Powers of the Appeal Panel – Appeals About Promotion and Temporary Performance
123.1 For appeals concerning promotion or temporary performance of higher duties under paragraph 119.2(a) the only ground on which the appeal panel can review the decision is that the employee making the appeal would be more efficient in performing the duties of the position than the person promoted or selected for temporary performance of higher duties.

123.2 After investigating an application about promotion or temporary performance affecting the applicant, the Appeal Panel will either confirm the decision or make recommendations to the Employer to substitute another decision. The Appeal Panel will inform the applicant of this decision and the reasons for the decision.

124. Powers of the Appeal Panel – Other Matters
124.1 After investigating any application under this clause other than an appeal about promotion or temporary transfer, the Appeal Panel will, subject to subclause 124.3, make a written report containing recommendations to the Employer. A copy of this report will be provided to the applicant at the same time.
124.2 Where the subject of an application under this clause is a decision of the Employer then the appeal panel, after investigating the application will, subject to subclause 124.3, make a written report containing recommendations to the Commissioner for Public Administration. A copy of this report will be provided to the applicant at the same time.

124.3 In making recommendations to the Employer under subclause 124.1 or to the Commissioner for Public Administration under subclause 124.2, the Appeal Panel:
(a) must provide the reasons for its recommendations; and
(b) may request the Employer or the Commissioner for Public Administration, whichever is applicable, to inform other relevant parties of its recommendations.

124.4 The Employer, after considering the report from an Appeal Panel under subclause 124.1, will make a decision on any recommendation in the report and inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for that decision, within fourteen days of receiving the report.

124.5 The Commissioner for Public Administration, after considering the report from an Appeal Panel under subclause 124.2, will recommend to the Employer that the decision that is the subject of the application:
(a) be confirmed; or
(b) be varied; or
(c) other action taken.

124.6 If the Employer does not accept the recommendations of the Commissioner for Public Administration under subclause 124.5, the Employer will:
(a) provide written reasons to the Commissioner for Public Administration for not accepting the recommendations; and
(b) provide the applicant, within fourteen days, with written reasons for not accepting the recommendations.

124.7 If the Employer does not accept the recommendations of the Commissioner for Public Administration under subclause 124.5, the Commissioner may report on this outcome in the Commissioner’s State of the Service Report.

125. Costs
125.1 The Agency will not be liable for any costs associated with representing an applicant in these procedures.

126. Right of External Review
126.1 The employee or the employee’s union or other representative may seek a review by the FWA of a decision under subclause 124.4 or subclause 124.6.

126.2 FWA will be empowered to resolve the matter in accordance with the powers and functions set out in clause 99.7 of this Agreement. The decision of FWA will be binding, subject to any rights of appeal against the decision to a Full Bench in accordance with clause 99.7.
Section S - Redeployment and Redundancy

127. Application
127.1 The Employer recognises the need to make the most effective use of the skills, abilities and qualifications of its employees in a changing environment. When positions become excess, the Employer will seek to redeploy permanent employees within the Agency or the ACTPS in order to avoid or minimise an excess employee situation. Should redeployment not be possible, voluntary redundancy, reduction in classification and involuntary redundancy will be considered in that order. Throughout these procedures, the Employer will, where practicable, take into consideration the personal and career aspirations and family responsibilities of affected employees.

127.2 These provisions do not apply to employees on probation.

128. Definitions
128.1 Excess employee means an employee who has been notified in writing by the Employer that he or she is excess to the Employer's requirements because:

(a) The employee is included in a class of employees employed by the Employer, which class comprises a greater number of employees than is necessary for the efficient and economical working of the Employer; or
(b) The services of the employee cannot be effectively used because of technological or other changes in the work methods of the Employer or changes in the nature, extent or organisation of the functions of the Employer.

128.2 Potentially excess employee means an employee who is likely to become actually excess in a foreseeable space of time.

129. Consultation
129.1 Where it appears to the Employer that a position is likely to be either potentially or actually excess to the Employer's requirements, and prior to any individual employee(s) being identified, the Employer will, at the earliest practicable time, advise and discuss with the UFU the following issues (as appropriate in each case):

(a) The number and classification of employees in the part of the Agency affected;
(b) The reasons an employee is or employees are likely to be excess to requirements;
(c) The method of identifying employees as excess, having regard to the efficient and economical working of the Employer and the relative efficiency of employees;
(d) The number, classification, location and details of the employees likely to be excess;
(e) The number and classification of employees expected to be required for the performance of any continuing functions in the part of the Agency affected;
(f) Measures that could be taken to remove or reduce the incidence of employees becoming excess;
(g) Redeployment prospects for the employees concerned;
(h) The appropriateness of using voluntary retirement; and
(i) Whether it is appropriate for involuntary retirement to be used if necessary.

129.2 No information that would identify any individual employees will be provided by the Employer under this Section.
129.3 The discussions under clause 129.1 will take place over such time as is reasonable, taking into account the complexity of the restructuring and need for potential excess employee situations to be resolved quickly. Any use of involuntary retirement shall be agreed between the Employer and UFU at this stage and shall not be used without the written agreement of the Employer and the UFU.

129.4 Except where a lesser period is agreed between the Employer and the employees, an employee will not, within one month after the UFU has been advised under clause 129.1, be invited to volunteer for retirement nor be advised in writing that he or she is excess to the Employer's requirements.

129.5 The Employer shall comply with the notification and consultation requirements for trade unions and Centrelink about terminations set out in the FW Act.

130. Information Provided for Employee

Informal Advice
130.1 At the point where individual employees can be identified, the Employer will advise the employee(s) that a position(s) is likely to become excess and that the employee may be affected. In that advice the employee(s) will also be advised that the employee may be represented by an employee representative at subsequent discussions. The Employer will discuss with the employee(s) and, where chosen, the employee representative(s) the issues dealt with in sub-clauses 129.1(a) through (i) (as appropriate in each case).

130.2 The Employer will, at the first available opportunity, inform all employees likely to be affected by an excess staffing situation of the terms and operation of this Section.

Formal Notification
130.3 The notification of an employee’s potentially excess status shall only be given when the consultation required under clause 129.1 and 130.1 has taken place. Following such consultation, where the Employer is aware that an employee is potentially excess, the Employer will advise the employee in writing.

130.4 To allow an excess employee to make an informed decision on whether to submit an election to be voluntarily retired, the Employer must provide the employee with advice on:
   (a) the sums of money the employee would receive by way of severance pay, pay in lieu of notice, and paid up leave credits;
   (b) the career transition/development opportunities within the Agency.

130.5 The officer should also seek independent advice on:
   (a) the amount of accumulated superannuation contributions;
   (b) the options open to the employee concerning superannuation;
   (c) the taxation rules applicable to the various payments.

130.6 The Employer will supplement the costs of independent, accredited financial counselling incurred by each employee who has been offered voluntary redundancy up to a maximum of $1000. The Employer will authorise the accredited financial counsellors to invoice the Employer directly.

130.7 Redundancy pay will be calculated on a proportionate basis where the employee has worked part-time hours during the period of service and the employee has less than 24 years full-time service.
131. Voluntary Redundancy

131.1 At the completion of the discussions in accordance with clause 129, the Employer may invite employees to elect to be made voluntarily redundant under this clause.

131.2 Where the Employer invites an excess employee to elect to be made voluntarily redundant, the employee will have a maximum of one calendar month from the date of the offer in which to advise the Employer of his or her election, and the Employer will not give notice of redundancy before the end of the one month period.

131.3 Subject to clause 131.4, where the Employer approves an election to be made redundant and gives the notice of retirement in accordance with the PSM Act, the period of notice will be one month, or 5 weeks if the employee is over 45 years old and has completed at least 2 years continuous service.

131.4 Where the Employer so directs, or the employee so requests, the employee will be retired at any time within the period of notice under clause 131.3, and the employee will be paid in lieu of salary for the unexpired portion of the notice period.

132. Severance Benefit

132.1 An employee who elects to be made redundant in accordance with this clause will be entitled to be paid either of the following, whichever is the greater:

(a) A sum equal to 2 weeks salary for each completed year of continuous service, plus a pro rata payment for completed months of continuous service since the last year of continuous service. The maximum sum payable under this paragraph will be 48 weeks salary; or

132.2 For the purpose of calculating any payment in lieu of notice or part payment thereof the salary an employee would have received had he or she been on recreation leave during the notice period, or the unexpired portion of the notice period as appropriate, will be used.

132.3 For the purpose of calculating payment under clause 132.1:

(a) where an employee has been relieving in a higher position for a continuous period of at least 12 months immediately preceding the date on which he or she receives notice of retirement, the salary level will be the employee’s salary in such higher position at that date;

(b) where an employee has, during 50% or more of pay periods in the 12 months immediately preceding the date on which he or she receives notice of retirement, been paid a loading for shiftwork or are paid a composite salary, the weekly average amount of shift loading received during that 12 month period will be counted as part of "weeks salary";

(c) the inclusion of other allowances, being allowances in the nature of salary, will be with the approval of the Employer.

132.4 Where a redundancy situation affects a number of employees engaged in the same work at the same level, elections to be made redundant may be invited.

132.5 Nothing in this Agreement will prevent the Employer, inviting employees who are not in a redundancy situation to express interest in voluntary redundancy, where such redundancies would permit the redeployment of potentially excess and excess employees who do not wish to accept voluntary redundancy.

133. Redeployment
133.1 Redeployment of potentially excess and excess employees will be in accordance with their experience, ability and, as far as possible, their career aspirations and wishes.

133.2 The Employer will consider potentially excess and excess employees from other ACTPS agencies in isolation for vacancies at their substantive level.

133.3 Excess employees (potential or actual) have absolute preference for transfer to positions at their substantive level and must be considered in isolation from other applicants for any vacancy within the ACTPS. An excess employee need only be found suitable, or suitable within a reasonable time (generally three to six months) to be transferred to the position. For the purposes of this clause substantive level means the same classification or a classification where the maximum salary does not exceed the top increment of the employee’s current classification by more than 10%.

133.4 The Employer will make every effort to facilitate the placement of an excess employee, both within the Agency and to other ACTPS agencies.

133.5 The Employer will arrange reasonable training which would assist the excess employee’s prospects for redeployment.

133.6 The Employer will provide appropriate internal assistance and career counselling and assist as necessary with the preparation of job applications.

133.7 An excess employee who does not accept voluntary redundancy is entitled to a 7 month retention period.

133.8 The retention period will commence:

(a) On the day the employee is advised in writing by the Employer that he or she is an actually excess employee; or
(b) In the case of an employee who is invited by the Employer to submit an election to be retired - one month after the day on which the election is invited; whichever is the earlier.

133.9 The employee may be reduced in classification by the Employer, in order to place the employee in a specific position in the Agency, subject to the agreement of the employee, such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld if, during or after six months from the date the employee was declared excess, the employee:

(a) Was found unsuitable in a merit selection process for three separate positions; and
(b) Has not applied for at least three separate positions, for which the employee could reasonably be expected to be qualified to perform, either immediately or in a reasonable time; and
(c) Cannot be placed in gainful employment at his or her substantive level at the end of the retention period, however, there is gainful employment available for the employee at a lower classification.
Section S – Redeployment and Redundancy

133.10 Notwithstanding the above, if, at the end of the retention period, the Employer is of the opinion that there is insufficient productive work available for the excess employee, the Employer may, subject to the agreement of the employee, such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld, reduce the employee in classification in order to place the employee in a specific position in the Agency.

133.11 An excess employee will not be reduced in classification if he or she has not been invited to elect to be voluntarily retired with benefits, or has made such an election and the Employer refuses to approve it.

133.12 Where the Employer proposes to reduce an excess’ employees classification, the employee will be given no less than four weeks notice of the action proposed; or 5 weeks if the employee is over 45 years old and has completed at least 2 years of continuous service. This notice period will, as far as practicable, be concurrent with the 7-month retention period.

134. Involuntary Retirement

134.2 This clause applies to excess employees who are not:

   (a) Retired with consent;
   (b) Redeployed to another position; or
   (c) Reduced in classification.

134.3 An employee may be involuntarily retired if; during or after six months from the date the employee was declared excess, the employee:

   (a) Does not accept a transfer in accordance with section 83 of the PSM Act; or
   (b) Has refused to apply for, or be considered for, a position for which the employee could reasonably be expected to be qualified to perform, either immediately or in a reasonable time.

134.4 Where the Employer believes that there is insufficient productive work available for an excess employee during the retention period, the Employer may make the employee involuntarily redundant before the end of the retention period.

134.5 An excess employee will not be involuntarily retired if he or she has not been invited to elect to be voluntarily retired with benefits, or has made such an election and the Employer refuses to approve it.

134.6 Where the Employer involuntarily retires an excess employee, the employee will be given no less than four weeks notice of the action proposed; or 5 weeks if the employee is over 45 years old and has completed at least 2 years of continuous service. This notice period will, as far as practicable, be concurrent with the 7 month retention period.
135. Income Maintenance Payment
135.1 An employee who has been receiving a higher rate of salary for a continuous period of at least 12 months and who would have continued to receive that salary rate except for the declaration of excess, will be considered to have the higher salary rate.

135.2 This salary will be known as the income maintenance salary. The income maintenance salary, where applicable, will be used for the calculation of all conditions and entitlements under this clause.

135.3 The income maintenance salary exists for the retention period or the balance of the retention period.

135.4 If an employee is involuntarily retired, the entitlements, including paying out the balance of the retention periods, where applicable, will be calculated on the income maintenance salary rate. If an employee is involuntarily retired during the retention periods the employee’s date of retirement is the date that the employee would have retired after the retention period ceased, not the date of the involuntary retirement. All final entitlements will be calculated from the latter date.

135.5 If an employee is involuntarily reduced in classification during the retention periods, the employee will be entitled to be paid at the income maintenance salary rate for the balance of the retention period.

135.6 All allowances in the nature of salary will be included in determining the income maintenance salary rate.

136. Leave and Expenses to Seek Employment
136.1 At any time after the employee has been advised under clause 130.3 of being potentially excess, the employee is entitled to paid leave to seek alternative employment. Leave granted under this clause will be for periods of time to examine the job and to attend interviews. Reasonable travelling time will also be granted.

136.2 The employee will be entitled to any reasonable fares and other incidental expenses if these are not met by the prospective Employer.

137. Use of Sick Leave
137.1 The use of sick leave will not extend the retention periods of an employee unless these periods are supported by a medical certificate and/or are of such a nature as to make the seeking of employment during certificated personal leave inappropriate.

137.2 An employee who is receiving income maintenance will have those payments continued during certified personal leave periods of up to a total of six months.

138. Appeals
138.1 Without affecting his or her rights under the FW Act, an excess employee has the right under Section R to appeal any decision taken in relation to his or her eligibility for benefits under clauses 131 to 133 of this Section, the amount of such benefits, or the amount payable by way of income maintenance under clause 135.

138.2 An excess employee has the right under Section R to appeal against the giving, in accordance with clauses 133 and 134 of this Section, of an involuntary notice of redundancy or notice of reduction in classification.
139. Agreement Not To Prevent Other Action
139.1 Nothing in this Agreement will prevent the reduction in classification of an employee or the retirement of an employee as a result of action relating to discipline, invalidity, inefficiency or loss of essential qualifications.

140. Re-engagement of Previously Retrenched employees
140.1 Employees who are involuntarily retired from the ACTPS can apply for further employment in the ACTPS without the current requirement of a one year break in service.

140.2 Employees who elect to be made voluntarily redundant under clause 131 cannot be re-engaged by the ACTPS within two years of the date of their separation from the ACTPS except with the written consent of the Commissioner for Public Administration.
Section T - Medically Unfit Staff

141. Transfer of Medically Unfit Staff

141.1 A medically unfit employee is an employee who is considered by the Employer, in accordance with paragraph (a) of sub-section 143(1) of the PSM Act, to be an employee who is unable to perform duties appropriate to the employee’s classification because of physical or mental incapacity.

141.2 Despite the provisions of sub-section 56(3) and paragraphs (c) and (e) of sub-section 65(1) of the PSM Act, a medically unfit employee may, by agreement with the employee, be transferred to any position within their current skill level and experience, the classification of which has a maximum salary which does not vary from the top increment of the employee’s classification by more or less than 10%.

141.3 An employee will not be redeployed in accordance with clause 141.2 unless there is no suitable vacant position at the employee’s substantive classification within the Agency.

141.4 In considering any proposed transfer under this clause, the employee may invite the employee representative or other representative to assist the employee.
Schedule 1

OPERATIONAL MATTERS

142. Rosters

142.1 The roster system for employees assigned to firefighting duties will be as described in this clause and will be known as the 10/14 Roster System.

142.2 The roster will comprise 4 shifts known as Platoons and identified as either A, B, C or D.

142.3 The day shift (D) will be worked from 8.00 a.m. to 6.00 p.m. and the night shift (N) will be worked from 6.00 p.m. to 8.00 a.m. on the following day.

142.4 The roster will cycle over 8 weeks as identified below:

| A Platoon | F | S | S | M | T | W | F | S | S | M | T | W | F | S | S | M | T | W | F | S | S | M | T | W |
| 142.5 The following general conditions will apply: |
| (a) The roster may be varied for employees on special duties or training courses for up to 21 consecutive days without transferring off the 10/14 roster. The hours of work will be in accordance with Section E. |
| (b) The roster will not be changed during the life of this agreement without the agreement of the Employer and the UFU. |
| 142.6 In the event that there are insufficient employees present for duty at the start of any operational shift, sufficient employees from the off going shift, at the appropriate classification and skill level, will remain on duty until relieved. |
| 142.7 Subject to the provision of clause 142.6, every employee will be dismissed punctually from their rostered shift. |
| 142.8 Notwithstanding anything contained in this clause, in the case of fire or other emergency all employees off duty placed in a restriction situation in accordance with clause 52 are liable to be called upon to report for duty. A policy will be developed that addresses the manner in which the availability arrangements are to operate. |
143. Filling of temporary vacancies

143.1 Temporary vacancies at Officer classifications (FB6 to FB8) will be filled by suitably qualified employees who have been found suitable and ranked according to clause 29.4. The method for filling vacancies at these classifications will be as follows:

(a) Spare or relieving staff; then
(b) Relieving in a higher position; otherwise
(c) Overtime.

143.2 Temporary vacancies at Fire fighter classifications (FB2 to FB5) will be filled as follows:

(a) Spare or relieving employees; then
(b) Enhanced crewing as detailed at clause 147; otherwise
(c) Overtime

144. Part time roster

144.1 Employees on part time work arrangements will work one of the two roster lines at 144.4.

144.2 The minimum rostered hours in an eight week cycle will be 192 hours.

144.3 The roster will not be changed during the life of this agreement without the agreement of the Employer and the UFU.

144.4 The roster will cycle over eight weeks as identified below

| Roster 1 | F | S | S | M | T | W | T | F | S | S | M | T | W | T | F | S | S | M | T | W | T | F | S | S | M | T | W | T |

| Roster 2 | D | D | N | N | D | D | N | N | D | D | N | N | D | D | N | N | D | D | N | N | D | D | N | N |
| hours    | 20| 28| 20| 28|

145. Fire Brigade Establishment

145.1 To maintain firefighter safety and service to the community the Employer will maintain the following minimum full time equivalent staffing resources on each operational shift:

(a) 1 x FB 7
(b) 11 x FB 6
(c) 38 x FB 2-5

145.2 Each platoon will consist of the following positions:

(a) 1 x FB 7
(b) 17 x FB 6
(c) 57 x FB 2-5
145.3 The District Relief Roster will consist of 2 x FB 7 and any employees on part time working arrangements.

145.4 The Employer and the UFU acknowledge that optimum recruiting efficiency means that total staffing resources occupying the classifications at clause (c) may fluctuate.

145.5 To continue the implementation of the PSM Act, provisions, improve transparency and accountability the Employer and the UFU agree to the commencement of Part IV of the Public Sector Management Act. Within 3 months of the commencement of this agreement the ACTFB will, in consultation with the UFU, commence the process of identifying, describing, establishing and detailing all positions that consist the ACTFB. The establishment will be based on those positions agreed between the Employer and the UFU.

Any information provided to the union under this clause is to be provided for the sole purpose of implementing this clause.

146. Fatigue Management

146.1 The Employer is committed to achieving the appropriate balance between work and personal life and to minimising the extent to which excessive hours are worked.

146.2 To assist with fatigue management, employees have a responsibility to advise the Employer where they have undertaken work, either secondary or otherwise, that does not provide for an appropriate break between shifts.

146.3 The Employer and UFU are committed to a review of policies relating to excessive working hours and overtime.

146.4 No employee will be permitted to work more than two consecutive shifts without a break of 8 hours except in the case of a call of fire or other emergency circumstance. The Employer, taking into consideration the personal circumstances of the employee, may direct an employee to report for duty or to remain on duty.

146.5 Employees on night duty will be permitted, between the hours of 10.00 pm to 6.00 am to recline and sleep, provided that:

(a) They have no work to perform.
(b) Their protective clothing and equipment is arranged in a manner that causes the minimum delay in responding on receipt of a fire call.
(c) Sufficient beds, mattresses and covers will be supplied at each station to accommodate the employees rostered on night shift at each station.
(d) The employee will store out of sight any bedding used by them prior to going off duty in storage provided by the Employer.
(e) Employees will be responsible for the cleanliness of bedding used by them.

147. Enhanced Crewing Arrangements

147.1 The Employer may enhance the crewing arrangements with one FB 6 and one firefighter, where required for the following specialised vehicles:

(a) Breathing Apparatus Support Appliance
(b) Aerial appliance;
(c) Individual Tankers.

147.2 Other Brigade support vehicles may be staffed by an FB 6 or a firefighter.

147.3 The Brigade may at times of high risk utilise employees on day work to crew additional vehicles, i.e.:

(a) Off Road Rescue;
(b) Tankers;
(c) Light Units;
(d) Brigade Support Vehicles; and
(e) Additional Pumpers (with a Pumper Crew).

147.4 All employees utilised in enhanced crewing must be appropriately qualified and current in their skill.

148. Communications Centre Review

148.1 In order to improve the efficiency of the Communications Centre (Comcen), the Employer and UFU agree to the commencement of a review of the Comcen and implementation of recommended changes in consultation with the UFU. The review will be co-ordinated by ESA. The review will take into account the structure of ESA, the roles and responsibilities of the individual emergency services as provided for under the Emergencies Act 2004 and the protection of the rights of employees. The terms of reference and the objectives of the review will be agreed by the Employer and UFU prior to commencing the review.

149. Death & Disability and Voluntary Early Retirement Scheme

149.1 The parties agree to commit to working together throughout the life of this agreement to evaluate the feasibility of a co-contributed Death & Disability and Voluntary Early Retirement Scheme.

149.2 The parties agree to commit resources to investigate the viability of any such scheme (with a view to providing a recommendation to the ACT Government on such a scheme before the expiry date of this agreement).

149.3 Such investigation can involve (but is not limited to) the engagement of a consultant to investigate the options; the collection of information from similar schemes interstate; the development of an actuarial or other study of the financial viability of the scheme; or the procurement of legal and financial assistance to develop the scheme.

149.4 The parties will work together in good faith. For the purpose of this clause, “good faith” carries the same definition as the good faith bargaining requirements provided by s228(1) of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth)

150. Uniform and Protective Clothing

150.1 The Employer will provide an initial issue of standard articles of clothing in accordance with an agreement jointly developed between the Employer and the union. Items of uniform identified by this Agreement will be replaced by the Employer provided the item is returned or a report accepted by the employer.

150.2 The Employer will be responsible for the dry cleaning of all issue clothing other than clothing not permitted to be worn for response.

151. Amenities

151.1 The Employer and UFU agree to develop, through the FBCC, an appropriate standard for station amenities within 3 months of lodgement of this Agreement.

152. Refreshments

152.1 Appropriate refreshments will be provided for employees attending emergency calls, drills, watching duties and fire duties where the duration is expected to exceed 2 hours.

152.2 Where such duties coincide with a meal period detailed in clause 43.1, an appropriate meal will be more substantial than a snack.

152.4 Employees may waive the entitlement to a meal by signing and dating appropriate written records in the appropriate officers’ notebook.

153. Brigade Rotation Policy

153.1 The Employer and UFU will review the current brigade rotation policy for the purposes of administering fair and equitable rotation processes in the Brigade. In developing this policy the following will be considered:

(a) A general framework under which rotation of employees will occur;
(b) Brigade operational requirements;
(c) Skills and knowledge development of employees;
(d) Leave management;
(e) Work and life balance including family responsibilities;
(f) Occupational health and safety; and
(g) The employee’s travel arrangements

154. Mandatory qualifications and training

154.1 All persons employed in classifications set out in Annex A are required to maintain a level of competency to meet the Employer’s minimum Workplace Health and Safety requirements.

154.2 All employees must be assessed as competent in each of the following:

(a) provision of advanced first aid (annually);
(b) wearing of breathing apparatus (annually),
(c) driving and operating ESA/Brigade appliances and vehicles (3 yearly).

154.3 To facilitate mandatory skills maintenance, the Employer will ensure that suitable courses are made available to ensure that competency levels can be maintained.
154.4 Any employee who has yet to attain the required level of competency at the date of effect of this Agreement must attain the required competency within six months. Failure to do so may result in action being taken in accordance with the underperformance measures contained in Section N.

154.5 Employees will be given training, guidance and opportunities necessary to assist them in gaining the competencies and qualifications required under this clause.

154.6 Where any employee is unable to maintain a mandatory qualification due to a medical condition, the procedures outlined in Section T apply.

154.7 Subject to consultation, the mandatory qualifications described in this clause may be varied, or additional qualifications may be introduced as a consequence of new or modified requirements.

155. Career progression and opportunities

155.1 The Employer is committed to providing its employees with opportunities and resources for career growth and development through participation in relevant pre-requisite learning and development activities, to enable employees to gain the necessary competencies, qualifications and skills for their substantive rank. All employees will be given the opportunity to gain the necessary qualifications for promotion to the next rank. The Employer will ensure that all employees have the opportunity to gain all qualifications necessary for promotion by the date of their eligibility for the promotion. The training for these purposes will be organised by the Employer at the expense of the Employer and attended within the Employers time.

155.2 All training provided by the Employer is intended to meet organisational needs and equip employees with the skills, knowledge and experience to safely perform the duties relevant to their classification and role.

155.3 Where training meets or exceeds nationally accredited training standards (e.g. the Public Safety Training Package), qualifications/statements of attainment will be issued. During the life of this agreement, the Employer will continue to align against the PSTP qualifications at Annex E.

155.4 Operational skills training will be delivered by suitably qualified urban fire fighters and/or officers, who possess current competence. Other suitably qualified experts may be incorporated into this training where appropriate and agreed.

155.5 Where possible, training delivery roles will be rotated to give employees opportunities to deliver training as part of their professional development.

155.6 All training and development opportunities, including Day Work opportunities, will be openly advertised to all Brigade employees by email or Staff Minute. Selection for opportunities will be based on eligibility, merit and organisational requirements.

Assessment

155.7 Assessments and the learning materials for assessments (including for advancement and promotions) will be based on and reflect current work practice in the ACTFB. Wherever possible, assessments will be competency based and meet or exceed the learning outcomes of nationally accredited standards.

155.8 Learning materials and/or structured training that addresses the expected standard will be provided to employees prior to assessment. Assessment guidelines will be readily available to employees so that they understand the criteria and standards that they are to be assessed against.
155.9 Wherever possible, all assessment is to be undertaken by a qualified workplace assessor in the task to be assessed.

155.10 Where opportunity for assessment related to advancement is delayed through failure of the Employer to provide relevant learning materials, training, or assessment, the eligible date for advancement is not to be changed and the increase, if any, will be paid retrospectively to that date.

156. Revised promotion procedures
156.1 The Employer and UFU are committed to implementing the revised promotional and advancement procedures outlined in this section. The Employer and UFU are committed to a review of existing examinations used for advancement processes for simplicity and transparency. This is to be completed within 6 months of certification of this agreement.

157. Transition arrangements
157.1 The Employer and UFU acknowledge that it will take time to fully implement the revised processes. Stages of the revised process will be implemented as they become available.

157.2 Where an employee is yet to successfully complete the requisite level of education for the classification, this requirement will form part of the employee’s performance development plan and qualifications will be completed within a reasonable period of time.

157.3 Employees who do not currently possess the requisite qualification for their classification will be encouraged and supported by the Brigade through the performance development process, to attain the qualification.

158. Qualification allowance
158.1 The qualification allowance described in Annex C that applies to FB 5 and FB 6 will only be payable to employees who participate in and are found suitable and ranked in the merit selection process described at 18.

158.2 The process described at clause 18 is valid for 24 months and the qualifications allowance will be payable for the 24 months. At the end of the 24 months, if the employee has not been promoted, the allowance will cease to be payable if the employee has not participated in and been found suitable in another merit process.

158.3 Employees at the FB 5 and FB 6 currently in receipt of the qualification allowance will maintain their allowance until promoted, but will be required to participate in the process described at 18 to be eligible for promotion and relieving.

158.4 The Employer will have the authority within the budget for approving assistance for formal studies in any one or a combination of the following options:

(a) approval as a full-time or part-time student;
(b) travel to and from study activities;
(c) study leave; and/or
(d) financial assistance.

*Note: the FB3 rate of $65,103 which appears in 2010-11 agreement was incorrect and stemmed from a typographical error in the 2006-2010 agreement. The rate marked above ($65,000)corrects that error. Salaries paid to employees over this period were not affected by this typographical error, and all employees have been paid the correct salary.

2. The total salary amount will be payable for all purposes in lieu of the following:

(a) Base wage
(b) Shift loading (including public holidays, weekends and shiftwork)
(c) Industry allowance
(d) Standard overtime
(e) Breathing apparatus wearing allowance
(f) Drive fire fighting vehicle
(g) Drive other vehicle
(h) First aid

3. The divisor for determining an hourly rate for the purposes of calculating overtime payments based on the fortnightly rate will be 86.3240.

Classifications

4. The classifications under this agreement are from the 2006 Work Value claim and are as follows:

5. Recruit Firefighter (FB1)
   A Recruit Firefighter (FB1) is an employee who, having satisfied the minimum entry requirements of the Brigade as determined by the Employer, has entered into and is completing the Brigade’s recruit training or lateral recruit induction program.

ANNEX B – AGREEMENT FRAMEWORK FOR SPECIAL EMPLOYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

1. Introduction
1.1 This Framework applies to both individual Special Employment Arrangements (SEAs) and to SEAs for groups of employees.

1.2 This Framework may be accessible to all employees in all classifications covered by this Agreement, in accordance with the terms of this Framework.

1.3 The Employer may also enter into a SEA with an employee for a specified period of time or for a specific project and the SEA may be varied by agreement of the Employer and the employee.

1.4 In this Framework, a reference to position, employee, occupant or union includes positions, employees, occupants or unions.

2. Approval
2.1 A SEA may only be agreed and approved in accordance with this Framework.

2.2 The Employer may only approve a SEA if the Employer is satisfied that the position and the employee occupying the position meet the SEA eligibility criteria set out in clause 5.1 of this Framework.

2.3 Where the Employer considers that a position and an employee meet the SEA eligibility criteria, the Employer must consult with the relevant union(s) about whether the position meets the criteria before entering into a SEA. In consulting with the union, the Employer will:

(a) Provide the union with relevant information about the position used by the Employer for this purpose (this information is to be provided to the union for the sole purpose of implementing this clause);

(b) Give the union a reasonable opportunity to consider this information and, if the union wishes, it may provide its written views to the Employer within seven days; and

(c) Take into account any views of the union and provide a written response before deciding to enter into a SEA.

Information that the Agency provides to the union under clause 2.3 will not include information that might directly or indirectly disclose the identity of a particular employee.

2.4 At any time following the conclusion of the consultation required under clause 2.3, the Employer and an employee may agree on the terms of a SEA to apply to the position that the employee occupies.

2.5 Prior to any SEA being agreed, the Employer must discuss the proposed terms of the SEA with the employee who is currently occupying the position or who has been promoted to or appointed to the position. In these discussions, the employee may invite an employee representative to assist the employee.

2.6 A SEA must not be agreed where it would result, when assessed as a whole, in a reduction in the overall terms and conditions of employment provided for the employee under this Agreement or provide terms and conditions that are, in a particular respect, less favourable than the National Employment Standards or the rates of pay set in this Agreement for the same work at the same classification level.

2.7 The terms and conditions of employment of this Agreement will continue to form the principal basis for employees covered by this Agreement. Accordingly, where a SEA applies to an employee, the terms and conditions of the employee is a combination of:

(a) The terms and conditions contained in this Agreement; and

(b) The terms and conditions contained in the SEA.

2.8 The terms and conditions of employment contained in a SEA prevail over the terms and conditions of employment contained in this Agreement to the extent of any inconsistency.

3. Application
3.1 The SEA will commence from the date specified in the SEA.

3.2 The SEA will operate until this Agreement is replaced by a further workplace agreement unless it ceases to operate in accordance with this Framework.

3.3 Subject to this Framework, the SEA will operate while the employee continues to be the occupant of the position identified in the SEA.

3.4 Subject to this Framework, the SEA will cease to apply to the employee where:

(a) The Employer determines, following a review provided for under clause 7 of this Framework, the SEA should no longer apply to the position; or

(b) The employee vacates the position identified in the SEA.

3.5 Where an employee party to a SEA temporarily vacates the position and another employee is selected to act in the position, the Employer may determine the SEA applies to the employee who is acting in the position.

3.6 (a) Subject to 3.6 (b), a SEA will continue to operate under the collective agreement of the gaining Agency where there is a transfer of a position arising from:

   i. Machinery of Government changes; or
   ii. Management initiated changes; or
   ii. Changes to the Administrative Arrangement Orders.

(b) A SEA will continue to operate in accordance with 3.6 (a) only where the position and the occupant continue to meet the SEA eligibility criteria.

3.7 If following the Machinery of Government or management initiated changes, the position and the occupant do not meet the eligibility criteria, the SEA ceases to operate.

3.8 The Agency must provide the employee with a minimum of 90 days (or less if agreed) written notice before the SEA ceases to operate under clauses 3.4(a) or 3.7.
4. Deeming
4.1 Subject to clause 4.2, a SEA that applied to an employee in the Agency on the date this Agreement is lodged under the WR Act is deemed by this Agreement to continue in force under the terms of this Agreement, except that: the rate of pay that applied to the employee under the SEA will be increased in accordance with the increases in pay rates provided for under clause 28 of this Agreement.

4.2. Despite clause 4.1, the Agency and the employee to which a SEA applied under the previous certified agreement may agree in writing to enter into a SEA in accordance with this Framework. In that event, clause 4.1 will not apply to that employee.

5. Special Employment Arrangement Eligibility Criteria
5.1 In determining whether a SEA should apply to a position, the Employer will take into account the following criteria:

(a) the position is critical to the operation of the Agency or to a business unit in the Agency;
(b) an employee who occupies the position requires specialist qualifications or specialist or high level skills;
(c) the skills required by the employee who occupies the position are in high demand in the marketplace;
(d) the position would incur significant costs to replace.

5.2 In considering clause 5.1(c), the Employer must take into account relevant market data.

5.3 Where an Australian Workplace Agreement is terminated, the position that the employee who was a party to the Australian Workplace Agreement occupies will be deemed to have met the eligibility criteria at clause 5.1.

6. Scope of a Special Employment Arrangement
6.1 A SEA may contain:
(a) enhanced pay rates, which must not exceed 50% of the existing salary of the occupant of the position under this Agreement;
(b) provision for privately plated vehicles where the Employer considers there is a clear, unambiguous and exceptional need;
(c) other terms and conditions of employment where the Employer considers there is a clear, unambiguous and exceptional need;
(d) in the case where an Australian Workplace Agreement is terminated in accordance with the WR Act, the terms and conditions of employment that were contained in the Australian Workplace Agreement.

6.2 Should the Employer consider that there is a compelling reason for the Agency to pay enhanced rates of pay in excess of the 50% cap of the existing salary of the position, the Agency will apply to the Commissioner for Public Administration for approval to do so.

6.3 An application to the Commissioner must include relevant and appropriate market data as well as an explanation of why the Agency considers that there is a need to pay above the 50% cap.

6.4 In assessing whether a rate of pay above the 50% cap should be paid to any employee, the Agency should give particular consideration to the consequences the granting of the SEA may have on its ability to recruit and/or retain executive positions.
6.5 The rates of salary component of a SEA counts as for salary for all purposes including superannuation and for the purposes of calculating annual leave, long service leave, paid personal leave, paid maternity leave, redundancy payments and other paid leave granted under this Agreement. If leave is on reduced pay or without pay, the salary component of the SEA must be reduced on a pro-rata basis.

6.6 Normal incremental advancement will continue to apply in relation to the existing salary of the employee.

6.7 The pay component of a SEA is payable fortnightly and is not available as a lump sum payment.

6.8 The terms of the SEA must contain provisions:

(a) Setting out the level of the employee’s existing salary;
(b) Setting out the pay component and any other terms and conditions of employment that are to apply under the SEA;
(c) Stating that the terms and conditions of the employee will revert to the applicable rates of pay and terms and conditions of employment under this Agreement in the event the SEA ceases to operate or is terminated; and
(d) Containing the terms of this Framework.

7. Review of Special Employment Arrangement

7.1 The Employer must review a SEA with a pay rate at or below the 50% cap at least once within the life of this Agreement to determine whether it should continue to operate.

7.2 The Employer must review a SEA with a pay rate above the 50% cap annually from the date of the signing of the SEA to determine whether it should continue to operate.

7.3 In addition, the Employer must also review a SEA where:

(a) The position is no longer critical to the operation of the Agency or business unit in the Agency; or
(b) The employee no longer holds the required specialist qualifications.

7.4 In reviewing the SEA, the Employer must consider whether the position and the employee continues to meet the SEA eligibility criteria. The Employer must take into account relevant market data when reviewing a SEA.

7.5 The Employer will consult with the employee party to the SEA when undertaking a review. In these consultations, the employee may invite an employee representative to assist the employee.

7.6 The Employer will also consult with the relevant union(s) when undertaking a review about whether the position meets the criteria. The Employer will:

(a) Provide the union with relevant information about the position to be used by the Employer for this purpose (this information is to be provided to the union for the sole purpose of implementing this clause);
(b) Give the union a reasonable opportunity to consider this information and, if the union wishes, it may provide its written views to the Employer within seven days; and
(c) Take into account any views of the union and provide a written response.

Note: Information that the Agency provides to the union under clause 7.6 will not include information that might directly or indirectly disclose the identity of a particular employee.
7.7 If, following the conclusion of the consultation required under clauses 7.5 and 7.6:
   (a) the Employer concludes from the review that the position and employee continue to meet the SEA eligibility criteria, the SEA will continue to apply to the employee; or
   (b) the Employer considers that the terms of the SEA should be varied to reflect relevant changes, the SEA will be varied accordingly.

7.8 If, following the conclusion of the consultation required under clauses 7.5 and 7.6 the Employer concludes from the review that the position and employee do not meet the SEA eligibility criteria, the SEA will cease to operate.

7.9 The Employer must provide the employee with a minimum of 90 days written notice, or less if agreed, before the SEA ceases to operate under clause 7.8 or is varied under clause 7.7(b).

8. Salary Sacrifice Arrangements

8.1 Remuneration and conditions provided under a SEA may be used for the purposes of salary packaging in accordance with the Flexible Remuneration Packaging provisions of this Agreement.
     Where an employee salary packages any part of the terms of a SEA and in accordance with this Framework the SEA ceases to apply, the employee must notify the salary packaging provider that the terms of the SEA can no longer be packaged.

9. Notification

9.1 The Agency will include in its annual report information about SEAs approved by the Employer during the reporting year.

9.2 The Chief Minister and Cabinet Directorate will provide regular reports to the union(s) on SEAs including details of the number, terms and classifications of all SEAs approved by the Agency.

10. Interpretation

10.1 In this Framework, unless the contrary intention appears:

   ‘remuneration consultant’ means an organisation external to the ACT Public Service that provides consultancy-based and training services in the field of job sizing assessments or market surveys.

   ‘existing pay’ in relation to an employee is the actual pay payable under this Agreement on the date the SEA commences, or for a review, on the date that the SEA is approved or varied following a review.

   ‘internal remuneration employee’ includes an employee who has successfully undertaken training from a remuneration consultant in relation to job sizing assessments or market surveys. The Employer must approve an internal remuneration employee.

   ‘occupant’ means an employee who occupies a position in the Agency to which a SEA applies

   ‘relevant market data’ includes but is not limited to job sizing assessments, recruitment experience, market surveys and job advertisements. Where a job sizing assessment or market survey is used as relevant market data, the assessment or survey must be undertaken by a remuneration consultant or internal remuneration employee.

2. Travelling - Meal allowance

2.1 An employee required to be absent from Canberra will be reimbursed the reasonable costs of meals on the production of receipts as per the Public Sector Management Standards.

2.2 The Employer and UFU agree to develop a policy for conditions for employees engaged in task force operations. This policy will be developed through the FBCC during this Agreement.

3. Relieving employees and employees relieving allowance

3.1 Employees are entitled to an allowance per shift as per 1.1 of this Annex where they are directed to report for duty at other than their permanent station. Time spent travelling will not count as time worked.

3.2 Where an employee reports for duty at their permanent station and is subsequently directed to report for relieving or temporary duty at another station during that shift they will receive:

   (a) 50% of the allowance provided for in 3.1 if at the end of the shift the employee is not required to return to their permanent station; and
   (b) reimbursement of all reasonable costs incurred in travelling between the permanent and temporary station.
   (c) For the purpose of 3.2(a), costs incurred will be on the basis of actual fares paid or, where a private vehicle is used, at the rates contained in the PSM Standards.

4. Communication Centre (Comcen) allowance

4.1 This allowance is payable to employees performing duties in the Comcen, working at an agreed level of competence.

4.2 An employee, at or below the rank of FB5 (Senior Firefighter, who has successfully completed the appropriate training and performs duties in the Comcen delivering communications service to the operational areas of the ESA will carry the local title of Comcen Operator or Operator.

4.3 An employee who, having attained the rank of FB 6 and gained the appropriate training, performs duties in the Comcen as the officer in charge of other Brigade employees performing duties as Operators will carry the local title of Comcen Supervisor or Supervisor.

4.4 An employee who possesses the appropriate training and is required to perform duties in the Comcen as either an Operator or Supervisor will be paid an allowance for each shift such duties are performed.

4.5 The allowance specified in clause 1.1 of this Annex will be varied as specified in 36.2
4.6 The Comcen Allowance specified at 1.1 of this Annex is only paid for performance of duties in the Comcen and in the following circumstances:

(a) where the employee is attached, or transferred, to the Comcen - during any of the types of leave specified in this Agreement;
(b) where the employee is relieving in the Comcen the allowance is not payable on any types of leave.

4.7 Payment of the allowance as per clause 4.1 of this Annex will be appropriately reduced during periods of leave on reduced pay.

4.8 Payments during periods of compensation, long service and other types of leave will be governed by the regulations and guidelines associated with the relevant legislation.

4.9 Where an employee performs duties in Comcen for less than a full shift, the allowance will only be paid for periods of duty exceeding 3 hours.

4.10 The provisions of clauses 4.1 and 4.9 of this Annex apply to the performance of both overtime and ordinary duties.

4.11 The following conditions will apply to the Comcen:

(a) All Operators and Supervisors must be capable of doing all tasks required for the efficient functioning of the communications area;
(b) An FB 6 required to work in Comcen will be required to complete the training necessary to perform the role of Supervisor before they can take up duty as a Supervisor;
(c) whilst employees are undertaking the appropriate training for Comcen they will be supernumerary to staffing requirements and are not eligible to receive the Comcen Allowance;
(d) Employees attached to Comcen will maintain their firefighting competencies in line with brigade training policy, unless medical evidence indicates that this is not appropriate;
(e) Employees in Comcen are subject to the brigade rotation policy, unless medical evidence indicates that this is not appropriate.
