

About the F72A application form

Application for an order to stop sexual harassment that occurred prior to 6 March 2023

Complete this form if:

- you are a worker in a constitutionally-covered business,
- you have experienced sexual harassment at work that happened or started prior to 6 March 2023,
- there is a risk that the sexual harassment will happen again, and
- you want the Fair Work Commission to make an order to stop it from happening.

You can find out more about sexual harassment at work on our website.

You may need to use another form:

- If the sexual harassment happened or started after 6 March 2023, you should apply to the Commission using the F75 application form – Application for the Fair Work Commission to deal with a sexual harassment dispute.
- If you want to make an application that relates to bullying behaviour, you should apply to the Commission using the F72 application form – Application for an order to stop bullying.

This form asks questions about:

- your employment or engagement and what happened
- how to contact you, and your representative if you have one
- how to contact your employer/principal and each person you say has sexually harassed you at work.

When you complete the form it can help to have a pay slip or PAYG payment summary.

There is a fee of $77.80 to lodge this form. There is information about how to pay this fee and where to send your form at the end of the form.

If you need help you can visit our website to contact us.

We will send a copy of this form to the other people in this case, as well as any attachments.

This includes:

- your employer or principal
- the people you name in the form as having engaged in sexual harassment, and their employers/principals
- any legal representatives or paid agents involved in the case.

This is so they can understand your side of the case. We will then ask them for their side of the case.

If you are worried about particular information being passed on, don't include it yet. Lodge your completed form and then contact us to talk about whether you should provide the information.

Form F72A – Application for an order to stop sexual harassment that occurred prior to 6 March 2023

Fair Work Act 2009, s.789FC

This is an application to the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) for an order to sexual harassment under Part 6-4B of the Fair Work Act 2009.

About you (the Applicant)

1. The Applicant (you)

This is information about you. Please provide a telephone number. It is important that we can contact you so that we can deal with your application.

2. Do you need an interpreter?

If you have trouble accessing this information, please contact us. We can arrange to provide it in another format. You can find information about help for non-English speakers on our website.

Yes – What language?

No

3. Do you need any special assistance at a conference or hearing (eg do you have hearing difficulties)?

If you answer yes, we will contact you before a hearing or conference to see if there is anything we can reasonably do to assist you.

Form F72A – Application for an order to stop sexual harassment that occurred prior to 6 March 2023

Yes – What do you need?

No

4. Do you have a representative?

A representative is a person who speaks for you in your case, such as a lawyer, a union official or another kind of paid agent. You don't need to have a representative. You can read more about whether or not to have a representative on our website.

A representative is different from a support person. A support person is someone you bring with you to a legal proceeding who can give you emotional support, such as a family member or friend.

No I don't have a representative – Go to question 5

Yes I do have a representative – Fill in their contact details below

You will need permission to be represented by a lawyer or paid agent if a Commission Member holds a conference or hearing about your case. Our lawyers and paid agents practice note explains when you need to ask for permission to be represented. Our Benchbook describes how we decide whether we will give permission.

<input type="checkbox"/> No

5. Your employer/principal

Tell us the details of the person or organisation that employs or engages you.

Form F72A – Application for an order to stop sexual harassment that occurred prior to 6 March 2023

If you are an independent contractor, this is the person or organisation that has contracted your services. During the case, we will call them the principal.

We will send a copy of this form to your employer/principal and ask them to respond to your claim.

You can generally find the legal name of your employer/principal on your pay slips, PAYG payment summary, appointment letter or employment contract. You can use the Australian Business Register website to find their ABN.

6. Tell us how to contact each person you say has sexually harassed you at work

 We will send a copy of this form to each person you name in this table. This is so they can understand your side of the case. We will ask each person to tell us their side of the case. If you don't know all the details, please provide the information that you have.

Name of the person you say has sexually harassed you at work	Their position	Their phone number	Their email address	Do you still work or interact with this person at work? (Yes/No)	Does this person work for your employer/principal? (Yes/No)  If you answer No for anyone, we need more information on the next page

Did you write No for any of these people? Go to question 8. We need more information details about those people.

If you answered Yes for everyone, go to question 9

 Only answer question 7 if you answered ‘No’ for any of the people in the last column of the table above.

7. If any of the people you have named above work for a different employer or principal to you, tell us about their employer/principal.

If you engage with the people named above through their work, we may need to contact their employer/principal. For example, this might be because the person works as a contractor in your workplace, or is a regular visitor to the workplace.

Fill in as many details about their employer/principal as you can. If you don’t know all the details, leave those parts blank.

Add more pages if you need to provide details for more than one person.

Orders

16. What do you think needs to happen to stop the alleged sexual harassment?

The Commission can't make an order for the payment of money (compensation). You can find more information about the kind of orders the Commission can make in our Orders to Stop Sexual Harassment Benchbook and our website.

Sign your form

Privacy Read the Privacy notice to find out what personal information we collect, why we collect it, and what we do with it.

Disclosure of information Under section 655 of the Fair Work Act 2009, the President of the Commission may disclose, or authorise the disclosure of, this application if he or she reasonably believes that the disclosure would be likely to assist in the administration or enforcement of a Commonwealth or state or territory law.

Signature

If you can use an electronic signature, please insert it below. If you do not have an electronic signature, you can type your name in the signature box.

Name*Date*Capacity/position

Leave this blank if you are the worker who has applied for an order to stop sexual harassment. If you are signing on behalf of the Applicant, write your role here.

Consent to contact by researchers

The Commission undertakes research with participants in sexual harassment matters to ensure a high quality process. Some research may be undertaken by external providers on behalf of the Commission.

Do you consent to your contact details being provided to an external provider of research services for the sole purpose of inviting you to participate in research?

Pay the fee

It costs $77.80 to lodge this form. The fee must be paid for your application to progress, unless you have applied to waive the fee and this has been approved (see below).

I am paying by:

- Credit card We will call you for payment after we receive your form.
- Cheque or money order Please make it payable to the Collector of Public Monies, FWC. Send it to us at the same time as you send us this form.
- Cash Please pay in person at your nearest Commission office.

If you can't afford to pay the fee, you can ask that it be waived. Download and complete the Fee waiver form. Send it to us at the same time as you send us this form.

- I will pay the fee or I have included the fee waiver application with my form
- My representative will be paying the fee

Lodge your form

You can lodge your form by:

- Uploading it to our online lodgment service on our website
- Emailing it to ABSH@fwc.gov.au
- Posting or faxing it to your nearest Commission office.

What happens next

We will contact you to let you know what you need to do next. You don't need to do anything until then.

After we receive your form, we will let the other people involved in your case know that you have started a sexual harassment case. We will send a copy of your form as well as any other documents you have sent us to:

- Your employer/principal, and
- Each person you say has sexually harassed you at work.

This is so they can understand your side of the case. We will then ask them for their side of the case. We will also ask them to send you a copy of their response. After this has been done, a Member of the Commission will start dealing with the case.
